I Need Your Consent to Bring You Higher

Did I not say come unto Me all you that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. The rest that I was speaking of was the rest of the new nature and everything that you would enter into from all your striving against sin and then enter in to the rest of peace that came with it saith the Spirit of lights. Know this that what you are feeling presently is the introduction and the call by your Father to come up higher to enjoy places in presence and places in a walk that is absent from weakness and fear and has a dominion. Know this that I desire to come and lavish these things on you. Understand the moment for there is something that is pleading with you to come up higher but I need your consent. I need you to ask of Me to come and to bring forth that purging and that process within you for if you leave nothing undone and leave off everything to Me and ask Me to come know this that if I have that authority that I can bring you up higher saith the Spirit of Grace. And I can cause you to love Me more - more than the things present that possess your attention (tongues...) Do not be misled by condemnation that stops you at the door, that begins to-intimidate you to keep you from entering into that place because of fear. For foreign to you is to lift up your hands because of the new nature and because of the washed conscience and lift up your hands like David and say Lord search my heart and see if there be any wicked way in me. Foreign it is to your thinking because of where you stand in a clean spirit but I say unto you that the interpretation for you that are born again is to know this that the spirit searches all things, yea the deep things of My spirit saith the Spirit of God, even the mind of Christ. For you to open up and lift your hands in this atmosphere in regards to what the psalmist said would be like saying Father, see if there is anything in me that is keeping me from taking the next step into your glory. See if there is any thought process or any affection that I am having with things that I justify or even things that seem innocent that keep me from going to the next place of intimacy and fellowship within you saith the Spirit of Grace. And if those things are there I not only will come to reveal them I with tender mercies will remove them saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

I Am Coming To Teach You

Many, many are set in their ways with their understandings. It's not that they wouldn't change but is that they don't necessarily know how to change. Know this saith the Spirit of Grace, that I am coming with a teachable spirit that if you will listen and many of you learning, like you were learning this morning to sit in My presence and just watch, for the day calleth for the word watch and pray saith the Spirit of Grace. Watch and pray and try to do nothing other but to listen and be quiet in My presence and see what My spirit will have for you and you will find that change takes you to places that you can't even articulate with your own soul presently because you've not seen them with your spirit but the hour is coming when those places in My spirit that resemble the outpouring will be poured into you. Then you will know how to lean into, even more so, what I am trying to do when I come and rest on you, (commentary that He's saying to me I will say to you) is like those times of incubation where we were in His presence. So don't seek to get out of that just sit in it and let it just incubate you. Hallelujah! Glory be to God

Mountains of Grace

(Prophecy uttered before a grace line where instructions were given prior to receiving)

For hear the word of the Lord (specific instructions to those who stand hear in this place and all who will receive it in any place) Know this that the price for which you are standing here was paid all in Him saith the Spirit of Grace. Do you not know and can you not conceive that there are mountains and mountains and mountains of My grace to be provided for you in this life, inexhaustible plains, countries of grace, inexhaustible to the natural mind to deal with every kind of inadequacy on your part? For I made room for you in the atonement, not just in your one time coming and being born again but I made room for every part of your journey in this life saith the Spirit of Grace. So know this that when the torment of being less than or guilt or fear of inadequacy before Me comes on you know this, this is not of Me. For you are far more, far more difficult to you own self and harder to be dealt with by reason of your own self than what I come with, My yoke is easy and My burden is light. For when I approach you I not only approach you with a sense of change but I approach you with all the dividends wherewith change can be made saith the Spirit of God. Hallelujah!

So imagine this. Imagine this on your mundane Mondays and cloudy sky days and depressive moments clouding in and inadequacies coming against your mind and the riddle of the past why it did not work out or make sense? Envision this My arms outstretched between heaven and earth and His blood paying all the price. For know this, by the sprinkling of this blood is every conscience made pure saith the Spirit of Grace. (Tongues...)

So your instruction at weak moments is to lift up holy hands whether in a crowd, out of crowd, by yourself even when you are among those in your heart lift up your hands inside of your spirit and worship Me for the blood that can not fail saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!

Cry Out

Hear the Word of the Lord...

Cry out for the outpouring...

Cry out for the hunger...

Cry out to be filled...

Cry out to be thirsty...

Cry out for change...

Cry out for an awakening...

Pray that your brothers and sisters wake up... and that you wake up...

Cry out...!

Hallelujah!

Relentlessly Follow After Me

For the order has changed, across the planet those that have heard, those that have heard the wedding song. The lips of the Righteous one has come to kiss his church and bring them up higher into a place that can only be interpreted by the heart sung kinds of melody's that flow from a heart that wants to know him more and more saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not neglect this thing but adhere to it. Pull yourself and your senses all the more into what I have to say even through such words of exhortation that you've just heard. Remember that I am calling you to a higher place and a consciousness of always being in My presence and seated in a place that dictates all the things on this plane. On the planet earth nothing shall by any means harm you saith the Spirit of Grace. So, if your destiny is sure and steadfast and the end is already been written for your behalf and if you know with a surety that you win, then why not relentlessly, relentlessly follow after Me and go after Me with everything inside of your born-again nature saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
