Lay down your burdens

Taste and see that the Lord is good; for particularly these things where in I now speak, for I desire above all things that through my anointing that I break every yoke. These distractions, those things that come against your life to cause even those things that I want to give to you freely to be inhibited and held back not on my part. But know this, I am faithful. I am faithful. And to who so ever will let him drink of the river of life freely. Know this, that these words that are spoken to you prophetically know that I speak and I call you as children, sons and daughters, to lay down your burdens and to lay down your distractions and the question of your heart; How can these things be? Know this that the decision of the will of your heart to yield first to Me and absolutely posture position your spirit and soul. Yielding every part of your affection to me in these hours I'll teach you past these hours and bring you in to this. So that every day of your life is consumed in my anointing and one yoke after the other line upon line everything is broken, broken off your life until a freedom comes that you've not yet been familiar with and not been able to walk in hither to for. But know this, that I desire even as I'm speaking to give to you the very best that heaven has to offer, which is the anointing that breaks every yoke and causes all distractions to become focused on My faithfulness and who I am to you, in you, and through you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

I Will Teach You

For tenderly as a father I will teach you. Be not dismayed by reason of the enemy and the debate that comes to your soul often saith the Spirit of Grace. But know that each time that you yield even in the least, even when you do not feel My anointing know that yieldedness to Me a simple yes; a simple yes is the word yieldedness. You yield to Me; My spirit of holiness, My spirit of compassion comes to you and does a work that you cannot see. So that down the road and days ahead and moments ahead you'll find more freedom and more love and more compassion. No man can take these things unto himself. Do not be discontent with yourself but rather run into joy knowing this that the first step in true change is a yieldedness to Me knowing that you cannot it is impossible for you to do it of yourself. Take upon yourself this journey and please the father, please the father as the first born, please the father say yes on a continual basis and watch my transformation in you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

I'm Intercepting You In Your Path

For, know this for many of you that I'm intercepting you in your paths in your journeys and know this that an effectual door, an open door is open to you. I'll show you what's on the other side of it. I'll show you with plainness of speech in a way that I can speak to you as a father; For know this, don't wait I'm saying by the Spirit don't wait for more opportune time to move in and more convenience. But know this, the instruction and the wisdom that I desire to pass over to you at this season of your life will supersede all those things that are causing noise saith the Spirit of Grace. For I desire to take you to a place in Me that not only has the capacity to conquer but I desire to make of you in this last outpouring in this, in this call towards the end more than conquerors saith the Spirit of Grace. So follow Me in this hour and know this, that My plan is sure and steadfast for each of you. Worship and know this, that everything that you desire is on My heart I have a plan and a purpose and a way to get that over to you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah, hallelujah!

I Desire Godly Seed

For a long time saith the Spirit of Grace, through every generation I desire to raise up godly seed saith the Spirit of Grace. The first place that I began is with a standard. And know that the standard begins with godliness and wholesomeness and a fervent desire on the part of my father's to move forward in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. For I desire to raise up a standard in your city, in your home, in your life. Know this, that on My part I'll come to you with a stronger desire to serve Me and to know Me. For I desire godly seed in the earth and even those that have come up that are well past their adult years know this that I through your authority can even now change their lives and move on their hearts. For the question of your heart for many of you is lost years and lost time; For know this, I have said in My word that I am able through My grace to make up for lost time and lost years saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not condemn yourself for what I am able to change and do not deny Me the opportunity to lavish My love on you; For know this, that it was my son's strongest desire that none of your sins be held against you. For in His dying words He prayed, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do." So therefore I say unto you on His behalf I have forgiven and I have received you unto Myself. So be strong in these days and serve Me knowing that whoever you affect, sons and daughters, are those you influence and I am able through your standard to change not only your life but their life through you saith the Spirit of Grace.

Everyone is Beginning to Stretch Out

He's prophesying to you right now. Saying everyone is beginning to stretch out, reach for this place. I do not show these things to you as if to show you someplace that is unattainable. For I've measured your whole life in front of you. And for sure where you're at tomorrow will not be where you're at in years to come. But know this I must take you, I must take you by this faith that's being given to you now to this next place to reveal My love to you and who you are and how much you mean to Me saith the Spirit of Grace. So know this that in this, know this that in this comes stronger breakthroughs in My anointing and in My presence when you say Jesus and when you lift up and spend a moment with Me I will come and know that fear will vanquish and leave you alone in places where it once held a stronghold in your life. Oh rejoice, rejoice in these things even before they come to past. For in My heart even now these things are at work saith the Spirit of Grace.
