You Are Named After My Name

Do I not speak with an audible voice as a living God in a continued administration from heaven? For know this on My part, the ageless One, I find only respect in times and seasons and beginning of new years as it relates to you and as you choose change and as you choose the ongoing of My Spirit. But know this that if you will earmark, if you will come to this place and believe Me for change then you will find that in this time and in these kinds of days that you call the beginning of new years, you'll find My coming, My coming in strength and in My coming in glory. For if I did these things of old, how much more do you know and believe that I can do these things now saith the Spirit of Grace. For in My word you find the record where I brought them forth out of bondage and there was not a weak one among them, not a sickly one among them and I gave them favor so that everything they asked of the Egyptians was given to them so that they came out and had more than enough as provision to go forth. Did I not keep them in the wilderness? Did I not provide for them? Did none of their possessions wear out and they continued on into My promise? Know this while you are waiting for the promise to come and while you affectionately call on Me for revival know this that if you enter in behind the veil and seek My face, if I was able to do those things then so that the nations that they past through watched them and said this bunch is different. They are provided for and there is no sickly and there is no weakly among them. Know this, how much more in this dispensation can I add these things to your life saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Oh, as a father would gently, gently nurture and correct his children know this, many of you will turn from the way that you've been thinking because the world is, the world has indoctrinated you to believe that you are subject to the times and you are subject to age and you are subject to infirmities in your body. Know this, it is My pleasure for you to expect of Me that because you are named after Me and because your last name is after Me and your beginning name is after Me, because you belong to a family know this that you should expect yourself to be a peculiar people and above the world and above their circumstances and above the things that take them out saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! So many have accused others as in arrogance to their stand to believe that they didn't have to participate, well I say unto you if there is anything called arrogance in Me it's called a boldness and a godly confidence. So know this that I desire you to come under accusation by many, even your fellow brethren that will look at you and say oh they are carrying a spirit of pride and I'd say unto you but no, you refuse the things of this earth. You refuse poverty, sickness, disease and depression and know that your name is called by My name saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Believe Me and Trust Me With Your Life

If you knew how sure your victory was you'd press in all the more the hard. You'd labor as long as it took if you knew how easy it was. For it is a choice unto you this day to stay where you are at or to move further and faster in what I prophesied and said would come to pass in the beginning of this year. For know this, for all of you who stand by day and by night in the house of the Lord and believe Me and trust Me for your life know this that the decision early to move in above all circumstances is a choice for victory and a choice for My coming an absolutely enveloping your entire life saith the Spirit of God. Hallelujah!

A New And Different Atmosphere

Understand the mind of the Lord. Understand My visitations all who have ears to hear and eyes to see that when I come and shut you down and quiet you it is a supernatural visitation of My spirit to begin to recalibrate {I can say it like this some of you will understand it, I can put it in my own words. He wants to reboot you.} (tongues...) For many, many voices are in the world and the noise that is in your head that talks mostly is the noise that occupies your world and demands your attention. But hear these words. Here the voice of the Bridegroom that cometh, behold I come quickly and My reward is with Me saith the Spirit of Grace. I desire to shut you down so that I can come in and rearrange your priorities saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) This is what He said, for sooner than what you realize the services that you call church will take upon them self a new and a different atmosphere. For presently you come together to worship Me and bind yourselves together in that place of adoration and these things are My foundation which will always remain but know this that there is unto you given a great opportunity for the harvest saith the Spirit of Grace. And soon the emphasis in your hearts, as has always been in Mine, will be whom you bring in and whom you go out and minister to in the highways and the byways saith the Spirit of Grace. For I desire that the latter church exceed the former church saith the Spirit of Grace. So that, that which is on you in these last days is a shining witness of everything that I left in the earth saith the Spirit of the Lord. So that when you come together, your joy will be in this, watching the masses come together with you and surrender their life unto the One who gave His life for their salvation saith the Spirit of the Lord. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

I will visit you. Do not think it strange that I will visit you in these times and seasons and bring everything to a quietness. Don't try, don't strive, do not debate inside yourself...surrender. Surrender what you hear. Surrender what I say surrender. And know this that if I ask of you that I also give you the grace and the strength and the empowerment to yield your members over to me saith the Spirit. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

Tell Them More About Me

...that you know out to all those that you know and tell them more about Me. Behold I come quickly. So take Me to those that you know, those that you love. Share Me with them, they so long to hear words of life. I love them and I want you to tell them more about Me. Behold I come quickly. Don't wait too long. Take Me to those you love and share Me with them. Thank You Lord! Thank You Jesus! Don't be shy. Don't be afraid, I will give you the word in due season. I will speak through you, you don't have to say a thing, My words will flow so don't worry, let Me speak words of life to all those, all those that I love. They are mine. Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! I have room for you all.

Cultivate Communion

Cultivate this place of communion with Me, of fellowship with Me, for it's in this place where all I want to do gets done. All the rest is to get you to this place of communion with Me where I can speak and you can listen. I love this place with you. I am always drawing you to this place. I delight in you. It brings Me such joy to fellowship and commune with you, such joy. Thank You Father. Just as I said to Jesus you are My Beloved in whom I am well pleased, I say this to you, you are My beloved in whom I am well pleased.

The Greatest Sound In This Hour Is Silence

Hear the voice of the Father; this is My voice...silence. Before the world was, when there was no world as you understand world, in this part of your universe there was silence until My voice was heard. Know this that I now as the Father of your born again spirit desire to speak to you in silence. For the world has you busy and the world has your attention and life is in control until My voice comes. The greatest sound that you can hear in this hour is silence. I desire to shut you down so that I may cause you to abound that I may recalibrate your life, that I may change you, that I may cause you to avoid judgments. In My judgment is great mercy but I desire to rejoice against judgment in that I lead you past and lead you into pleasant places, rivers, pastures, pleasant places by which you yourself receive the restoration of your soul and spirit and continue on as a body getting ready to receive the Bridegroom back into the earth. When I come with these manifestations, know that it is part of your prayers for as you have desired to go to places that you've never been before know this, that if you desire these places I will come but if you think it strange and ignore Me, then, I will only wait until you receive Me again. I stand continually saith the Spirit of Grace, by the direction of the Father to come and bring you into the next level of glory that men may see His glory among you and be drawn to the light. Oh that I desire your communion. Oh that I desire you. Listen to the silence. Listen to the silence and know that it is I in the silence and I speak louder in the silence than the world speaks with many, many words. Come apart. Come apart and be peculiar. He that has washed you in His own blood has also sanctified you unto this hour. Be holy. Be set apart. Be those who the world has a reason to ridicule. Be those who the world has a reason to say they are different but yet I give to you My spirit and I give to you the gems of heaven. I will never leave you, I will never forsake you. Know this that Satan has never ever and will never ever have anything built against you, devised, a weaponry that will take you out of My presence. Receive the silence not only here but receive the silence in your own life. Come apart. Do not think it strange but come apart. And He signed that Your Commander In Chief. Hallelujah!

Commune With Me And Turn To Me On Every Issue

In that tongues he was interpreting a revelation, He said something about as you go about your day cultivate communion saith the Spirit of Grace. Let Me become to you more real than the personalities around you. How does this begin? How does this start? How does it go to the maximum and mature level? Know this saith the Spirit of Grace, that if you will commune with Me and turn to Me on every issue even if circumstances around you dictate that you can not open your mouth by reason of audience, if you inwardly acknowledge My leadership, then on every issue of life you will find the reward of Me coming. And the cultivation of that trust will produce great revenue saith the Spirit of Grace. For need I remind you that before David slew his giant he first slew the lion and the bear and he learned to prove My voice and he learned to prove My strength. Long before you are able to complete the great triumphs that I have destined for you, you must learn to win where you live, where you work, in your family. Know this that trusting Me for the little things will pay great dividends in the days ahead. Hallelujah! Praise You Jesus!
