Here what the word of the Lord would say for truly, truly there is a glory that proceeds from My presence and this glory I have intended to touch not the church with, for surely in the aftermath of all that you receive from Me and you'll be blessed and you will receive in this, oh but the world...that the world may know that you are My disciples by the love that comes from you. For know this glory is that abiding place of My presence that you feel now. So know this, all who will press into this will find this glory come to rest on them not only in this place but in other places that are usually not conducive to My presence. I will show up in the most unusual places in the days ahead saith the Spirit of Grace. And let no man take this joy from you. Do not wonder or worry who would mock or wonder concerning My presence for I have given this for you to come up higher and the world who does not understand this will one day greatly thank you for your stand of obedience to walk into My presence because through My presence they got the answers they needed for their lives saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...) So do not miss the opportunities like these to press into My Spirit for surely in it there is a great outpouring of My Spirit for the lost and for the world saith the Spirit of Grace.

Here what the word of the Lord would say, for many of you are pressing into the mark, to that place that you know brings Me pleasure. For I see and have found a great awareness of your heart at hand but know that as earnest as your heart is to give Me your best know that even in your best you must rely, lean on and put your weight of transformation into My best on Me says the Spirit of Grace. For in all of your very best in which I am elated to see and to receive, yet in your very best it is impossible for you to transform yourself over into that place where I can come and do more for you. Of yourself you can do nothing but through Me you can do all things saith the Spirit of Grace. So rest upon Me, present your heart at your very best but know still that it is not of your strength but of mine that I come and add to you all of the necessary ingredients to take you to the place where I can come and do more for you says the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

What He wants you to know is that He is preparing you. He wants to take you and me to places we've never been. Sometimes it just hurts, it feels like something is just ripping you apart because you want it so bad but nevertheless; He wants you to know that even as bad as it hurts you couldn't do it with all the earnest effort. He wants to come and stand beside you and transform you moment by moment. Hallelujah! Something very wonderful is being offered to us, we receive it Jesus, Your intercession for a great outpouring. (tongues...) I say these things; I preface the things that I will say by saying this saith the Spirit of the Lord, those of you who walk in My presence and know Me know there is nothing that is scripted as in moments in time or events that you would set aside for Me to come and change things through you; for know this, all those who offer themselves up as intercessors and will worship Me and lend yourself spirit, soul and body to Me, know that I will come at what seems like the most in opportune times, unscheduled times. You will find that My timetable in the spirit is not exactly as you imagine. For I take very little notice of what human events or circumstances or daily activity is running around you. For those of you that serve Me in spirit know that I can be working a work in your spirit while your soul is occupied in other areas but know those of you that learn the art of intercession will find that I will come and borrow your authority at times when you feel as if your are unprepared. Know at that moment in time My grace is sufficient and I'll hedge you in so even the part where natural embarrassment and those things of not being able to explain what you are in will be easy for you because I will hide you away for the moment and moments will come and if you will allow Me to take these moments in you, I will take from you the authority to change things that you do not even know presently and then the more that you steward this the more I will come and show you what we together, you and I, changed before it ever took place saith the Spirit of Grace.

For it pleases Me saith the Lord, great pleasure...(tongues...) on the level of the pleasure that I receive those who are offering up the free will gift in heaven and I find such who will not only preach and teach but will actually practice My presence, for many, many speak about but few actually practice My presence. For is you the decision maker, if you will allow Me these moments of presence and will not find other things to do I will visit you. This is the beginning of the end, the end of those things that you are asking for. You will find that in the renewal, in the revival these same services that you felt were only the baby steps into the those places you will find by looking back they were the monumental decisions of a church body who chose to practice presence and thereby gave Me the authority to come and do what will one day look like a vast sea of humanity laid out in front of you. For in these presences is what I will need to change the masses for nothing less will do, nothing less. For you are right in pressing in, you are pleasing in your availability, so give yourself, extend yourself and find My reward is sweet in these things saith the Spirit of Grace.

Okay...this is self serving saith the Spirit of Grace, for what you have need of is in this, it's beyond asking but just to sit brings the authority for the very thing that you desire to be made manifest. So serve yourself as you serve Me and I will manifest the desire of your heart being made complete in My presence. Hallelujah! Glorify You!

Will you let Me use your authority? For it is not this group, those who know how to worship Me in spirit and in truth that I am after for I already have you and rejoice in you and each day that you give Me great rejoicing but it's those to whom I'll use your authority. For I desire those who are in the body to be drawn over in this by that which you are offering but My ultimate goal and the ultimate place that My Son commissioned you was to take this gospel to all the world. So your cries in worship solicit My authority to run out and begin to orchestrate all the things to bring the little ones in who have not known and do not know this form of worship. For if you will love Me I will love them, I will love them through you and through your authority so give Me this place and work this measure for Me, for in doing so great reward... great reward...Great Reward!

If you would know these things that I have not stopped what I poured out in the beginning. So all those who labor and come under heavy labor and burden in trying to find Me, My way is a clear and light filled way for when you feel the weight it is not of Me. I have provided a place in the Son through My Spirit, for all those who worship Me in spirit and in truth will find themselves exalted into a place of finality where they receive before the end comes, the absoluteness of their answer which gives them the freedom to rejoice before their answer comes. So rejoice in Me today and be light of spirit and heart and know that you can not do these things of yourself this is why I have provided the power of My spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!

Think it not strange that I take many services out of the ordinary and out of the plan for I know what you have need of before the say arrives I've provided everything in the spirit. For much of this is so that you may be clothed with great triumph already waiting for the victory at hand before it ever arrives saith the Spirit of Grace. For you've desired that I dictate so I take these opportunities to fan the flames of worship and praise on the inside of you for this is provided way in advance for those who will lean into it and who allow Me to bring forth the answer before. Hallelujah! Praise You Jesus! (tongues...)

For oftentimes strange will be the services that will lead up to the outpouring for what I am teaching with those who are mature is that the things you need the most are the things that are accessible to you by reason of your own authority. Not that you would have to have someone go there for you so I solicit from you that place of authority and ask more from you in these days that you would tarry in My presence because from it strange and notable things will happen in the days ahead. One place I will be doing something and another place I will be doing something else among you these things will be taking place. Miracles will be taking place and healings of all sorts will be manifesting themselves. So for the pattern that will be set I am asking you to observe and stay close, stay close in the spirit and watch with Me for in these things I say they will be strange to you for a while but then they will accustom themselves to you as you move in further and further to Me, saith the Spirit of the Lord.

(personal prophecy given to an entrepreneur)

(tongues...) He had a little commentary about what He just did...(tongues...) For in days gone by men prophesied of their own spirit and brought others out and prophesied over them that they would be prosperous and much of it was out of their spirit hoping to gain a reward of their own benefit or out of the needs that were present but know this that these things are right because they are set in order not that man would prosper but that My kingdom would come and My will would be done and out of that prosperity and those who join into it will prosper in My wisdom saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) The safeguard, saith the Spirit of Grace is in mortification for the mortification is the safeguard whether or not men prophesy out of their own spirits or for the purpose of their own things and their own ways and their own justification. For know this, your safety is in the multitude of counselors and My counsel is this that you would go into Me far into the mortification wing of My spirit for in that place know the enemy has no answer. For those who desire the death of the cross to be laid on them and every part of their life to be dealt with know that they live in a secure, secure place saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!

None of you that join Him on this walk and follow Him you won't be destroyed. He said power over all the works of the enemy and that nothing shall by any means harm you. Hallelujah!
