(Tongues...) Know and understand that this fruit, this experience and much more like it is given to the church. This fruit of healing is for the healing of the nations, saith the Spirit of Grace. In that place that you call the Father's house our many dwelling places and in Him this is the place that is about to explode on planet earth. Know that on both sides of the river that flows from Him is the tree of life. That tree of life that bears its fruit will be eaten by the nations. Know that some will go there in the spirit before I call My church home. Those who bring the fruit of that place back will nurture those on planet earth with peace. For many seek peace and have found none. Still, this will be the calling card for the nations in the days ahead. For those of you that are first partakers, for as it is written, they that labor in the vineyard must be first partakers of the fruit thereof. This virtue that will flow to you will also flow through you saith the Spirit of Grace. Men will mark you by the peace that is in your spirit and you will lead a long procession into the house of God saying this is the way of the Lord, walk ye in it saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

(Tongues...) Hold your ministries in great regard and yet hold them loosely saith the Lord. Let no man say this is mine for all things are of the Lord. For in the days ahead many will be turned this way and turned that way and it will all be a working of the Lord. And the expanse will be great. Do not say this is my place and I hold it for myself. Know this, all of you are called and chosen of the Lamb. All of you will wear the robes of righteousness in that day and will be crowned every man severally as He wills. Know that because of the expanse and where you are going in My Spirit, regard everything that I have given you to be of the utmost but also continue to know that it belongs to Me and not to you. For many will come in your space, you must train them to take your place that you may go on further. Hold nothing. Hold nothing. Let everything be always loosely fitted in My hands that I may turn them as I will. Nothing belongs to man. All things belong to Me. And when you do you will find that great will be the multiplication of the disciples in this house saith the Spirit of Grace. (Instruction from the Head of the Church – not me.)

All things are possible. Many of you are looking through eyes and you're asking questions and saying how can these things ever change? Do you not know that before there was a Universe I existed? Who made the stars, the moon, and the sun? Who put the planets in orbit? Who held the galaxies in His hand long before the existence of man? Can I not conceive a plan and can I not give the weight of My glory and the facilitation of power to that plan so intricately involved that it will go and render helpless those things that have come to destroy and to oppose? Can I not bring way beyond your imagination the exceeding greatness of My power in every situation; so much so that all things will be conformed to My image, saith the Spirit of Grace? God!

(Tongues...) Many that have fallen now are being stirred. Many who have ministries, that hitherto have not been fulfilled you will find that I will breathe the fire of My glory on you. Once again I will kindle the desire for the work of the ministry and the call. You must fight past the beginning stages of this for the enemy will come immediately to tell you how much ground and time you have lost. Know, that if you will listen and follow Me and enter in, that I will bring you back so fast that you will find that the place that you stand in time will be the exact point that I wanted you to be even before the temptation took you out, saith the Spirit of Grace. Glory be to God! Only He can say things like that.

Do not take on false humility. False humility is to say I am not worthy. Do not meander in your mistakes, for the Lord the Head of the Church is calling you forward. It is pride that says, I must continue to pay for a time, for being absent from class in the spirit. That is false humility. It is pride. When I say come forth, you must come forth. (tongues) Hallelujah Jesus!

(Tongues...) For know that I have a baptism to baptize you with saith the Spirit of Grace. It is not a one time baptism but it is a continual place in My Presence. Know that what you feel and sense is My Hope within you and that it is always available for you. This is what I invite you into on a continual basis. This is what I desire to baptize you with on a daily basis. So come unto Me and know that you are not only going to make it but you are going to win and win big. For you have listened to the commentary of one who I have not sanctified. his voice is not among those that I have given you to listen to. Oh but know there is another voice that reports the truth to you and can not lie. And if I say that you are going to win, you are going to win saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...)

So, stop trying to figure out how you are going to win but know that I am God and I can not lie. If I have said that you will win – you will win. Leave it to Me to figure out the details. Baptize yourself in this baptism and watch the details unfold around you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

...so well pleased with. Realize that it is intimacy with Me that will attract the world. The world is hungering and starving and dieing for this. And as you intimately come and make love with Me and love Me as your groom, as you love Me as you are the bride of Christ and you intimately love Me you are going to attract those hundreds that you have talked about. It will not be the talents, it will not be the gifts, not the beauty of the place or anything else but loving Me. Because where there is perfect love, fear has to leave. When we get that perfect love fear can not be here. Many of you have walked in here this morning and you came in determined to worship Me no matter what. I saw your heart and I saw your love. A lot of you fought and you don't even know how you are going to get through some of the things that have come against you and your mind says, I can't do it. But you have said to Me this morning I know One who can. And you know that I can. You know I have a plan for you. It is a good plan. No matter what the enemy whispers to you he can not have you. You are My children. Your are mine, God has given you to me. You belong to Me. No matter what condition you may have walked in this morning or what this week has brought you, I can tell you that as you intimately love Me and totally believe Me and that My word is truth and that when I say it, it will be done. The enemy will lie but I tell you now cast down every imagination that exalts itself against Me. For I tell you this day that as you intimately love Me and look into My face and follow in My footsteps the things that are on you and that you have feared will drop off. Because the more you love Me the more love is perfected. There can not be fear where I am. And I will drive all fear this morning out of this place. There will not be any fear because I am so pleased that you are intimately in love with Me this morning and you want to please Me. Just believe Me. Believe what the word says and that I will do what My word says. I keep My word. I am not like man that I should lie and whatsoever I say, all My promises are good. All My promises will bring you to a greater walk. All My promises will deliver you. All of My promises will heal you. All of My promises are nothing but good and not meant for evil. This morning as you cast down those imaginations that say I can not control it. No, you can not control it, there is not a thing you can do to control one thing this morning. You can not make another person change. But I can make that other person change. I can control it. I am the controller. And if you will believe that I will show you great and mighty things to come. Hallelujah Jesus!
