Do Not Negotiation With Fear

For I desire for you the finer things of life. Not life as the world terms life, life that I have come to give you in abundance in the joy of the Holy Ghost saith the Spirit of Grace. So know this, hear this, deep within you resides all that is necessary to drive away all torment and fear. Make no negotiations with torment and fear, for those things to stay, for truly the blood of My Son has paid all of the penalty for these things saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Fight For Your Loved Ones

For many of you judge yourself inadequately and wrongfully because often you let your faults and your occasional sin stand between you and doing what is righteous for your loved ones. Know this, that you that are inside of Me, you that are inside the blood, that I will deal with you as a Father and patiently deal with you as a son or a daughter to bring you along but know this, that even in your struggles you have authority with your mouth to say something and change the course of destiny of those of your lost loved ones that are out there, who must need in this life an intercessor, (tongues...) What is it Father? I heard that. He said, the reason why that the enemy used your loved ones that are closest to you to, we call it, I can use this, get your goat, take your peace (tongues...) the reason why that he does that is because you are the one, you're the one as an intercessor that must stand between them with the blood of the Lamb and going to a devil's hell. So know this that if your offense cuts you off from praying for them, then the work of the enemy is accomplished saith the Spirit of Grace. For know that a battle is fought in the spirit for your loved ones even now... (tongues...) Wow, I can hear Him out in front of me. (tongues...) This is what He said many of you are buying into a lie that your loved ones because they had an experience way back, way back, that they are okay. The Lord said don't buy into that lie. Don't buy into eternal salvation whereas they can go on, live their life for years and years outside of, running into perversions and believe their eternally sanctified just because they made a decision 25 years ago. The Lord said, you are supposed to intercede for them now like they had never been born again and hold them up before the Father so that the enemy does not destroy them through you taking a back seat kind of attitude by saying they are okay, they are okay because when they were a child they took care of it. He said you fight for them like it never happened and it will happen saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Stay On The Path To Awakening

Stay on this path saith the Spirit of Grace. For many and you yourself are being awakened by the trumpet of My Love. This is not to your condemnation, this is to your fortitude and your strengthening and know this, that all who come along in this journey will find themselves humbled by it and strengthened by it and so willing to turn to the right hand and to the left and say to others of this body and of other places come, follow me as I follow Christ and we together walk into His glory. For know this, that this awakening is not by might nor is it by power but it is by my Spirit saith the Lord. For the very songs that I sing in the earth today, I sing the melody thereof and others hear that melody and are writing about My coming and the freedom which I bring with Me. For know that I come saith the Spirit of Grace and my reward is with me. For know this that I ride upon the high praises of My people and I bring forth a reward of fellowship and intimacy into the next generation saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

That You May Be One

For this cause I sent My Son, who shed His blood that you may, that you the body of Christ may be one as we are one saith the Spirit of Grace. For have I not called you to be seated with Me in heavenly places? Know this, that even in those remote places of your searching for answers and even in the place of kingship where you sit with Me together as joint heirs know that everything concerning this truth, everything concerning this truth that you are one, through Me and by Me and by My blood and that you are to love one another as I have loved you. Know this, that all the answers to even the most remote of your situations revolves, settles and finds its foundation in this that you love one another saith the Spirit of Grace. Thank You Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...)

Have I not said that a threefold cord is not easily broken? Know this, that the lifeline that I through to many of you, you miss. You miss and argue with yourself and say oh, that kindness and that love that your are asking me to pour out to my brother, how does it have anything to do remotely with you answering anything about what I am asking you to do? But I will show you in the days ahead that the scales will fall off of your eyes and that you will walk in this always impending truth, that the more that you are able to show My love and walk in My love then I am able with My authority to flow through you to everything that you ask Me in this life to become a part of saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!

My Joy Is Your Strength

This is My pleasure... He wants you to know, now I am speaking, He wants you to know how much pleasure He derives on days like this. (tongues...) He says you say, "We had a high time wasn't it wonderful." But I say that My joy is your strength. For in days gone by you saw the joy as something that came and bubbled up in you and became a strength to you. But I say unto you that the joy that I derive from you spills over to you and that which you give Me and that which I as a Father receive from you becomes My joy and My joy becomes your strength saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!

Torment Replaced By Peace

For many, for many of you I say as a loving Father to My children waiting for some other sign to come along to say that I have accepted you and have not denied you the opportunity to walk in freedom and to be filled with life. Know this, I desire to heal you from past hurts and those things in which you've managed on your own but oh I desire to come along side of you and strengthen you and nurture you and lay you down in peace and raise you up in great strength. So much so that in the days ahead that the evangelism of the gospel will be, they will look at you and say oh, what a tenderness of spirit has evolved and you will say no, no evolution has taken place but Jesus Christ has come and brought forth peace where there was once torment saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!
