Wait And See, Time Will Prove

Wait and see. Wait and see. Wait and see saith the Spirit of Grace if time does not prove itself to be the author of all wisdom, for wisdom is justified of her children saith the Spirit of Grace. Know this that on this walk, when you follow Me, that all the things that you submit to Me are secure in My presence, your life, your family, your wellbeing. Know this that time and ages will prove you right according to My word, that your trust in Me was not confounded by the things of this world but was proven in the end to stand on a rock and a rock that could not crumble under the weight of this world saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

Think It Not Strange

(Note: this prophecy was spoken after a time of spontaneous singing and praying in the spirit with no music accompaniment)

Think it not strange. Think it not strange this type of worship or this type of presence. This is My presence and I love when you come in and just open your hearts unto Me and love on Me and just speak to Me out of the depths of your heart. I know what's in your heart. I know how your heart is. I know what your desires are. I've placed desires within you and I desire for you to come and just worship Me with your voice. To come and magnify Me and just let everything go and just come into My presence and bask in My presence and allow Me to move in you and through you upon all your circumstances and situations. All those are subject to change as you enter in and worship Me with all your heart. As you just come into My presence and magnify Me and tell Me how much you love Me, tell Me how much you want My will for your life. For when you open yourselves up like this I can come and move through you and you will learn to hear My voice as you listen from where you worship Me. As you listen from where you adore Me and magnify Me from. I will come to that place and I will speak to you, I will lead you, I will guide you, I will direct you and you will walk through every storm. You will walk through and you will rise above every circumstance and situation as you enter in and magnify Me with your voice, with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, with all your strength that you worship Me and adore Me says the Lord. Oh Hallelujah! Thank You Jesus!

No Longer Business As Usual

I say to you it is no longer business as usual. No longer business as usual so prepare yourselves. Get ready. As one would prepare themselves for battle I am Lord Sabbaoath the Lord of the army of the Hosts. Go forth. I have given you authority. Prepare yourselves I say. Get ready. No longer business as usual. Use your authority. I will back you up. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

You Have Come Up Higher

The wise will hear and understand what the spirit has to say through all these prophets saith the Spirit of Grace. For understand this, have I not notified you in advance of things in the spirit that you could not see with the natural eye and yet that things were transpiring beyond your ability to see and to hear? Did not I tell you that your enemy, weeks ago was fearful of slipping from a post that he had of authority over your lives and losing faithful ground that he had by his arsenal against your life through the decades. But know this those things as I prophesied have come to pass saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) How would you know? Would you wait for natural circumstances to tell you? No I say unto you hear the voice of the spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. Hear the voice of one looking in to that realm and seeing quite adequately those things that have taken place. For know this, this morning stands as your witness, not to an individual, not to a few but collectively you have all come up higher saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) Know this that ground, severe ground has been taken in the spirit and many of you locate that, many of you can locate things that you have been able to accomplish in recent days or a witness on the inside saying come up higher. But know this; whether you can signify or can not I say unto you today you are and have come up higher saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

How do these things interpret out says the natural mind? You'll note this that as one body comes up higher collectively that in everything in their lives even in the bodies, in their marriages, in their homes and everything that is personal to them. You will find even a higher level of authority and a deeper level of peace. Those who enter in know this, these things have come to you absolutely to a body elevating you and bringing you ever closer to the outpouring that I promised that you would have. For without this you could not go to the next place. But know this; your enemy licks his wounds this morning because there is a place that he does not have in you that he once had. But know this, take this opportunity to put the pedal to the metal and move forward saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Praise You Jesus! Hallelujah!

So rejoice! And again I say rejoice! Hallelujah!

You Have Come Up Higher

(Note: this was spoken at the very end of the service after the message)

Receive this word saith the Spirit of Grace. You have come up higher. Father now, take us into this next fold. The very words that we were singing, hearing - the blind see and the lame walk, the maimed are made whole and everything that You have to do in every personal life. To the person who is standing here who feels empty without a mate, Christ is your mate. To the divorced who feels cut off, Christ is your union. He is your husband. He is your wife. To the widow and the widower, Christ is the hope of eternity. He is the supplement. He has come; He is your hope for today and hope for tomorrow. He is your communion. He is the bond of every marriage gone bad. He is the strength of every communication unprocessed. He is perfection. You've come up higher, walk in it. Hallelujah!

You Have Been Empowered

Watch this, as I begin to show you what you've been empowered with saith the Spirit of Grace. Know this that the hearing ear will lean continually into My dependency and you will find that I am more interested than you ever dreamed with every part of your life. As you stand, as you walk, as you go forth continually, continually chasten yourself on the inside to wait. As you are speaking to one words that they are hearing continue to quiet your mind and listen to what I am saying, for I will change the course of your words and I will cause them to be endowed with power and watch, watch when in just a few words atmospheres change and favor comes. And things that were impossible by the natural begin to be possible by the spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

Securing Love

The hour is approaching for many of you that the definition of love be redefined through your experiences, through the washing of the water of the word saith the Spirit of Grace. For truth when it's truth, it's merited on truth alone and has no other need of supplemental help. No opinion, no added strength is necessary to guide it to its perfect place. Know this that upon My word I have built My church toward this latter end saith the Spirit of Grace. And the greatest of all these now abideth faith, hope and love. But the greatest of all these is My love saith the Spirit of Grace. So would it not make sense to you that the part that I continually try to fortify to you before I get the power over to you is the love part? This part must be secure before the other part comes along saith the Spirit of Grace.

The Realm of Love

Understand more about the mystery of My love saith the Spirit of Grace. For often My people that are moved on by My presence, feel My presence in these types of settings, when they are in other presence - their own or the pushing of the presence of the spirits of this world and they do not feel this anointing then they do not understand that the thing that I count most precious on your part is the matter of choice saith the Spirit of Grace. For know this, that when you do not feel this that does not mean that it is not present. It only is the thin line between the matter of choice of what you will do with what has come to you saith the Spirit of Grace. For one choice on your behalf can change the atmosphere inside of you. And know this that it is on that choice that I derive My greatest pleasure in you saith the Spirit of Grace. For I am not the one coming to tempt you or to push you or to press your emotions out of sort and I even examine the fact that there are things that are contrary to you and against your emotions but know this, that when you do not feel this type of pleasure and ease, when you choose to do the right thing and say the right thing and in your own self to imagine the right thoughts know that this is the highest form of My pleasure and this is where I can come and begin to open up this realm to you even in the most mundane situations saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah!
