I Need Your Authority

Know this saith the Spirit of Grace, that you are, those of you that have ears to hear and have endured through many seasons know that the closer you get to the heartland of revival, the closer you get to the center of the citadels and the fortresses that the enemy has built. The stronger the battle will be but greater the victory. The stronger the battle will be the closer you get to the things that he has built over this region and the more that you press in it is evident to you by the bearing witness of My spirit that you must unsheathe your sword. It is no longer acceptable to know the word and sit passively with the word. You must speak My word continually that you might win saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! And I will dip the heel of your shoes in the blood of your enemies for you wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities, and the powers and the rulers of this world. But know this, where you are seated with Me is already a predetermined place of victory but I must have your authority which is your tongue saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Blessed Be the Lamb! Hallelujah Jesus!

Abundance of Grace

Behold I show you a great thing; My mysteries are always before you. And even to those who have not yet found their way in the process of building the mysteries within themselves, the place of habitation that is in this house, the word that I speak will bring inevitable paths to pass for your life. Behold these things dear and ponder these things in your heart which I speak to you personally as a man, as a woman, as an individual. Even at times when your heart rebels and your flesh fights you and wars know this, I do not come with the hand of condemnation but with the hand stretched out to raise you up in the day of adversity. So listen and hear what the Spirit would have to say, great peace have they that love Thy law and nothing shall offend them. I desire to bring you higher to a place that the places of this world that are offering to you, as an individual stumbling blocks, oh that My peace that passes all understanding will invade your spirit. Not as you think, but as I will. For I do not hold you in contempt of court in your weaknesses for I have supplied the abundance of grace through My Comforter to bring you higher and higher saith the Spirit of Grace. So everything that you hear by Me, that which you embrace even to the least of My precepts and of My understanding will bring you ever closer to liberty and light inside of yourself that will spring forth into great reservoirs of peace and joy saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

A Solid Place

To all ears that listen to hear the approval of your Father, for I see your times of struggle in the spirit you wage yourself against feelings and the emotions just to lift your voice at times to magnify Me through faith, know this, that this is of truth working a great revenue of reward for you saith the Spirit of Grace. And when I say a great revenue of reward I am speaking not just in the ages to come but you will inherit in this life those seasons of which you will turn to Me and your heart will be so overrun by My love and peace and power that you will be totally taken outside of yourself and your heart will not be able to express the seasons of joy and peace and power and love. For know these things it is My pleasure, it has brought Me great pleasure every moment that you give yourself against the things that oppose you in this life and know this that it will reap a great harvest in the days ahead. Hallelujah! Glory Be to God! (Tongues...) And do not think in your heart concerning your weaknesses for anytime you expel your energy towards Me in this, know this that the accuser of your brethren that stands on your right hand so oftentimes know this, that I am taking you in a solid, solid place to distinguish his voice from My voice. For in times past there was a mixture in your emotions and you didn't know whether to let go or to hold on and was I there, was I working a work to bring something out of you as if to bring things to your thought life of which maybe you thought and this is just how He talks you thought maybe you weren't graduated past these things but oh, I want you to know that from the moment that you place your faith towards Me as your strength and mortification and it's not when you feel, it's not even when you feel free it is the moment that you exercise your faith. I stand up and testify as your brethren, the Lord of heaven that I have made you entirely free saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Oh but I promise I promise you the feelings will come and the accuser will forever... (Tongues...) he expressed it this way, I saw...as if, I mean who would want to do this, who would want to? You wouldn't want to really go looking for him, the devil, but the feeling on the inside was so triumphant and so distant from past tense squalls of storms that once raged against your emotions, you felt so free, this is all that I can explain, it's is what I see, your felt so free, you are trying to hunt him down just to see if you can get a peep out of him. That's how free you are in that place that He is describing. Hallelujah! Glory be to God! Hallelujah Jesus!

Don't Even Worry

It's like He's wanting to take the time to say... (Tongues...) Don't even worry, this is a peculiar, don't even worry about those things that you've been lifting up at times where your heart at times wondered if your heart was clear with a brother or a sister, someone that were determining to walk in love with. Take no care for know this, as you give yourself over to these places of submission and yielding to Me you don't have to be the one to secure these places. (Tongues...) Even those around about you that sometimes are the closest the enemy comes without their knowledge, really it's without their knowledge and tries to use words spoken or a deed done to interrupt the peace that you are walking in. and then He says, the Holy Spirit, says that the enemy uses the interruption, the momentary interruption of your emotions to accuse you as if you have not come to the level you know in the spirit that love dictates. This is where He said, don't be careful, know that I am growing you up and I have already seated you in a position with Me that I look at you daily, I look at you daily as this place already being attained and that your accuser is under your feet saith the Spirit of Grace. Blessed be the Lamb! Hallelujah Jesus!

Kings and Priests

He said say unto you, say unto you have I not called you kings and priests unto Me? Kings to rule and to reign not only in the world which is to come but presently know this that I am the glory and the lifter of your head saith the Spirit of Grace. (Worship) And as you minister unto Me as priests to bring forth the offering of praise and lift up holy hands without wrath and without doubting and to fulfill the obedience of pushing past sufferings in this flesh into a place of adoration unto Me know this, that when you exact on Me your priesthood that I place on you your kingship and let you watch Me reign and rule through you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Great Dividends

(Tongues...) If you knew that even at your weakest point that if you will not accept what man says about you or even what your own mind says about you but at your weakest point if you will just speak what feels like nothingness but is My word, know this, that you are working something that will inevitably bring forth a great dividend. It will come back and you will find out what seemed like nothing was all the more working in your stead to bring you up and out and over saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Fathomless Peace

For most of you, no, for all of you at times there is a whisper and you know that if given any evidence by you it would turn into a shout, a shout by your enemy into your spiritual ear that the things that you have wrestled with inwardly, personally, corporately, the things that you have often times felt that you've shed only to find that the accuser comes time and time again know this, that every good work that you have been working and that I have been working through you will bear witness in the days ahead against this accuser of the brethren saith the Spirit of Grace. And that you'll find that you will not only lose the witness of his voice but that I'll prove in you what was working in you all along against his cry and even at times false evidence to say the weakness still existed to those of you that work the work inside of you which is My grace imparted by My spirit, you will find that you are about to enter into a season where many things are accelerated. Places of peace and freedom and evidence that you took by faith and said I know this has to be working because the word says it, but you will find the securing of that evidence is a solid place of peace that is peace, that is peace, that is peace, that is peace, that is peace, that is fathomless peace saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Glory be to God!

Sealed

(Tongues...) Know that as you continue on in this walk that your eyes will behold things that you can hardly imagine at this present time. Know as the miracles increase the war against your senses will also increase. And you will find the opportunity on this walk for the accuser of the brethren to come and to bring accusation not only among you but also against the walk that you are on, know that he will accuse even the miracles that to you did not happen and seemingly were not processed against the argument to say that this thing is not everything that it is supposed to be but know this that if you will turn a deaf ear I will cause your heart to be sealed. Am I not, as I said in My word, I sent the Spirit who sealed you saith the Spirit of Grace? And I will put a seal over your senses and even when an argument against the walk and against the latter times stands as what would be a living proof, you will walk past those things and take My word as the infallible proof of all things saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! I worship You! I glorify You!

(Tongues...) Know this, even at this late hour I am working with your loved ones, know that as long as you stand I stand. As long as you will not relent and will not take back what you have said concerning their life I will track them to the ends of the earth saith the Spirit of Grace. And the rest that you have in Me will be this, that not one that you lay on the alter, not one that you lay on the alter will find their self in eternal judgment but they will find their place in heaven with Me when it is all said and done. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!
