

PRPH100404-April 4th, 2010

Swept Away

For every man and woman that has this hope in them purifieth themselves even as they are pure. Know this; all those who are able to hear My voice are drawn into Me in this hour and in these days. Begin to lay aside every weight and sin that would easily beset you and run all the more with patience the race that is set before you. For soon the harvest will enter in to a great outpouring and come to a place that you will be swept away with many waters to the point that you will have almost an endeavor to keep your head above the great flux of glory that will come in with great sweeping moves of My presence and know this that to all the little ones, those that will be born in this outpouring they will need your strength, they will need that which you have found of Me to be faithful and true saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

PRPH100407A-April 7th, 2010

I Am Your Peace

What is it that man can add to My commentary? For a word fitly spoken in due season by My Spirit under the guise of My presence is all that you need. For oftentimes you try to fortify your peace with the abundance of thoughts, fortifying yourself on the right hand and on the left, assuring yourself of security and peace and the infallibility of My word and strength and keep assuring yourself that your life is going to turn out alright. But know this; there is a redundance of My peace. There is a peace within a peace that does not have to be held up with any assurance of the mind or the soul. For that place is found in My presence and everything that My word “is” becomes alive and vibrates with life. Everything that’s truth becomes seasoned with the life and the salt and the peace of everything that I am brings forth life of all truth. So know this, even that truth that you hold to concerning who you believe I am and what I will do for you, even those things lay dead in and of themselves without presence. But know this that I am but a whisper away and My presence is always available to bring forth life in abundance to My word and to those things that you would believe about Me to bring forth peace and to bring forth assurance. So worship Me. Worship Me relentlessly and know that as I come that you do not have to be your own safeguard, nor do you have to be the one to stand as a century and guard yourself against things that would surround you. But know this, that there is a place of forgetfulness... [that’s right that is the word]...of forgetfulness, you’ll forget about what it was that troubled you saith the Spirit of God. And even when the memory of it comes back it will have lost its sting and it will have lost its power to manipulate your life. So do this, be obedient to My word. Worship Me in every season of your life but know this, that there is not a season, not one season regardless of what man or preacher or any well meaning saint has ever taught you, there is not one season that I have scheduled for loss of peace and loss of security but know this that I am your peace and I am your life saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

PRPH100407B-April 7th, 2010

Foundation of Peace

What is it? Ask yourself and study, study history and know this, what stopped every great move down through the centuries and those well intended. Those well intended with the same intent to have My presence as you have. Know this that it was always My desire to preface every move with a sure foundation of peace so that when the storms would come and I promised you of truth that they would come, that the sureness and the steadfastness would be there immovable and would not extinguish the fire of revival in the days ahead. For those who build their house upon this rock and do My sayings and enter in to My presence and learn to fortify themselves against the problem, assure for themselves and purchase for themselves that place of usability and will be able to be used greatly in the outpouring that is to come because I will know that whatever I give you and whatever he comes afterwards to try to levy on you, you will have the ability and far beyond to stop all the wiles of the devil saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah

Prophecies received at The Family Prayer Center Immokalee, Florida

PRPH100414A-April 14th, 2010

Nothing Able To Separate You From Love

To those that would come to a place at times where you run out of strength and it feels like the next moment might reveal a breakdown, a place of no return. Know this, that I have provided more than enough (tongues...) and if you will breathe My name and call out Jesus during these times where panic tries to come and push you around, know this, that I will stand up on the inside of you, for I promise you with all of heaven that there is nothing able to separate you from the love of God in Christ Jesus saith the Spirit of Grace. I will increase you and I will cause you to come from places that you deem as weakness to places of great strength. Know this that the problem for you and for many is that your eyes are still on yourself and you are still looking at yourself. But oh if you would dare, if you would dare to take your eyes off your weaknesses and place them on Me, know this, that you will find that everyday lays a new ground work of strength and every moment lavishes you with a new peace and assurance that you can come up higher. And like a father that reaching out to a toddler that says come you will find that your legs, your spiritual legs, grow in strength with every hallelujah and with every eye moment set on Me you will find that more and more is increased to you and pretty soon you will be running with athletic kinds of legs and strength in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

PRPH100414B-April 14th, 2010

My Job Is To Bring You Into Peace

(Tongues...) It is My job...it is My employment saith the Spirit of Grace to comfort you and to bring you into all peace, to lay you down and to raise you up. It is My job to change your mind and your thinking about your situations and about your circumstances and even the way that you see yourself saith the Spirit of Grace. So receive of Me and relax and relax and let the journey be one of sweetness and peace saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

PRPH100421A-April 21st, 2010

Pay Attention To The Urgency

Pay attention to the urgency that whispers in your spirit. I am not a driving force as your adversary drives and pressures, but I am an awakening an enlightening force that brings life so pay attention to the urgency to go forward in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. For more, much more than you can imagine now are waiting for your ability to profit on their behalf and to bring forth mighty fruit in the earth saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) Ask Me. Ask Me often to make you an advantage for those who know you saith the Spirit of Grace and I will come and I will prune you but I will also endow you and what they need you will be the joy, you will be the centerpiece cause they will not see you they will see Me in you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Thank You Jesus! Hallelujah!

PRPH100421B-April 21st, 2010

Run Your Race

Do not weep with anguish of heart, brokenness and bitterness of heart for some that you have desired would come along with you on this journey but know this that I will honor every prayer and I will cause them to stand in the last day and to stand and be free from all eternal judgment. But run your race. Run your race as one whose intent is to get all and everything that I have declared in My word. Be full of My oil at all times and know that you will lack nothing in all My provisions saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

PRPH100425A-April 25th, 2010

Learn To Surrender

For I must speak to you from where I am so I can bring you up higher saith the Spirit of Grace. For how can a man know a place and experience it until he's known it and experienced it? And how can he speak in relevance to the glory unless the glory that he's standing in is the same that I am giving him and teaching him. Know this; the generations that past learned a great avenue of expression called yeildedness and surrender. Learn these times and as you yield your members over to Me know the gravity, the force that takes you over will surrender your members moment after moment saith the Spirit of Grace, until that which you've desired to go into My presence and can't find the place and the anointing that seems to evade you at times, oh you will find that in this place of surrender that moment by moment that I invade the place that usually is the place that you occupy in thoughts and begin to pull you over into the realm that I exist in and out of that know this, that true holiness, true change is the spirit of surrender saith the Spirit of Grace.

(Tongues...) So get ready for seasons of change not just for one but for all saith the Spirit of Grace. And as you read about and have heard about My visitation upon the forefathers of the faith and those who brought about the revivals of the past know this, that as I visited them and they were willing for seasons to sit in My presence and to be saturated and soak in the things until everything about them was changed where I could go on with them. Know this that as a body I desire to do the same and will do the same for all those who surrender to Me saith the Spirit of Grace.

PRPH100425B-April 25th, 2010

Utilize The Message You Have Been Taught

Oh how I could fix the residue of your life if you take this message and use it to heart saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not idolize it but utilize it. Do not idolize it but utilize it. Use the things that have been taught to you for they are not suggestions but they are My word saith the Spirit of Truth. For I have been sent to lead and to guide you into all truth and My word is truth saith the Lord. So for those who do My sayings not only to appreciate them and to idolize them as if God said this, oh take it to the next level and do the things that I said to do and you will find your peace comes to another level saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

PRPH100425B-April 25th, 2010

Stand As Kings And Priests

Many, many have bought the lie. Many, many have bought the lie and said that things are coming and the things that are reported because you've been told this is the way that you are supposed to respond. Know this, that the world can come to an end and every travesty on your right hand and on your left and you have nothing left but Me know this, that you can still stand with an absolute resolve as if you were the king of the earth as I have called you as kings and priests saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

PRPH100428Amj-April 28th, 2010

I - Love - You

When you sing to Me, I sing right back to you. As you sing to Me and as you worship Me, I – Love – you! I send My love to you. And I love when you come and be in My presence. I love it when you tell Me how you love Me and I am saying back to you my bride that I-love-you and I love to spend time with you. Oh how I love you, if you could only know how much your groom loves you. I love you, I am longing for you, I am longing to come and bring you home with me. I love you. I love you says the Lord. Hallelujah! Thank You Jesus!

PRPH100428B-April 28th, 2010

A Place Of Individuality

This place of individuality is the place I long the most to establish with you as the bride of Christ. For in that place, in knowing My appreciation and love to you as sons and daughters is the absence of all fear. For many have not seen Me and most, (correct way to say what he is saying is most of the church) have not seen Me in the light of what I exist in. For it's on the grass roots, the very most personal, intimate behind the scenes with no one else watching or understanding and even places inside of you you've not discovered the words to express to Me. That when you yield these places over to the invasion of My presence know that along with it comes the occupancy of My grace that drives out all fear and torment saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) For many, many have thought to do big things as in miraculous things and turn the world around them upside down and to find a notable place of mention among Christendom but know this, the lack inside of them is the lack in which they are able to trust Me to go to the most mundane of thoughts and issues in their life. Know this, that if you were the individual that occupied the single place in the universe, know that I could lose Myself in you for all eternity and be just as satisfied as if I had all of what I am going to inherit through the masses saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...) Many do not understand this place of communion. Spend you life finding and exhausting this treasury and you will find the best that this life has to offer says the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

PRPH100428C-April 28th, 2010
Lay Hold On These Things

Lay hold on these things saith the Spirit of Grace, for it takes many seasons and generation after generation to bring My bride once again close enough to resemble and far exceed in latter rain what began in the early days. Now that it is within your reach and now that it is within the realms of possibilities through My grace push all the more, move in all the more. For you will find that not one moment of effort in the spirit was wasted but all things will pay a dividend of great reward not only in the life to come but that which you see now. Hallelujah!