Higher Places In Me For Those Who Choose

For those that have chosen to continue to look up know this, your salvation draws nigh saith the Spirit of Grace. For in-between time the choices are made on a momentary basis to fill up that which is lacking and choose the higher order of things. (tongues...) Interpretation: So know this, that on this wise I fellowship with you on a continual basis of choice. For those who choose will be lifted up and those who choose will go on to higher places in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Ten Thousand Times Stronger

It is the greatest will of your Father to reveal to you who you are in Christ Jesus and bring to full recognition of your rightful place and place of authority and even by right of birth the pleasure that your Father has in you. Know this, that even the least among you, those that would consider themselves weakest among you are still a thousand times, ten thousand times stronger than he that is in the world saith the Spirit of Grace. So know and settle it in your heart that as you look unto Me it will be My good pleasure to reveal to you in the days ahead even more increasingly who you are in Me. For it is your adversary's utmost desire to keep you depleted of strength and energy towards the world by continually reminding you of your weaknesses but know this that even before you have exercised the right to do the things that you know and teach here in this place that brings you into greater authority, even before you've ever exercised those rights of authority you are still ten thousand, times ten thousand times stronger than he that is in the world saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...)

So do not wait for the next time where liberty shows up on your limb to exercise the right to share with the world who I am saith the Spirit of Grace, for I am going to give you the utmost pleasure to stand outside of yourself and to look at yourself and to see that even in or on what you would call your most miserable day you're still, it keeps coming up, ten thousand times, ten thousand times, in other words there is no measure to it above that which is in the world saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

(tongues...) So this is My design saith the Spirit of Grace, those of you that catch as you would say a clue, know this that the closer you get and gravitate to the source of My heart which is the family out there which have not yet come in, the closer you'll be to the very intimate parts that I want to come and convey and share to you because My heart still, from the cross till this point, bleeds souls must be born-again saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Fear Is the First to Go

The first thing to go is the fear saith the Spirit of Grace. For even those fine line areas which are harder to be detected because there seems to be nothing that's blatant, know this, the more that you are absorbed by Me and the more that I can take over, I trade all weaknesses for strength saith the Spirit of Grace. The first thing to go whether detected or undetected is fear. Fear and torment,

Prophecies The Family Prayer Center -2010

predominately that fear that has any suggestion of whether I will or whether I won't for I say unto you in Christ, all My promises are yea and amen to them that believe saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) For practice these things and believe Me against all odds and you will find yourself growing by leaps and bounds and the reward and even the promise that things are changing towards a more notable day of power will be the absence of fear and torment saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Put Me On The Spot

Now this He said by instruction so you'll know this is what was lacking or has been lacking for some of you have had questions about the comparison to what you see in the Word in reflection to what you see in the church, the modern church.

But know this, those people put Me on the spot and I came and proved myself to them saith the Spirit of Grace. When you put Me in a position to be God, then I can show up as God, but when you find and look for every other kind of source before you have exhausted yourself in Me, then I am very limited in the supernatural and I will come along with everything else that you try to add and squeeze Myself into any place that you give Me but know this, those that will be strong and will do exploits will be those who stand on a blatancy of My word and say okay, God prove that you are God and watch Me like I did for them I will do for you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Hold Each Other Up

He said tell the people, I almost heard like warn but I don't think that's the vernacular but if it was it would be in a good, a really positive sense. Something is out, its outcome, God has it scheduled because we've prayed it in, and it's ready to be birthed. So keep forging forward. Stay real encouraged and take no permission or give no permission to discouragement. Stay in this place. The place of worship and adoration as much as possible and what He's got scheduled, (now He's not talking right now about revival) but it's going to be so good it's going to encourage you towards the end.

So Father I bless them and release whatever this is out of heaven that You have for us to receive and get a hold of...Jesus

There is, as it were, so much that you have learned on this line to stand for yourself and of that place of certainty that no weapon formed against you will prosper as you stay in My presence but also learn, learn the double edged sword. Allow Me to pray through you for the brethren and hold each other up, hold each other up in these last days so that I can do everything that I want to do through you for this last outpouring saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!
