For in the days ahead this will govern all things saith the Spirit of Grace. For the best that you can have is to walk in My love, your love one for another. For in this is all of the word and all the prophets and all of the commandments fulfilled. For if you would know this love then you would know that all things are possible. All things are possible to you. So know this is not far from you, for all those who rely upon Me and look beyond themselves and their weaknesses, do not saith the Spirit of Grace look to yourself. In the hour that you see your weaknesses again turn to Me and look beyond yourself. For looking at yourself will only cause you to remain in the place that you are. But look beyond your weaknesses for know that I do not hold you in contempt in your weakness but I desire to pull you up into a place that I have provided for all of you to walk free. So this is My commandment that you love one another and in the hour of your weakness look unto Me and I will be there to safe guard you and to lead you into a safe harbor saith the Spirit of Grace.

Know you not that I desire to visit you in these ways often. For you are as He was My hopeful and now that I have received Him to where He lords over you then He has given to you what I gave to Him and that was the power to tread upon scorpions and serpents and over all the works of the enemy and so by any means whatsoever in which the enemy would come, he could not destroy you. And I said that you shall tread upon all the works of the devil and by no means shall anything harm you saith the Spirit of Grace. For know that it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom and why have I given you these things? So that the very joy by which was received of My Son, the inheritance of the heathen and those who would come into the family of God, for you have been given this right to stand on this line and challenge the enemy and to know that I would come to you and surround you with everything that you needed to walk through the fire and not be burned saith the Spirit of Grace. For this is My promise to you that if you will open up your spirit as I came this morning because My word said that I would come and you believed it and I said fear not and you believed it and I say again to you fear not and believe it saith the Spirit of Grace. For if you will believe these things I will come, I will not leave you as orphans. I will come and visit you, My promise is to come and visit you often on this line and cause you to go to places in intercession that will birth first for you everything that you need beginning first in courage and peace and lack of fear and a way far distance away from all the trepidations and the threats and the slaughters of the evil one. And you will dwell in a place with Me that even though he comes and you hear it, it will not affect you because it will not get on the inside saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! (tongues...) For anyone who has the courage to touch the realm where the unbelieving live and fight passed the demonic forces know this that I will walk with you as I walked with the fathers before and those who knew Me walked in the fire and by no means was anything destroyed off their life. (tongues...) Take careful notice of this saith the Spirit of Grace, for I have noticed that the enemy has come not just to one but to several and spoke words against that which you are trying to do as in bringing the loss of fear to your life, the loss of things that would bring fear to your life. Know that I have provided a place inside of Me and it is not a place beyond that which you can live. Oh the fathers lived there and even some of the Old Testament like my son David reached a place where he kept that which was his under the things of My covering. So do not fear little ones for not a hair of your head will be destroyed nor those little ones that you count as precious to you if you will stay in Me and Me in You and I abide in you and you with Me in the Father nothing shall destroy you in the days ahead. Hallelujah! Jesus!

Surely I have a personal personalized plan for your life. I have not cut all of you out of one pattern to be and live as if individually I will not come to you. But I have called you to follow One that is One who went before you and in Him all things consist, all things come to fullness. For know this, I have a plan. It's a goodly plan for your life. For this is why I come to you and solicit from you and ask you to give Me these interrupted times of your life for I enjoy hearing your praises to Me but beyond that and on a higher plan for your life I am asking these things so I can intercept you, interrupt your thinking to begin to try to once again to instill My thinking and My wisdom towards your end saith the Spirit of Grace. For there is nothing that the enemy has come at you with or the flesh or circumstances of life that I do not have multiple plans and multiple choices to be able to deliver you and set you on high and always keep you going forward. But know that it is in these seasons that I have to come and try and try to interrupt because you have set a course with your own thinking and so often you see the way that you think that I will settle the issue or the way that things will go so I come and do what I Father knows best to do is to intercept you and try to pull your spirit up to a place where I can change the way you have been thinking. Because I see things from a different perspective and if you could see things they way I see them you will in a moments time change everything that you see not only the problem but you will see the answer and you will joy way before the solution comes to the end of your problem. You will see from My perspective and you will know the joy that I see in seeing it all accomplished in My Son, Jesus your Lord. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Know there will come a time when in a moment you will enter these doors, in a moment you will have My mind because you are fellowshipping with Me more and more behind closed doors bringing that fellowship in here and in a moments time you will have My mind for everything. For your life, for the service and for the service that I will bring to all that will come in here so carry on little ones, carry on intercessors and continue to be happy to serve Me at this table of worship and when you do I will use your authority to come and interrupt the lives of those who were on their way to destruction and I will interrupt them because you are giving Me this authority saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Thank You Jesus! Hallelujah!

(Tongues...) Victory is so close to you. Victory is so much closer than you can imagine. Victory for you, freedom from the bondages it is as close as the mention of My Name. (tongues...) For you lack the confidence that these season will bring. For do you not know that your words spoken in Me have power and that I will follow them to the pulling down of strongholds? For you have not because you not spoken and addressed issues in My Name and spoken that Name which is above every name, that at the Name of Jesus every knee shall bow and every tongues confess to the glory of God that Jesus is Lord. For in taking in these seasons and worshipping Me your confidence will grow. Your confidence will grow. For it has not always been of absence of mind that you are not speaking to your mountain but often times it's you are not living in the confidence that I want to give you for I am as close as the mention of My Name saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! I speak Your Name Jesus!

(Tongues...) He said for certain intercessors that you have lifted things up before Him and set things to the intimacy of your heart, know that nothing ever spoken behind closed doors in intimacy with your Father goes unheard. And know for an assurance that if I hear these things then a plan is already at work to bring these things to pass saith the Spirit of Grace. So do not cast away your confidence. Do not cast away that which has great recompense of reward for soon, so soon many of you will be happy because you will find that the bread that you cast on waves that went off from shore now is coming back bountifully supplied in measures that you were even... He said bashful or almost embarrassed to ask Me for. For these things will come back and you will glean with great joy watching the change in other people's lives that you were asking me for and the spiritual change in your own life that you were asking Me for, those things that you were at one time almost approached Me with a shamed face almost with hat in hand, almost too embarrassed, know that I have heard your request and with great boldness all of heaven is coming to answer your prayer, so you will know that what I received in prayer I was not ashamed to come back and give you the full answer of heaven. Your Father has received these things and is happy to give you all these things saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Glory be to God! (tongues...)

If you tarry with Me with these kinds of hours know that a wave will wash over this place. A tidal wave in the spirit and it will cover others who were not even asking for it and this wave will be a wave of tremendous joy and tremendous peace. For once again those who could not feel the joy of their salvation, once again the joy of knowing that they were saved and knowing that they were in the Father the joy of the Lord will multiply exceedingly and abundantly above all that they have been asking or thinking and I have sent this wave and you will receive it if you will not relent. And if you will not step back know that a wave is scheduled for this house and with great, great joy many of you will run under the anticipation of this wave and shout like you were a spring chicken, like you were a new born babe in Christ, like feeling the joy of your salvation, once again you will feel the joy of your salvation because I have scheduled this to come...it is coming saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...)

For he attacked many of you in this year, he attacked you in ways you were not familiar with and even though you fought a good fight, one of which heaven testifies of, there has been loss in it. There has been loss in the sense of this place of joy but know that there is a restorative work taking place even now saith the Spirit of Grace and you will mount up with wings as an eagle. The joy of the Lord...(tongues...) for what he came for was to cause you to get where your joy and your peace were almost on a level that you could hardly move...(tongues...) he wanted to paralyze you and bring you to a place where you spoke only out of a place where you knew what were the right things to say and the right way to act and to paint a smile on your face but know this, I am about to take a bunch of you passed to the place of faith. I am about to take you to the place where you feel the smile behind the place of faith and you will run and not be weary and you will walk and not faint saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...)

For some went out thinking the world had more to offer than the church. Thinking that the world could fulfill something they had not gotten inside of Me. Know this saith the Spirit of Grace, along with this wave of My glory what is washing up on the beach of your life now, know this that those who went out will come back in and they will drink of this living water and it will clear their eyes and what the enemy convinced them of they will forget to see any longer and what they thought was void in their lives will be fulfilled inside of them and they will seek no pleasure in the world but they will only seek that pleasure which My Spirit can bring saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...)

For many of you he shot arrow after arrow trying to destroy your finances but you stood the test and lifted up the shield of faith and because of this I am watching him from a place that you can not see. Know that his quiver has just about shot out the last of his dastardly deeds, those deeds have about come to an end because you have stood the test and because you have stood the test a row play is about to reverse and because you have held up My banner and lifted up My shield and about the last of what he knew he could throw at you has been hurled. Know that you are about to rule and reign through a place of dominance saith the Spirit of Grace. This is not a place where the enemy concedes and says okay I will make peace with you. This is a place whereby war you stood the test and now you are about to as a victor's crown place your foot upon his neck and when you do saith the Spirit of Grace and when you do, what will ride in on this wave will be a dominance of progressive blessings in that financial realm that you have stood for and believed Me for. Get Ready! Because some of you are not hardly going to be ready to receive what I am about to pour out saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! (Tongues...)

For all there is a resting place in Me. I have great joy to give you. Your Father takes no pleasure to see any of you struggle and if you will call on Me in your weakest hour when you think that I can not hear, when by your own definition there is no presence and it is as dry as the driest moment of your life if you will speak My Name. I promise you on the basis on My Word and I will come and change the things around you. For you have not because you ask not but if you will ask you will see I will prove Myself to you. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus! We exalt You! (tongues...) For the days are so much closer than what you realize to the raising of the dead. Do you not know that the closer it gets to that place of authority that I can give you these things that enemy must try every last trick in his scheduled book of warfare, for the days of raising the dead are upon you. Know this; it will turn in a moment's time. It will turn on a moment's time. And those of you who have and are now calling on Me to be used know that this will go to all those who can believe Me for it. In a moment's time many of you will report back with unheard of kinds of miracles. (tongues...) These are so much closer than you realize. It is his tactic to try and convince you that these things are set off way in the distance and thus he does by a continue assault on your peace but I am coming to convince you saith the Spirit of Grace that the immediacy, the presentness of these things are upon you, they are upon you. So rejoice in Me and believe, believe that you are all going to be used in these mighty works saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! The blind see, the lame walk, the deaf hear, the dumb speak, the dead are raised and thousands and thousands are born again. Jesus! (tongues...)

For the days of these manifestations are not over for many will be the times that you will meet in this house and in other places that you will come together for social times...and I heard Him say this, He evidently knows how to talk just like we do, you will come together for barbecues and you will come together for social times in this place that is coming. You will begin to talk about Me as you enjoy each other's company and as you begin to talk about Me in this place that is coming called revival know that it will come time and time again that the house wherein you assemble yourselves together will be shaken by My presence saith the Lord. The glory of My presence will come in almost unexpected. You will be about to take another bite on a rib and I am going to come saith the Spirit of Grace. You will be about to speak another word and I will come and shake the house wherein you are sitting. See these things because these are the days of your future. You will be going about doing your mundane kinds of things and enjoying your company inside of Me and I will shake the house wherein you are sitting saith the Spirit of Grace. And I will refuel you time and time again for My outpouring and the lost will see My glory in you and My strength will be upon you continually. (tongues...) You will go to this place and to that place and because you will carry inside of you the pregnancy of revival continually you will just begin to speak a word and I will come on you and you will begin to change the whole atmosphere saith the Spirit of Grace. I will shake the house because you are in the house. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah! Jesus! Jesus!

Jesus! Jesus! I saw Him at weddings. I saw Him at parties and we were a messed up bunch. We could hardly have a good time with each other because when we started talking He blew in and shook the place and we got reenergized and rejuvenated, refueled. (tongues...)

Do you think that I would ask you to do this for Me, give Me a revival, that I would not come and do unordinary things for you? For no good Father would ask anything of His children that He would not amply supply and meet all of their needs. For the needs that I am talking about are not the needs right now that I am explaining concerning the financial but I am talking about those things in the spirit that you will need to stand and receive My glory and pass it over to the nations. For I will do unordinary things for you and to you in the days ahead because I am asking something from you I will also do My part to come and shake places and shake the atmosphere and where satan has bound up and placed citadels of darkness around you know that it is My pleasure to give you the keys to the kingdom and to pull down spiritual strongholds. I will come. I will come and do My part! Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah!
