(tongues...) Hallelujah! (tongues...) Jesus, Jesus, Jesus (tongues....)

In that exhortation in tongues the Spirit of the Lord was saying the more and more that you are able to turn your spirit over, He said a lot of our bodies are going to take on that rest. It is going to be transferred from our spirit into our bodies. (tongues...) Okay Father...He is really wanting to speak specifically. He said there are things in your body that have been resistant because of areas of fear and torment, things that have lain dormant. But know this, that more and more of you are learning that place of freedom. And as you exercise your right on a daily basis.. (tongues...) I just saw a picture like a transfer of an account. Like somebody actually opening a teller drawer and taking money out of that teller drawer and transferring it over some place else and the picture was one in this. The Lord said I am going to transfer things out of your new nature, the wealth of that peace that many of you are beginning to walk in will spill over into your bodies... Oh God...! Thank you for it! It will begin to emanate from your spirit man. It will come through the gate of the spirit and spill over into the body. And many things that have been resident things for months and even years will turn up missing saith the Spirit of God. They will be missing in action.

Some of you will not realize and you would think as it is now I will know the moment this leaves. But the reason you will not know when it leaves is because you will be so baptized in My peace that you will be more concerned about the peace that is in your spirit than the pain that was in your body. And you will come to recognize that the pain is gone from your body saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

(tongues...) Yes Lord. Yes Lord. He's saying a little further that as a result of tonight your eyes will be opened. Oh many, many of you will begin to see with a new vision and distinguish with a new light of My presence saith the Spirit of Grace. For you will be able to distinguish. And do not take the care for the care that was taken in the past for this is a new day saith the Spirit of Grace, for I am judging you now, not on what once was, but on your obedience to the call now. For now are your eyes being washed with clear water because of grace. Not polluted water, that which comes from the mind or the soul that can not distinguish and does often judge amiss or favoritism on your part or on the part of others in wrongful ways. But know that the judgment that comes from heaven will come of pure hearts and sound minds and there is no variableness in it. There is no hypocrisy in it but it is pure, undefiled wisdom from heaven.

So know this saith the Spirit of Grace that in these days and in the days ahead you are walking into a new place in My presence. And in My presence of fellowship you will begin to distinguish, oh thank You Jesus. You will see the enemy of your soul coming way before he gets to you.

Tongues... For know that I am placing a high tower inside of you tonight way before the enemy gets to where you are at you will see him coming down the road. Things that you accepted before you will have the strength in My Spirit to say no. The gate is not opened. The door is shut. Tongues... Know that many of you were of a pure heart and you did not accept these things because you desired to go amiss but you could not see. But when you said I can see and could not you were blind. But now that I have come and you do receive My grace, you will see. And when you say you see, surely you will and you will behold the enemy and you will distinguish what is truth and what is not. You will distinguish what is Me coming to lay My burden upon you, which I remind you again, My yoke is easy and My burden is light saith the Spirit of Grace. Those things that have in times before hidden themselves in darkness and distinguished themselves as responsibilities you will see and you will walk free from these things. And the enemy who once found a place to hide, no longer can find any place and now knows his day and his hour has been cut off saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Glory be to God! Oh Thank You Jesus!

Tongues... There has been released upon My church myriads of spirits of hell. You did not ask for them, you haven't even done anything to solicit them. But the enemy knows that his day is short, therefore, he has sent ever imp of hell to stand in your way and to defeat you on the line of the joy of the Lord. For in that joy is your strength to run. In that joy is your strength to walk. In that joy is your strength to go forward and to not faint of heart or of mind. Know that there is grace sufficient this morning. To receive of Me is to take the stand against everything that hell would offer you and know that what you receive is that which can walk with you and be a part of you. It is traced to these types of outpourings but know this is something that you walk in by choice saith the Spirit of Grace. So receive now by faith that which I give you. And know that it is in your hands and up to you to stand and receive on a continual basis this joy that causes the enemy to flee and causes you to make a formidable stand in this day that will be a testimony before the world. That even in the midst of all kinds of adversity you still have a peace which passes all understanding saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

...so, in like speaking will I speak to you in these days saith the Spirit of Grace. And as I have said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit has to say." For many of you will find the jewels, the gems that you need, the missing pieces in the days ahead in prophecy. Do not simply wait for these times and these words of prophecy for surely I will come to you, for I am a friend the desires friendship. I am a friend that desires fellowship. I desire to dwell with you in the least and the most medial things of life. If you will speak to Me and commune with Me on a continual, moment by moment basis and invite Me in to every – all the secret places and chambers of your heart and your life, do not think that I will accuse you. But know that I will rescue you and I will come to you and I will be pleased that you would even open up your heart and speak to Me about the smallest things and even the personal things. Even the things that you think might displease Me. Open up and speak them to Me that I may come in My pleasure because of your speaking and bring forth healing and restoration, saith the Spirit of Grace.

(Tongues...) Know this saith the Spirit of Grace that if your hearts condemn you, know that I God am greater than your hearts and knoweth all things. Know that I, your Father, the One that has conceived you in the new birth and brought you forth that I know the plans that I have for you. Plans to bring you out that I may bring you in to the fullness of My glory, for I can see far beyond where you can see. So trust My might and take My hand for I can see the battle even when you can not. And I see and understand what has been launched and waged against you. It is My desire to show you that the pleasure that I feel for you is far greater than what you give yourself credit for. If you will allow Me to be a Father to you, then I will prove to you that I am greater than your heart that condemns you and will set you in a place of strength and a place where you not only know by revelation that you are My righteousness, in My Son, but with that you will feel every square inch of that righteousness resonating in you and through you saith the Spirit of the Lord. For the joy of the Lord is your strength. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!

(Tongues...) That you would recognize in the spirit the ground the place that you stand. Know the host that I send and those accompanying spirits when they come and are coming the mandate they are receiving from Me that I am receiving from you is to receive more. So drink these things in and know that in all of this and in every feeling there is also more to come. So these are they that have been sent and the atmosphere is set. Oh, not just for this moment in time but way beyond these moments and these walls and these seasons. Know that these are the beginning of those days often prayed and longed for yet not seen in days gone by. Know that all those who drink of this water will be refreshed and will have the strength to go into the next secret place that I have for them saith the Spirit of Grace. So recognize the timing and recognize the season and all those who fill themselves full in these times will only be empowered to drink more and drink often saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!
