...Know this saith the Spirit of Grace, that in such like kinds of meetings in which you give Me authority to come and break down your will and turn that will over to the Father and stand in your stead and you lose your identity for Mine, know with this, this brings about great pleasure from your Father. And the joy, His joy that He experiences in these kinds of submissions turns over into your strength saith the Spirit of Grace, so that you are able to run your race without hindrance, unabated from the things of the strings and the entanglements of the flesh. Know this, great pleasure is in heaven when these things are accomplished and know that your authority in the spirit to change things and bring about significant change is brought to a new place in Me when you find in My anointing and My grace and your submit to that anointing and grace and give yourself over to humble yourself in My presence know that I will surely as your Lord and Savoior will exalt you, I will exalt every man who humbles himself and brings himself to this place and My exaltation will be the authority by which you pray for others and bring these things to pass according to My will saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

For understand this, nothing is rendered, nothing is changed except I come and do it, but for those who will believe Me and wait upon Me as in the spirit, for miss interpretation of that verse is what keeps most people from receiving for the waiting that they are doing is usually in the thought process of time and to wait as in a passing moment. No, the waiting that I am asking from you is the kind that fills your atmosphere with all of the faith that heaven has to offer to your born-again nature. So know this, that is in everything in life, that unless I render it or that I come, for many place an emphasis on prayer but go through the motions and never wait with a place of expectancy that allows Me to come and truly, truly become involved in your prayers and become a part of the answer. For know this, this kind of expectation has its roots in the very place of intimacy and expectation of My presence to do those very things saith the Spirit of Grace. For I am not looking for motions, for in going through the motions of things many have thought will bring Me to the place of performing the miracles but no motion, nothing of going through the motions brings the place of fulfillment. But in that place where you stand in My spirit and allow Me to come and invade the very space of your spirit so that every moment that you pray and every thing that you lift up is filled with the true God kind of faith, then know these things are invaded by heaven and heaven is doing something valuable and praise worthy. Hallelujah! Glory be to God! Hallelujah!

Hear what the Spirit of the Lord would say, for these things, the things that you dearly treasure, the things that change life's circumstances, the things that make the difference, these things are free saith the Spirit of Grace. What is it that you can add to it that My Son's blood has not already bought and paid for? What is it that you can add to it by your works that will cause this thing to be more perfected? Know this, this is free! Glory to God!

You have got to ask yourself one question, of all the thousands of people that Jesus healed in Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, show me one place, one place before He laid His hands on them, that He asked them before He healed them, "Have you been keeping the law?" Before I heal you, before I deliver you, before I manifest My love to you...it is accessed by one thing and one thing only, your faith in what He's done for you. Hallelujah to God! (tongues...) These things are to be all the more dove into and relished in My presence for freely you have received. You will soon be a nation of people, a peculiar people that in the enjoyment of your freedom you will manifest this among the nations for truly; truly I have given this to you. I have given this to you, He who spared not His own Son how shall He not with him freely give you all things in this life to enjoy. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah!

If you would hear what the Spirit of the Lord would say for oftentimes against impending impossible odds when things look insurmountable in life's situations people bow their knee to the circumstances only too soon to find out that I had a plan to get them past. Not just a momentary plan to get them past in a momentary victory but one that was past anything that they themselves could have imagined. So stay with Me, walk with Me until the end of the thing that is standing in front of you and you will find that if you will put your trust in the Lord and lean not to you own understanding you will find that all of your ways will be directed of Me saith the Lord. And the victories that I give, they are not to be compared with the victories that you stand in after you have waged your war and come to a peaceable place and concede to the thing and say I can live with this, I can live with this. Know that the victories that I give are so far exceedingly and abundantly above all that you could ask or think, that you will stand so far head and shoulders above the thing that opposes you that you will even begin to search for it and find it nowhere near you but only the pastures, but only the green pastures and still waters that I promised to everyone that would put their trust in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Hear what the Spirit of the Lord would say, understand these things and mark them thoroughly within your heart and with your minds for know that soon the nations of the earth will pour into this place that I have provided in My spirit. Watch as the midwives birth the churches, the places that are after the pure and undefiled. Know this that you are one of many taking on the torch to run with truth and with patience. Know the greatest pressing; the greatest pressing towards the mark is always close to the end. So press as one that presses forward to the mark for the prize of the high calling. And know this that when I gather you together like this and visit you as I visit you now it is to first come and to bring forth healing and deliverance and the sense of victory that you have been instilled and installed in My presence and in My person saith the Spirit of Grace. Have I not said out of My word that the husbandmen, the caretaker of the vineyard will first be partaker of the fruit thereof, so know this that as I come to bring forth this impartation of grace, life and healing to your minds and to your bodies and to your spirit and to lift you up and give you the sense of victory as in who I have caused you to be in My Son then know this that the next thing that I will ask of you is to turn your authority on the nations of the earth with a sense of gratification and satisfaction as if all things are under your feet. Now, exercise the right of authority, right that has been given you this honor hath all His saints, have I not prophesied by My prophet to execute judgment upon the earth, to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron, know this, this is the honor of all My saints saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! (Tongues...) so it is a right thing for you to come in and to receive healing and judgment over your bodies and judgment over your souls and then to know that I bring forth that inspiration of My spirit that causes you to turn the sword and pull down those things round about you concerning your families and to know with a visualization of My spirit that all of those that you pray for are coming in, in this last day harvest of My spirit. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!

(Tongues...) Know the mind of Christ; understand that I am not the author of confusion but rather I can take the enemy as I showed you by way of example in the old and turned the confusion that exists inside the hearts, of those who are in the world, I can turn it against so that the latter end is those who are being prayed for will be brought forth in salvation. So know this, some of you have those loved ones that are bound by relationships and caught up in circles of relationships and intertwined with different people of the world that at this time are not seeking to hear My voice or to follow Me but know this that if you will pray, if you will pray that as I did then I will do now, I will cause the spirits to turn against each other and relationships will be broken and things will be broken in that atmosphere that binds those spirits together so that individually I can go first to those to whom you are praying for and I can bring them in to My kingdom, wash them in My blood and cause them to be set on a one way course into My glory. Then I will go after all, even those who were in ungodly relationships and ungodly situations I will use the authority to run out in front of these and cause them to come to a place even when you are not presently praying their name out in prayer I have got their latter end on My mind too saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

(Tongues...) Know this that the world is looking for you and looking for Me saith one, looking for you saith the Spirit. For as they looked their hearts desiring a savior and I sent, spared not My own Son, now know this that the answers to their life unfold and are as close as your life to them saith the Spirit of Grace. So know that as they looked for the first born, the first begotten, so now the representation of Him in the earth is you living and breathing ones that I have instilled My spirit to saith the Spirit of Grace. So press forward and do not neglect the gift that has been given to you by the laying on of hands, know that to those whom much has been given much is required, but know that My grace is sufficient for you to press on and to press forward and neglect not those things that have been given to you by My Spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. For indeed, indeed great joy and jubilation and rejoicing of My spirit is prepared for all those who will continue in well doing and will continue knowing that the laborers will be the first partakers of the fruit thereof saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

(Tongues...) More and more miracles are coming, so test the waters (tongues) not as, Here is the difference, it's like I can see what He is saying and I can stop and give commentary. Not as the pool of Bethesda which those waiting for a season when the angel came down and troubled the waters. For truly I used those things for a season to testify of the One that would come and the One who showed up that day and brought forth the healing that was out of season without the troubling of the water, know this that One has now introduced healing and miracles for all those who will step into Him saith the Spirit of Grace. So now test the waters, bring the impotent man, bring the man who is sick and the woman who is demented, bring the straggling ones of this earth and the ones on the outside and know this that it is of My utmost desire to trouble the waters every time you come together saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!
