The spirit and the bride, the spirit and the bride say come, come Lord Jesus. For know this that in the foreknowledge of God, knowing that the day would come when there would be groups of people who like the waters cover the earth would raise up and desire that I would come once again and rule and reign as I have already given My authority in the earth. And know this that there was foreseen for these days a group of people all over the planet who would enter in and call upon Me for this last great outpouring saith the Spirit of Grace. For measure these things and know that many are the afflictions truly as I have said, many are the afflictions of the righteous but the Lord delivers them out of the them all and know this, that the present afflictions or things to come are not worthy to be compared with the glory that you'll share with Me in the ages to come saith the Spirit of Grace. So know this that as I posture Myself to return to this place, listening always to My Father to give Me that last sound to go ahead and to return that I am waiting on you for your expectation solicits My presence saith the Spirit of Grace. For all who hope in Me and expect My presence in their lives daily, in their lives at church, in their lives as they maneuver in this world know this that this same expectation will bring forth the outpouring and then ultimately bring forth My coming again saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Understand this saith the Spirit of Grace unto you, all those who worship Me out of spirit and truth that a time of great spoils is coming unto you, a time of great spoils and lightness of heart and spirit for those who endure to the end the same shall be saved and brought in to the fullness of what I have. For know this, that seasons of refreshings are offered to everyone who comes under the sound of My voice and hears My word for you would say why not today, know this, that as much as I can I will get over to you My grace even now. But know this the grace that you receive today is laid up on your account to work the work of grace inside of you to give Me the authority to come in times ahead of you and bring forth great restoration, great restoration so that when you come into My house and you enjoy My presence you will find that the easiest day that you found at this point and time was hard compared to what it will be in the future because great lightness and refreshings are coming to you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

Tongues...For many think this is the end. They see what is presently in front of them and the place of the spirit and the walk of the spirit and the level of anointing that they walk in and others walk in but know this that as I am concerned that you have yet begun the vastness of the journey into the glory that I have provided unto you saith the Spirit of Grace. For the things that you rejoice over now will only be kids play, kids play in the time to come. So rejoice for what you have and rejoice for what will be saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! We worship You Jesus! Hallelujah! If you don't get that it sounds like things are going to get better and better and better and better, if you just want good ole slang gooder n' gooder to everybody who will just yield there selves over to Him. We haven't seen our best days of glory yet, in face He doesn't even think we've hardly begun. Hallelujah! We worship You Jesus!

Tongues...Hear the word of the Lord would say for truly, truly it is My anointing that breaks the yoke. For as you enter in to this, these places of worship in My presence you will find that the desire of your heart is answered in this place saith the Spirit of Grace. So give earnest heed to this place of My presence and how you got there for the way there is adoration and the way there is strength in My presence and you will find on every line of your life that I will answer you with good things saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! I worship You Jesus!

Cont'd - How do I say these things saith the Spirit of Grace, to my beloved, to those whom I love and desire to speak so tenderly to? There is so much that I desire to take off of you. There is so much that I desire to relieve you from saith the Spirit of Grace. Tongues...so as you wait in My presence things that you think would be a struggle for Me to relieve you from are so easily accomplished in My presence. For I do not desire to shake you as if to shake your very foundation and bring any part of the same resemblance of fear that the world is impending and placing against your walk. For my stirrings are this that a yielded heart brings forth great fruit, great fruit. And even in your repentance I will be there to bring forth a readiness of heart and mind so that it is not a tearing, it's not a ripping, it's not a wound left gaping and oozing with all manner of unhealed properties. Know this saith the Spirit of Grace, to the man, to the woman, to the vessel who will simply yield their members over to Me in this I come, I come as a loving Father as I said how do I speak these things to you? For those who have been badgered by the world and also by the enemy and then last but not least you own self has been part of the accusation. So come now saith the Spirit of God and be healed for I will work a work in you and I will lift things off of you and I will pull things off of you and I'll deliver you for deliverance is necessary in many cases for you think the thing that you struggle with in your mind and in the flesh is only a part of your flesh but know this that other things are involved, the enemy has sent different spirits of this world. But I will detach you from these things for I have already positioned you in a place where everyone who calls out to Me, the Name of Jesus, that name which is above every other name, know that His name brings forth a detachment of all those things by which would hinder you and bring you down and subvert the thing that I have called you to do. Wait in My presence. Let My glory bring forth the cleansing that you need and that the church at large needs in these last days. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah! Come and wash us Jesus. Wash us over and over again. Forgive us of the things that we know that are not pleasing and the things that we don't know, for you are not the accuser, you are just the Healer. We take this opportunity to come under Your glory, to come under Your healing and to come under Your repentance, Jesus, wash us, examine us, we can't do it ourselves that's why You are our Father and that's why you speak tenderly to us. We will not be perfected in this day alone but by every washing of the spirit and I worship You and I glorify You. I thank You Jesus! I worship You Jesus!

Tongues...break even now the spirits of poverty saith the Spirit of Grace. Tongues...call a line; I am interpreting, call a line and break that spirit, that's what He just said in that tongue. Tongues...for many are undergoing more than the present economy against their finances. Some have run into dead end roads, Tongues...He'll speak specifically saith the Spirit of Grace. People owe you money, Tongues...unordinary things taking place, this is not just the economy, this is not just certain things...Tongues...for you need to take the authority for Me to take the authority so take this opportunity in My spirit to pray for the people, (now that is to me) and I will release a grace to them that will give them the grace to access more of My grace and they will take authority in their homes and they will take authority in their employment and their work place so that I can send My spirit and I can send My angels to go and gather these things up and bring forth a great resounding against what the enemy has brought at large. Tongues...for most of the time My people become caught up in the maze and they can not see what is happening because it is disguised by what the world is going through but I am telling you that there is more than what the world is going through, there are assignments against many of you.

Called a grace line and ministered to the people.

Tongues...for terrific price has been paid for your healing and for your deliverance, for your freedom of choice, for your ability to approach Me without shame and without condemnation. So why would you stand afar off waiting for something to come when everything has been provided? So sit down at My feet and know this that not even your sin can hold Me back when you yield your members over. Know that everything is provided in My Son and to him who looks to Me all things, all things, all things are under his feet. Hallelujah!

See this is what church is about. Not you just going through what is played and what is sung but you lose yourself and have your own church. Let Him come and talk to you. Let Him come and sanctify you over into...so say well I, pastor, it's a lot of stuff. Listen, where have you come to? You've come to His throne and in one moment He can change everything. So why don't you come and stand around here and magnify him with all your heart and strength. Just pour yourself out before Him, let Him come, let Him be to you what He wants to be. Tongues...

Have I not called you saith the Spirit of Grace. Have I not termed you, have I not pronounced on you that you are kings and priests unto Me? Have I not said that I have ordained you saith the Spirit of Grace? You must, as a godly people rise up and take possession of your calling saith the Spirit of Grace. For I have ordained you as a New Testament church to take possession of your ministries and your calls and to move out and to begin to possess the land that you call revival. Know this that I have provided these things for you and yet so few take their position at the table. Know this that I as I said judgment must first come to the house of God, but the enemy of your soul, the accuser of the brethren and your flesh has so twisted the things that I desire to do in this judgment. Do you think that I will speak to you harshly when you come to Me as a Father? Do you think that I will not raise you up in peace and in love? For it is not I who hold your weaknesses against you but it is you who have listened to long to the accuser of the brethren. Know this that I desire to wash you with pure water and to wash your conscience. Oh, for your weaknesses and the hour which you stand in can not hold back My prevailing love to change you hour after hour from glory to glory saith the Spirit of Grace. So come to Me and let Me wash you continually and thoroughly. Let Me equip you with the equipping so that when you go out you are equipped knowing that I am your Father and I have provided all of everything you need to fulfill your earthly ministry and call. Hallelujah Jesus!

Tongues...If you would know this mystery then your whole life would change. For my body who waits for somebody else to feed them you do yourself a great injustice for I am your Chief Shepherd and it is My good pleasure to give you the kingdom and lead you into pastures. To flock you in places where you are able to graze and feed in My word and let your gifts and calls come to fullness. Know that I desire to move among you, each one of you that your gift and call come forward with the full manifestation of the spirit, not holding Me back. This comes from that place of grazing in My presence and in My word. Jesus!

...for I take, I take most great delight in coming and honoring the words of My Son saith the Spirit of Grace. For do you not think that if you will call on Me that I will hear from heaven and heal your land? For beyond just your understanding of...on the national level, know this that I desire to get into your homes and into those places where those who seem to be hopeless, I can reel them in saith the Spirit of Grace. Release Me on a continual basis for do you not know that the words of your born-again spirit which leave your spirit vacate through your mouth, you have the capacity to speak life and you have the capacity to speak death. For do not say, Oh my God I don't know what we are going to do but rather reprove the hidden works of darkness and speak on this wise. Father I say that all things are possible to them that believe. Hallelujah! I say that all things are possible to them that believe. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah! (Tongues...) For a great reservoir of angelic hosts is pending on your account. Do you not understand that in the substitution of all things not only was I substituted...not only was the Lamb substituted in your behalf concerning sin but His whole life portrayed the substitution that you could abound. He became poor that you through His poverty might be rich. Do you not know that I provided access for legions of angels? For the angels that He would not call on those legions over twelve legions that He would not call on at His moment of despair do you not understand that that was speaking on your behalf, that He substituted Himself that now you have the capacity to call on Me that I might release angelic hosts on your behalf and that they might come and minister to those who will be inheritors of the kingdom of God so why stand you aloft and let your angels stand day after day and watch as the enemy devours your life? Would you not speak and release that work of grace that He has already provided for so that they which have been called and created on your behalf could come and minister great works of grace, I say these things are provided in the atonement saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!
