The harvest will soon come

For know this saith the Spirit of Grace, that this anointing and this coming forth of my Spirit, the petition of my Spirit to yours to worship in spirit and in truth is part of what I must perfect in my church for my coming back saith the Spirit of Grace. And just as many of you has loved praying in tongues and many of you relish the word of God and do everything in confession that you believe is necessary to win know this, that this part of your life and the life of my church is what I'm calling for in these last days along with everything else that came up from the foundation, but I have placed this as a crescendo to my church as the final gateway into my glory saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not sit on the sidelines and do not say I have the word, I have the spirit. Both Word and spirit agree and they petition you, worship me, worship me, worship me, for I must come in the sounds of worship. I must come in the rain of heaven. If you desire an outpouring I say unto you it will not come without this anointing saith the Spirit of Grace. You must sit in my presence until you are saturated. You must sit in my presence until things that other avenues cannot perfect in you to totality, to fullness, to maturity. This is my word, this is my Spirit, worship me in fullness and watch my love in you grow in perfection and the harvest will soon come after saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus, Hallelujah Jesus, Hallelujah Jesus, Hallelujah Jesus.

Be Contagious

Hallelujah Jesus, I've asked you to move in a realm that is not familiar to the flesh. I've asked you to take the authority that I've given you in my name and change things saith the Spirit of Grace. For what you cannot see with the natural eye you must believe in faith that things are happening when you speak. I asked you to bless your brethren and to petition me more and more for their awakening, so that all may flow together and a grace come to the house and that the intercessors raise up, let the mighty men and the mighty women of God shake themselves and stir themselves, refused to come under but to go forth saith the Spirit of Grace. Refuse to slumber and to sleep while my church is coming forth. But I say arise, arise and take upon yourself the sweet smell of a bride who has perfumed herself and is ready and adorned, ready to be entreated by her lover saith the Spirit of Grace, but I say let the fierceness of God, the fierceness against wickedness and perversion upon the land let it come forth as a mighty man of war. Let the women, let the children, let the men, speak with boldness. Renounce the spirits of timidity and renounce the spirits of oppression and depression in the name of Jesus. Speak my word be contagious, yes I said unto you be contagious one to another. Let that which is in you begin to inspire those around you, my strength. And pull my strength together so that I may have one body speaking the same thing. Turn, when you feel debate around you turn from it. Humble yourself that you come into agreement upon Jesus and all that he has done for this land saith the Spirit of Grace. Let my virtue flow in you and through you so the nations will be healed, and I say unto you it will not be many days until you will see this house full saith the Spirit of Grace. You will come together and the elders will speak of the problem and they will, they will consult with my Spirit of the problem of what to do with the newborn babes. For I say unto you this is coming. This is coming though there has been a scattering and though there has been many distractions against the body and even against the elders and many devils from hell have been sent to occupy and to bring forth these things. I say unto you that my authority in this house has not been lost, it has not been displayed and I say into you that not many days hence you will find a place of rejoicing me such as you have never known saith the Spirit of Grace. I say be bold as a lion and harmless as a dove, let the weak say I am strong, let the fearful say that I can run through troop and I can leap over a wall through my God. Let my word be in your mouth. I say unto the youngest and to those who believe of themselves that they know the least, scatter my word like seed on the earth, plant it and harvest it. Believe that you are empowered, for you have been more than empowered by my Spirit and the words that you have heard in this house have been powerful words, words that have prepared you. Do not wait for training, do not wait for preparation, gather in the harvest now, cast out devils that would confront you, stand on property lines and call men and women born again. Walk the parameter of places that I tell you to go and plead my blood and call my name and speak my word and my angels will come and abide there saith the Spirit of Grace. My glory will hover over that place until conviction comes and the house bows their knee.

The Best Worship

This is the best worship that you can give me, this is the best praise that you can give me because you're singing from your heart and your singing with your voice and you are making a joyful noise to me this morning and it causes me to come and manifest my presence and my glory in your life, because you just freely worship me from your heart, you don't have to have someone leading you, instead you just worship from your heart from deep within. So continue just to praise and worship me from your heart and see the mighty things that will come forth from all that praise and all that worship that you freely give me from your heart.

Hear and Do My Sayings

Blessed is he that would hear and do my sayings. Blessed is he that would hear and do my sayings. This is the day that I have made why don't we rejoice? Why don't you rejoice and be glad in it? I have created a new day for you. My mercy is fresh and new this morning, so reach out to me and receive all that you have need of. I am here to give you all that you need. Listen and obey. Blessed is he that would hear and do my sayings.

Atmosphere is what You Create in My Presence

For I say unto you that there is an atmosphere here this morning that has not been here for quite some time, saith the Spirit of Grace. And I say but I have been here all the time and I am here every time but the atmosphere is what you create in my presence. And I'm telling you that it's for your teaching and for your understanding. This atmosphere was created Friday night, this atmosphere came as a result of the worship and the authority that you gave me saith the Spirit of Grace. And I want to speak to all of my sons and daughters. I want you to come forward in my presence and listen for just a moment, there is no backseats with me, there is no earning with me. Earning and works is a work of the flesh and I know that all of you battle this at times some to greater and some to lesser degrees but know this no matter where you're at in your walk with me if you are mine, if you have been bought with His blood, no matter how much you've been praying, no matter how much you have been meditating my Word, no matter how much you've been in the house of God, know this there are no backseat children with me saith the Spirit of Grace. What can you do to equal one drop of my Son's blood? What process can you work to? In one moment's time everything that I made you to be to be brought forward in fullness, saith the Spirit of Grace. Know this it is always a matter of choice and for some that are feeling the fullness of my liberty this morning rejoice, for others that are still making a choice know this you are no less, walk in the joy of choosing, walk in the joy of choice, but know this you cannot earn my goodness you cannot earn my presence for every time that you call me Abba I witness to you I am your father and as long as you are my child and will always be know this that there is nothing that you can do while living in this earthly tabernacle called the body that causes me to love you anymore than I already love you saith the Spirit of Grace. So continue, rejoice and worship but know that you always have a choice and I teach you these things so that you all the more say yes to seasons of worship and when I call the assemblies of worship, because atmosphere is what I've been telling you will change the city. If it can move in one service what can it do to the city if things lighten up and joy comes through worship what will it cause the city to become when I come in fullness. Enjoy my glory and do not earn anything by yourself saith the Spirit of Grace.

Atmosphere Conducive / You Will Be Contagious

You'll see these things increase saith the Spirit of the Lord, these are not just meant to be high water marks. You'll walk out and hopefully you'll speak. I remind you what I have recently said, "be contagious," "be contagious one to another" saith the Spirit of Grace, for that which worked in the first church was a supernatural contagiousness that spread for the more you speak, watch your words when you come together, watch your words, lean towards speaking things that you have recently found out of my Spirit to be true in my Word and the wonders of the good things that I work when you come together. Make your atmosphere conducive and you will be contagious when you're here in this house and others are not here that you want to be here that you're praying for. Do not condemn them in conscience but rather take what has happened to you and spread it unto them.

Speak it unto them as if they were on the same level with you do not speak down to them, speak to them on this level, you know these things are true, isn't it wonderful that he's working in us, use the word us and we when you're with them, bring them into what you're doing, bring them and do not for many, I hear much of my church go on and on for hours about I, what God has done for me, but know this, yes I am the one who works in you, but when you speak to them speak as if I have done this inside of you so they may be a partaker with you saith the Spirit of Grace.

Endurance will turn into Great Joy

You will notice saith the Spirit of Grace that one of the things that I keep repeating is that endurance will turn into great joy saith the Spirit of Grace. That endurance will have its reward for if you labor and continue to labor on the foundation and continue to walk into my love you'll find that wisdom is justified of her children and the groups that belong to this way will all rejoice together and as I've said it's not to justify you but it's to bring forth truth in the earth and to bring forth love by my Spirit so that this harvest, this harvest is greatly manifest. It will justify, it will justify my wisdom it will justify the truth, it's not sent to justify you but as you walk in the truth, the truth is justified. You'll see many and great things will come. You'll see many return and You'll create an atmosphere where they won't have to return with hat in hand for asking entrance with humility but they'll come in with joy and the humility will be of truth it will not be of shame. So welcome, pray, pray for these, bring forth and understanding for their life in your intercession saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah

Holy of Holies

So open up your hearts, open up your hearts and worship me because you are in the Holy of Holies, so open up your heart and worship me. Don't just stand there, don't just sit there, don't think about other things, but set your mind on me and just enter in and worship me because as you worship me your life changes as you worship me your loving on me and causing me to come in your life by you opening your hearts and loving me and worshiping me and then your circumstances will change so don't think about them but worship me and adore me in the Holy of Holies, because you come in by the blood of my Son don't think about what you did wrong this week you're covered in the blood of my Son just say forgive me Lord and walk on in and worship me and adore me and see the glory fall not only in this place but in your life and everywhere you go my glory will flow through you and not only change your life but change the lives of those around you. Don't just have your mind on you and your problem because there's so many hurting out there and dying and going to hell but worship me and enter in that you can go from this place in my power and my anointing that many will be brought into my kingdom says the Lord.

PRPH120722B July 22nd 2012
Pass Yourself into Newness

What is it that you think comes to occupy the atmosphere, your surroundings, know this that when you take a stand to go in, against your stand is the one who's watched a thousand congregations like yourself and comes to corral so that you walk away a little bit at a time from what I've called you to do, know this the one who resists in all purpose of heart that I'm able to come, I'm able to come and bring you passed yourself into newness and into change for I've said unto you that change is on the way and that my purpose will be fulfilled in this house but you must continually, continually on every occasion make that stand until all things are complete saith the Spirit of Grace.

PRPH120722C July 22nd 2012
My Word Alone

This is the glory that comes from this house saith the Spirit of Grace. It is my glory and I give it unto you. That when you speak a word, do not speak it as if just to fulfill a request but believe with an absolute, that what you speak will in these moments come to pass saith the Spirit of Grace. For when you speak it is not you but I in you saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not go by last week's results; do not go by the year before results, if you are your teacher then you stand in jeopardy, if results in the past is your teacher then you stand in jeopardy, but my word and my word alone. And I say into you against a thousand times, a thousand evidences when your prayers seemingly were not heard, stacked up, there is no evidences against my word saith the Spirit of Grace. For my word, one word spoken that I will perform my word is ten thousand, times ten thousand times way beyond your comprehension above and beyond all evidence of failure in this life saith the Spirit of Grace. So when you speak, speak concerning these things and believe that immediately it comes to pass.

PRPH120725 July 25th 2012
A Walk of No Fear

For I'm teaching my church a walk of no fear saith the Spirit of Grace. When all of hell is encamped about you and it makes no sense to the flesh or to the natural mind to rest in peace, I am bringing you into this place where my love, that perfect love casts out fear saith the Spirit of Grace. But know and understand this so that you lean into the work of my ministry in you and that you flow together with my Holy Spirit. Know this that the way that you treat your brethren and the way that you treat those in the world will give me access and further access to infuse and bring forward my love in your life saith the Spirit of Grace. Understand the enemy for it is his diligence to bring opportunity for offence. Understand that it is his due diligence to bring opportunity for things to bring a place of distraction and offense. But understand each time that he comes that he is only looking for the word which has been sown in your heart and that word is my word of truth and that word is my word that will produce a continual supply of love that casts out all fear. Know this that you are never without but you are always within and that I will always supply and meet your needs according to that one that I have called your Lord and High Priest. So rejoice always and take every opportunity when you stand strong against the possibilities of offense know this that you've taken another step into my love saith the Spirit of Grace. And when my love is perfected in you, you will see the fullness of those things that you confess in regards to great miracles saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah.

Elders in the Spirit, Male and Female, to raise Up Strong

For I desire that my elders in the spirit male and female, to raise up strong, be ready to be used by me and you're coming together in your services saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not reason within yourself, do not set time limits and say within yourself, I spoke last service, I prophesied last service, I prayed last service maybe I should be quiet for a while, maybe I should wait for a while, maybe I'm appointing myself. Rest in me for if you rest in me you will always be assured that it is not your promotion of self. Your spirit will shut you down if your mind tries to promote yourself. But I ask you to trust me and I ask you to be a vital part if nothing else just in releasing the authority. For I desire to do so much more and I desire to visit you with great power on every service so much so that your heads wag, that your heads turn, that your heads shake with great amazement and you speak of these things through the week and say what a visitation but I say unto you participate and be ready to be used and watch the glory of the Lord come and the power of God fill the Nations for I desire my house full. saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah.

PRPH120729CFB July 29th 2012

Wait, Wait, Wait.

But I heard the Lord saying wait, wait, wait, just wait, just like you would speak to one of your children when they're fixing to go into something dangerous. The Lord was saying wait, wait, wait, give me just a minute, give me just a minute before you make that decision, just a moment in my presence will totally change your life, so just wait, it is so urgent that you wait on me for just a moment and then you will make the right choice and then you will make the right decision. I told you in my word be anxious for nothing. Consider the lilies. Be anxious for nothing. So just wait, wait for me. My choice is better for you than your choice. Be sure you make the right one. Life is very short, I shorten your years for you so that you wouldn't make so many mistakes. I shortened your life so that you could have the time to make the right choice but don't make it to quick make sure it's right, I will lead you and guide you I have the best for you. Thank you, Jesus.

It's By My Grace

It's by my Grace. It's by my Grace. It's not because you thought this or you thought that or that you did this or that you did that or you didn't do this or you didn't do that. It's because of my Son. It's because of my Son. Because the blood that he shed that you're saved, it's because of the blood that he shed that you're healed. It's not by works less any man should boast. Yes I want you to worship me, yes I want you to spend time with me, but it's not of works that you receive, it's my by my grace so don't let the enemy tell you well I did this, I did that or I didn't do this or I didn't do that, no, no, no my child it's by my Son that you're saved, that you're healed, that you're free, I love you so much, just receive what I have for you. Don't be in bondage to the enemy for he's a defeated foe, he's under the feet of my Son, therefore he's under your feet because you're my son and my daughter and you have me in your life so you are free just receive and rejoice all I have for you. Hallelujah Lord.
