Fight Saith the Spirit

Hear what the Spirit would say, do you not know and do you not understand, oh but I say yes you do. You know and understand but all the more, all the more the advantage to those who lean into this understanding. Know this that I have anointed you for service and you have the capacity in Me to wear many hats, to take off one before you come in here and put on another, to worship Me in spirit and in truth. That you will know this knowledge, this knowledge will gain you all things for the kingdoms sake. Know this that there is always, always a war in the spirit to go some place that you have never been. A war for you and a war against you saith the Spirit of Grace. But if you could see then you might be very encouraged for greater are those that are with you than those that are against you saith the Spirit of Grace. (Tongues...) Do you not know, yes, yes and you do know but must come to understand all the more that the dominion that you take will be the level by which your city, your state, your nation and your world is taken under My dominion. For they do not know, they will live their life out and perish in darkness not knowing the warfare that you understand and know by your Father. So take dominion in My spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not settle for good and do not settle for acceptable. Know this that when you lift your hands and you worship Me that your pressing past places in the darkness that has tried for many, many centuries to cover this planet and even the geographical location that you stand. Know this that when you break through into those stratospheres of the spirit, you'll gain authority, you'll not know until you go there what that freedom feels like but I tell you on this side of it and I can not lie, fight the good warfare. Do not be distracted by those things on your right and on your left and know this that you have been empowered to take off one hat and to put on another, to take off one garment and to put on another to war with the sword. To put down the masonry trial that builds the wall but pick up the sword and fight saith the Spirit, fight saith the Spirit, fight saith the Spirit and you will win. Hallelujah Jesus!

Take Every Moment As A Time Of Training

As a Father I speak tenderly to you. Know this My grace is sufficient and My strength is made perfect in your weakness saith the Spirit of Grace. So stand strong in the hour of testing and know this that the more that you move in, the more will be applied to the greater things of your future to be made manifest in the earth. Take every moment as a time of training and as a time to allow Me to come and manifest things to you that you've not yet entered into, for there is in front of you and opened door, an effectual door of opportunity to reach the nations. For know this that your enemy Satan is furious against you and against this place but be not weary in well doing, but be ye wise as serpents and harmless as doves. Be filled with My spirit and let the joy of the Lord be your strength saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Enjoy The Training

Take great joy in training for know this, when you understand Me and understand who I am as Father and understand that the enemy has come to take away that image, that image of everything that you need is in Me, to diminish that, take great joy in the fight knowing this that the more that I am glorified in you in the midst of it the stronger you get. I am not the One who sends or comes with the fight, I am the One who empowers you in it saith the Spirit of Grace. Be strengthened and enjoy the training. Be strengthened and enjoy the ability to look past where others will fail in the days ahead, for you will mentor many and teach many how to stand in these last days. Rejoice in the midst of your training sayeth the Spirit of Grace.

Perfect love cast out all fear

Yes Sir; For there are, there are as you would suppose spirits of darkness masquerading in the land as Spirits of Light and promising blessings that cannot come to me sayeth the Spirit of Grace. But there is a grace that comes from me that introduces more to you of who I am as your father, which in turn, perfect love cast out all fear and when the fear is gone then am I able and are you able to access more of my grace in concerning your finances, and the kinds of break throughs that are necessary to go on and to receive your prayers being answered, So know that the baptism of my love, it produces in every avenue of your life.

Common faith

Have I not said that if you would believe and doubt not that all things are possible sayeth the Spirit of Grace. So come unto the common faith, for those things that seem to be far reaching to you and beyond your capacity are they not simple for me sayeth the Lord. For all things are possible to them and to the man who believes, so simply receive those things that I said that I could do for you, receive the healing for your body, receive the manifestation, and against hope, against natural hope, for I say unto you lay down all awareness of all evidence of things that have taught you to the present and look up, look up for your redemption is above you, it comes from above and know that all things are possible to them that believe sayeth the Spirit of Grace.
