Yield Your Members to Me

Know this, the greatest thing that you can do as a son or a daughter of God is to learn the simple process of yielding to my presence. To know that you can do nothing to cause me to love you as a Father any more than what I already do. So it is for you a great humbling experience but the greatest pleasure I have is to lavish my love on individuals that learn to yield their members to me saith the Spirit of Grace. For the greatest pleasure that you can bring me in this life, while it is called now is for you to pursue me in spirit and in truth for that spiritual effort, that spiritual effort, that you put forth as in faith believing that my grace is sufficient to cover you and to keep you and to bring you into my presence as you pursue my presence and pursue a relationship with me beyond anything else in this life that could bring competition. Know this is my greatest pleasure that I find in my Son in you, saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, Hallelujah.

Kisses of My Mouth

Hallelujah Jesus, Hallelujah, He said again, some people are real impressed with power and that's my hand but I want to kiss you with the kisses of my mouth saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah Jesus, we worship you and praise, yes sir. The one thing that he'd want you to know is that he is overwhelmingly pleased with you, he loves you.

Catch Pristine View

For He says, let Me become the vision of your life, let Me begin to describe to you the scenery of your place of advancement in Me and in the Father. Catch pristine view of what it looks like to come where I am. For I desire to visit you personally in ways that you've never known and though you've heard My voice often times saying come up higher, often you have failed to let Me describe to you that place in its beauty for I desire to bring you into a room and into a garden thoroughly furnished, thoroughly furnished and bring forth the absolute completeness of who you are in Me as an individual saith the Spirit of Grace. For as you begin to see Me through My eyes and as I am able to cause you to see yourself in Me through My eyes then am I able to empower you in places that you've never gone for I desire this more than you know and I desire to describe this place to you more than you've ever seen saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, hallelujah Jesus.

The Golf Course Community Church Has Failed

For I'm gonna change, He said, Your whole way of thinking in these last days for I'm drawing you apart but be of good courage there are many more who I am sanctifying on the earth to know this place in Me. For religion has failed, the Golf Course Community Church has failed saith the Spirit of Grace. The Community Club Church has failed saith the Spirit of Grace, those things which man ordained and set into effect will never work but once again hunger is touching my body worldwide and know this those who have ears to hear will hear what the Spirit says and when I have brought forth this Bride then I will put forth the Bridegroom saith the Spirit of the Father and He will come and blow on the earth and all those who hear His voice will be made to come together as one saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, hallelujah.

We're Supplying the Body

It's a edification that comes first directly from the Holy Spirit then it goes into you, it goes into the whole body and when we're supplying the body we're supplying that part of us that lives on the other side. Oh for this reason people listen and understand what you've been called for. I think I've been called for something to reach, reach a president somewhere. Wonderful but know this, if that's His call for you, my God pastor I believe that my ministry is gonna be bigger than any ministry in the world before its over with. My God thank you but, know this that to the little one who reaches across the isle and ministers life to another member of the body of Christ they have fulfilled their call in proportion to any of the greatest ministries that could be acclaimed on planet earth. Hallelujah. You give a cup of cool water in my name, for this reason, do everything to reach one soul.

Truth is Greater Than Facts

There is no fear in My love but perfect love cast out fear. Those who come before me must believe that I am and am a rewarder of those who diligently seek Me. For know this that if you'll Ask of Me I will give unto you all that which is yours by inheritance beginning first in this place which is the children's bread to receive such great purging of the Father, for this is a great joy so few of My church knows for those who have entered into My chastening have also entered into my rest saith the Spirit of Grace. Therefore when you learn this secret of My purging you all the more run into this place, for this place does not hurt as has been described by the world or by your enemy the pain that comes from this place is a pain that brings forth life and brings forth a desperation that cannot be satisfied by anything of the things of this earth but only finds its quenching inside of My Spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. For know this that the walls of defenses that you've placed up in your mind against the accuser of the brethren know this that those walls come down in my purging and are replaced by an absolute confidence that who you are, not of yourself but who you are in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, hallelujah. And I say unto you these things, these things are not fact these things are truth, these things are not fact they are truth, these things are not fact they are truth saith the Spirit of Grace. Therefore when your enemy brings forth facts from the past know this that the truth that you dwell in is far greater than facts saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, hallelujah.

Created to Win Where Winning Counts

For those of you that know, you know how to wake up, do not forget that you are spiritual beings that you wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities and powers and rulers of darkness and spiritual wickedness in high places do not, do not take and lean upon the arm of the flesh nor of the mind for you have not been created for that battle you've been created to win where winning counts saith the Spirit of the Living God. Stand up and declare your rights and cause me to have the authority in your life to stir and move upon your behalf and the behalf of those who do not understand so that I may bring forth great, great victory saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah Jesus. Know this that I have a plan and if I have my plan and work my work then I stir, shake, and move and bring forth change in the earth. For your enemy your arch rivalry that stands on the opposite side of everything that I've declared to you, he also has a plan and he would love to turn every one of your days into the same as yesterday until there is no change but know this that heaven and earth move by My name, heaven and earth is changed by My glory, so those of you who have ears to hear, hear what the Spirit says, one of you can move a thousand and many thousands to ten thousands as you join together in the spirit move, move a mighty force of darkness back into its perimeters and know that I'll come and fill that space with light and life and all the things that you declare saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah Jesus.

You're Spearheading Something

Tell them that He is so proud of you as a Father for moving forward as you have when your on the apex when you're the thing breaking the water in the realm of darkness you've got to know when your spearheading something, when your spearheading something then that's where the attack is going to be but know this we're gonna have what we're asking for which is the great outpouring, Hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah, until things are shaken and stirred.
