

Prophecies - The Family Prayer Center - 2012

PRPH120502 May 2nd 2012

Recline upon me

Did I not say that My grace is sufficient saith the Lord. Know this that in all things at all times My grace is sufficient to bring you forward. Do not despair, do not listen to other voices listen to one who keeps drawing you higher and higher says the Spirit of Grace. Know this that there is a report of this world and there's always a report from above, believe the report from above saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not live, (that's it I heard a certain word), do not live out of head knowledge, live out of instinct saith the Lord. Live out of instinct saith the Lord. Live out of instinct saith the Lord. Recline upon me do not waste your hours figuring out the process or how I might deliver you but rather live out of the instinct of the new nature to believe something has happened before you see it take place saith the Spirit of Grace. For the head says I don't know, I don't know, I don't know how, oh but I say you do know how, you do know how, turn your head off and turn your spirit on saith the Spirit of Grace. For Satan will try to divert many of you this way, that way, spend very little time in the things of the natural and increase your time in the things of the Spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. Move forward in Me and know that the greatest witness of you taking the responsibility to solve the problem is when you take no care saith the Spirit of Grace. For the enemy which is a master of disguising himself, he will come; Responsibility is what he presents as the forefront of care oh but know many have taken false responsibility and tried to do it in their own strength believing at the forefront that they were taking on a noble cause to champion or to do what is responsible but I say unto you take no thought for tomorrow for the tomorrow will take thought of itself sufficient unto the end of that day is the evil thereof My grace is sufficient for you for this day saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah

PRPH120506RJ May 6th 2012

To Replace You at this Time would be of Quite a Cost

I want you to know says the Lord that each and every one of you have come up into a place of maturity, you've come to a place of closeness with me which I am very pleased with and I also want you to know says the Lord that to replace you at this time would be of quite a cost for it is about the time see it's about the time and to replace you, each or anyone of you at this time would cost time and time is of the essence you see for we are in the last hour but we must co-labor together you must continue to yield yourself to Me for I am your God and I am your trust, I am your love, I am your friend, I am everything to you and as you continue to come closer towards Me you will realize that you must abandon everything for Me and as you abandoned I will be able to move and live and you'll be able to move and breath and have your being in Me much more closer so it's about, not so much about you for you are Mine but it's about the ones that I'm after, it is about the ones we're after see not only am I after them but you're after them now too, see cause you've come to a place in the spirit with Me now where you've abandoned a lot of the things of the flesh but I just want you to know something about your enemy he's very, very subtle in his ways and he knows how to come and move and be so subtle that you don't even recognize but what happens is it steals your time from Me it steals your time from so please be obedient to this instruction because as you yield yourself to Me in these days ahead I will, I'm always there, so it's not like you come to Me and I come to you no, no you come to me and I am always there so you come to me and I'm always there, it's not you come to Me and I'm come to you, I'm always there so come to Me come to Me for I've already come to this world and I'm coming much stronger in the days ahead so as you come to me I am already there and as you yield yourself to Me the great outpouring shall take place and it's on the horizon it's on the horizon so be aware of the subtleness of the enemy and the subtleness of the flesh they go hand-in-hand and it's very subtle you don't recognize it, it's like well I'll do this later I'll do this later. For the outpouring to truly take place you must continue to yield and abandon yourself, abandon everything, abandon yourself and I'm not asking for much time but I am asking for more time, see as you abandon and you'll be able to hear My voice and you'll be able to hear My instruction very, very clearly for that is what it's gonna take, its very clear instruction a very clear hearing and the only way to do that is the closeness you can have with me and come to Me, so come to me and continue to come to Me and continue to come to Me for the great outpouring is at hand and then shall be My return.

PRPH120509CFA May 9th 2012

Isn't it Ironic

I keep hearing him say the word ironic. It's just an ironic thing that they would fall out of fellowship with me, he says isn't it ironic though some fall away, they fall out of love with me. I draw them in, woo their hearts, fashion them and spend time with them, making them what they need to be what I want them to be, what's best for them but I keep hearing you say the word ironic, it's just an ironic thing that they would fall out of fellowship with me but what's so wonderful is that they can come back, it doesn't matter how many times he'll just keep welcoming you back because all he is, is love, he just wants us, he just wants us to stay and abide and to be with him and to be safe and secure and sound never having to worry about anything because he's taking care of it all. It's like being married to a man that has it all together that could never fail you, that's who Jesus is he could never fail us he could never let us down he's there to make life wonderful for us, he wants to bring his kingdom into our lives and let his love radiate, he wants us to feel his love and pour it out, he says isn't it ironic though that some fall away and I'm here all the time for them, but he says I love them and I'll keep loving them some will come back some won't.

PRPH120509B May 9th 2012

Take Great Hope for the Best Days are Ahead

He said to tell you the strong change is coming, stay steady and what you know to be truth and those things that I have taught you how to go forward for know this the same kind of atmosphere that you're praying in will win the lost is the same kind of atmosphere that will clothe your life with the graciousness of the father saith the Spirit of Grace for know it'll not always be exactly like you know it now, for you'll not find it a grudgery to do the things that you do that seem mundane the going forth your coming and you're going for many of you find it because of the impasse coming in from one place going to another in the spirit and knowing that there's something far greater ahead you find it very difficult to labor in the jobs and the things that you do. For many of you I'll change some of you'll do something different in the outpouring then you're doing now but know this to all whether you're doing the same or something different the atmosphere will change drastically for you saith the Spirit of Grace, For there is grace even now for that there's grace even now for you to go about in the joy of your day knowing that you're serving a higher much higher purpose than those around you can realize so take great joy in knowing that if the first church those things that were recorded concerning spiritual things the blind eyes and the lame and the deaf and all of things that you aspire to in the spirit that you call a revival. Do you not understand that as much as I was doing something in the church I was doing something in the community as well saith the Spirit of Grace. For there was an atmosphere out there, the atmosphere that was healing the people was the same atmosphere that was out there soliciting the hearts preparing the grounds so that they, they all were coming in, they were coming in in multitudes and they were coming in one by one but know this that that atmosphere that will get out on a community will be the same atmosphere that'll cause you to be able to labor to labor about your day with great joy saith the Spirit of Grace. So take great hope for the best days are ahead of you and the times of refreshing are in front of you, even in amidst persecution you'll find a great joy and a great peace by watching the harvest and knowing that you were a part of it.

PRPH120509C May 9th 2012
Go After Your Loved Ones

Go after your loved ones, go after your loved ones in the spirit like you never have saith the Spirit of Grace. A little bit of a warning. Know this that your enemy and your adversary there's nothing fair about him. My son was manifest that he might destroy the works of the Devil beginning first in the power of the new nature brought forth the manifestation for man to live above sin and sickness the power thereof, know this that a roaring lion is in the earth and he's going about and he does have plans, he does have plans for many of your loved ones so do this take no fear but take him as an adversary seriously because know this that he would if you could, penetrate that place and get over that he would take them take them before their time and take them into judgment. So stand firm, stand relentless, stand and rest and stand in peace but execute the position of authority that I've given you to call out their names and stand, stand by night and stand by day and when it is over and when they expire or my coming unites my body forever notice that you'll not be ashamed because you will find them among those that are listed in the lambs book of life saith the Spirit of Grace, Hallelujah

PRPH120530 May 30th 2012

While you're on this journey have a good time

Say to them to continue in the things that they know. Do not strive but wait patiently for me saith the Spirit of Grace. I will promote you and I will bring you forward for the promotion that you need is the exultation from out of the things of the flesh that are guarding places where the enemy is trying to keep up but, know this, these things cannot stay and while you're on this journey have a good time have a good time saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah