Rise up in Diligence

Understand this that I have not given you the spirit of fear, but of power and love and a sound mind. I have given you the scepter of my son the firstborn, to rule and to reign, therefore I say unto you rise up in diligence, saith the Spirit of Grace. Speak the word against your enemy, and worship me in spirit and truth for those things which I have already provided saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not wait for a time to receive what you need receive for it is done now saith the Lord. Hallelujah, hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah.

Upcoming Harvest

What I do saith the Spirit of Grace, is for the upcoming harvest; for know that once again this earth shall be shaken and those who did not come up in the power and those who have been unused to, unacquainted with, watching and seeing My glory. Know this that I'm coming once again to visit my church. For I promised, I promised that before that time, according to my word there would be a great harvest. But I must first come to my church, for know this, if there is change at your door, if your life has been propositioned by My Spirit to change that I'm getting you ready for what I want to do in the earth. For much of my church is asleep and those who will remain to be asleep and choose to be asleep will be asleep even in the harvest but know that all those who hear the voice of the bridegroom saying awaken out of your slumber and come to the power once again for many say "this is a new thing" I say no this is a old thing that has been lost by my church but I come to awaken my church saith the Spirit of Grace. I come to awaken those that are in slumber and sleep and have allowed the cares of this world to put them to rest that I did not get them. For the rest that I give them is the rest whereby which you're aware, very active and knowing. For this is My call first for you to spring forth and to awaken. I'll give you time, I'll give you space and change will take place. What I'm after is that you'll begin to turn your weaknesses into strength and then go after the families of the earth who do not know me for this great harvest saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus.

I'll back you up

As these things increase towards the end, know that, that part, that arm which was once exercised by the flesh, now to those who begin to walk believing for something far more than themselves, but for the inheritors of the earth to be saved. Know that the same way that I backed up the firstborn which is My beloved Son, I'll back you up and you'll find before you ask I'll supply saith the Spirit of Grace, hallelujah.

There is a Conquering Realm

There is a, a conquering realm. A place that I've positioned you in the Father by the shedding of My blood. Know this, that, that place is not subject to the feelings of the flesh, nor is it subject to surrounding circumstances or things of the natural. So few of My church have come to a place in Me where they understand what part of them rules and reigns in Christ. When I spoke of your authority over all principality and power, I was not speaking concerning your flesh, nor the feelings that most of My church interprets Me as being in presence saith the Spirit of Grace. For I say I have given unto you an authority not only to rule over principalities and powers. But I gave you first an at home resident anointing living in your own body, you had my privilege as the firstborn, take a lesson, watch His life through My word and know that as He ruled over Himself, you can rule over yourself saith the Spirit of Grace. Oh the prize in this is a great processional first of you winning on every level and as you win others will follow you into My glory saith the Spirit of Grace, hallelujah.

Take Ownership over All Atmosphere

Know that you always, under all circumstances and at all times have my authority to rule and reign saith the Spirit of Grace. For I have given unto you as I gave to the firstborn, the authority to take ownership over all atmosphere saith the Spirit of Grace. For in the hour when I bring upon you the things that you've been asking for, oh the recognition of knowing that atmosphere is everything but contend now with your individual authority calling upon me and exercising every inherited right that you have to take dominion over all the things that surround you and over all adversity and over every evil speaking spirit that you come into contact with. Know that you can change. You cannot only change the day and hour that you live in, but every atmosphere of every service saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah.
