Revealed By My Spirit

The same One that said you are seated together with Me in heavenly places also I said that eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither has it entered into the heart of man the things that God has prepared but they are revealed to them by My spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Develop This Consciousness

You'll find yourself winning on this wise saith the Spirit of Grace. That you will not be looking for the spectacular but you will look for the miraculous in every moment of your day. For often times My people are looking for something that thrills their senses to let them know that I am in their midst but if you will develop this consciousness, then you will take the most mundane moments of your day and turn them into extreme profit for those around about you and that part of you that walks in the place where I said you are seated together with Me in that heavenly place saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

Demonstration of Power

For I desire, I desire in this I have commissioned you for that you go after that place where the world comes in and not only hears but sees the demonstration of My grace saith the Spirit of Grace. For I desire that My train, that which follows Me is not only vested with words which appeal to the spirit and soul and bring healing but that which I desire in these days that My people would walk in the full demonstration in those things which I said that they could do. For you will find that religion has run its course and there will not, there will not except through the operation of man, except through that operation where man finds fine ideas to pull the people in, but they will never bring an operation of revival through fine ideas. For those who come, must come and see the demonstration of everything that I left here in that the power could raise the dead and heal the sick and separate you from just mere words to a doctrine with power and demonstration saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Stand on My Word

Hallelujah, choose He says, oh Hallelujah, choose He says to win saith the Spirit of Grace. For many decisions are even being made presently on your behalf by you who is the deciding factor. For many who will win and win great battles and come to maturity still find themselves oftentimes in the valley of decision for I say unto you it is always your choice what your tomorrow brings saith the Spirit of Grace. It is always your choice whether you will rise up above or if you will go along with the great kind of sweeping river that the enemy tries to send against your emotions for know this it is always your decision that changes the day and the tomorrow and the year thereafter saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Glory be to God! He won't stop. The enemy will not respond to your maturity. He won't even respond to how many years you have been in the kingdom, he won't respond to past works or even how much you know the word as in days gone by. The only thing that he will respond to is the present decision you make to stand on My word and speak My word saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Glory to God!
