My Love Unimpeded

The earth has misunderstood, the world in itself has not seen the face of your father, for I am not as religion has portrayed me I am not a God that comes to do vengeance against those I love. Know this that I am a God that does vengeance against your spiritual enemy that would inhibit the vision of Jesus Christ and him crucified. For know this that I desire to pour out my love unimpeded on the world and I desire all to know that whosoever will let them come to drink the waters of life freely saith the Spirit of Grace, hallelujah, so know this as ambassadors of peace in this last day you'll have the opportunity of rearranging and changing how most people in this world see me and how most envision God to be, cause them to know that I am a father and I desire my family to come home saith the spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Anticipate the Change

Anticipate that the change that I'm bringing about, for know this, that change comes through familiarity saith the Spirit of Grace. For the same old things that you've proven even as my servant said "I cannot go into battle with these for I have not proven them" and he laid them off, know this that I'll come and change you, I'll come and change you and take you to higher places and higher places but know this that it'll always be through the familiar path that bares witness which says that I've come this far by this path and by all these things that I've proven and I know that they are of God and by God and for God, so know this that I'll never take you out of that which I've laid first the foundation for but know this that many of you are on a journey going higher and higher and higher and know this that your surroundings as you go higher and higher that you'll be able to reach out and say and test and prove and say yes I know that it's from God because it's a familiar place a familiar avenue and peace by which he speaks but know this I will take you into change and great change for the days ahead are filled with change saith the Spirit of Grace, hallelujah, hallelujah Jesus, Do not fear for the wicked one which in days ahead will rage. For know this that you have not seen your last battles with him nor have you seen the finest of what he will consider, his hay days but know this that all those who grow in grace will find out that the stronger he comes and more furious and more of a determination that he comes with that you yourself will have found that like in an insurance, money in the bank (that's what I was hearing I didn't want to say it cause it sounded carnal) but money in the bank like a bul-work of something that is there you've been there and you've done that and its full place and you know that no matter what he comes with that there's more than enough in reservoir to not only withstand him but to absolutely take ground against that which he's coming with saith the Spirit of Grace, hallelujah, so take great joy take great joy for the revenues in the spirit will be of this that when the enemy comes that many will flee, many that you thought were strong so set your eyes not upon men nor upon your brethren for know this that many will turn this way and that way and some will regain strength and find themselves through your prayers, but know this that you yourself do not, do not take any mans standing or falling to be your strength or to be your sign from me of how strong I am but run forward in these last days and know that a great fight is ahead but know that you are more than able to win in these last days. Hallelujah Jesus, Hallelujah Jesus.

Great Explosion

For take great hope saith the Spirit of Grace for these are days of great change and great explosion from glory to glory for often the mind will argue and say we've heard God say this before yes and I say it again for this is in my heart always to tell you that I have the capacity in Christ to change you from glory to glory saith the Spirit of God. So when someone says oh it sounds like its getting better and better all the time that's what I'm trying to say says the Holy Spirit. Hallelujah, Hallelujah.

I am Your Manna

Say to My people I am your manna sayeth the Spirit of Grace as I was to them in shadow that which they had need of when they ate of the bread that fell in the wilderness it became unto them everything that they had need of whatever their body lacked in protein and nutrients and in the things in the natural it was unto them a supernatural food that spoke of the shadow of him which was to come that he was unto you all things at all times for all seasons in all eternity sayeth the Spirit of Grace, Hallelujah Jesus.

I Am Your Father

Know this the greatest thing that you could worship me for is that I am the Father of your born again nature and that stands before us and between us for all eternities that this is who I am but know this if I did not want you praising me and worshiping me for everything that I am to you as in provider then why did I come with a full description of who I am and that is everything that you need, so why wouldn't I want you to worship me, worship me as provider and worship me as healer and worship me for all the intimate and intricate things that I could come to you as individuals and do for you oh yes this is always the greatest just because of who I am just being your Father but know that as your Father as earthly Fathers do for and provide for their little ones know also that with great joy that I provide for you so, so allow yourself the opportunities to give great expression in your worship to me on and individual basics of that place and all those things that I can do for you sayeth the Spirit of Grace.

Your Departure is at Hand

Rejoice for the day is at hand sayeth the Spirit of the Lord, rejoice and be glad exceedingly glad knowing that your departure is at hand and the things to be changed in the between time is all for my glory and for the exaltation of the kingdom of God. And for those things which will change and be changed for my glory sayeth the Spirit of the Lord, know this that in these days I am empowering you to go forth as ministers of light for the night cometh when no man shall work. This time will be over but now is the day so run with the message of truth that my Son is risen in His glory.
