Grace To Go Higher

How could you know what to access except I revealed it to you? How could you know that there is a higher realm of My agape, My love to you, through this place of intimacy except I showed you a place beyond where you are presently fellowshiping? Know this, that it is the utmost desire of My heart to give you what you can not access yourself and that is to take and have a foretaste of those things that I am presently bringing you into saith the Spirit of Grace. So know this for as many as will receive this grace that I will not only presently do a work in you but I will also begin to reveal to you what is in front of you, so that the place of going higher and higher and higher realms of intimacy and bringing those places into the earth and into this habitation is given over to you in these times, in these seasons saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Everything That Has Breath

Have you ever wondered why, why did I say everything that has breath praise the Lord? It's because I am alive and everything that I create is alive. Everything I have created will one day bless Me and praise Me. Everything that hath breath praise the Lord. I said everything that has breath praise the Lord. I am the Lord God almighty, I am the living Lord I am the only living Lord. I am the God of the universe. I create everything that was made and everything that ever will be made and what I create has life in it. I want you to worship Me. I want you to lavish your love on Me. I want you to give Me your undivided attention and spend moments with Me. Everything that has breath, do you have breath? I breathed My life into you. You have Me in you. You have breath. So praise Me with your voice. Lift your voice. Lift your voice and worship Me. I am all you need. You wonder sometimes, how am I going to make it? You have Me. You can make it. You can do all things through Me. You can make it. Everything that has breath will live and worship Me. You live to worship Me. So we worship You Jesus. It's my joy to honor You Jesus!

The Adorning of the Bride

What He was saying in that tongue was this...That day and hour knoweth no man, no not even the angels in heaven. Know this, that as a bride is being prepared and adorned out of the earth, ready for a reception, know that this is My refreshing to be laid upon you in these last days, not only for these times of cooperate refreshings but know this, that as an individual I am adorning and desire to adorn you everyday in the midst of your infirmity saith the Spirit of Grace. For I desire in these the last days prior to My coming to begin a healing process inside of you as you allow Me to come, know this, I will show up and I will adorn you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Healing and Miracles Simply Believe

Tell My people He said, that healing and miracles have been far, far (should I say that) it's been far overrated in your mind, it's been far over complicated. You've made it a mystery that it is not to be. Simply believe and receive saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) In fact, He said, you are trying way too hard and if you will just relax and receive and then I can get through so now.

As I Love You, So Do I Love Them

That you would know my love for them, my love for them saith the Spirit of Grace. For the family that is outside of the Father presently, for everything that I gave for them to come in and be part of this inheritance. Ask Me saith the Spirit of Grace to reveal the freedom and the love that I have for these that are without. For you it is difficult to understand but I will get this over to you in days ahead. I'm pleased with you coming into Me and I am pleased with you singing unto Me and worshipping Me with all diligence of your heart but understand this nothing that you can do can cause Me to love you anymore than I've always loved you saith the Spirit of Grace. So if you understand this then you can have an understanding towards the next that those that are out there today who curse Me, who have no thought of praising Me, who are even in a potential place of going to hell, know this, that I love them and I cherish them just as much as I love and cherish you who sing My praises from your lips saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Ask Me For The Nations

In you, as the word says in you He has quickened who were dead in your trespasses, who were dead in your trespasses has He quickened in Christ Jesus. Know this that while you were dead and had nothing to barter with you were dead in trespasses and sin and had no righteousness living in you I came and the biggest part of your joy and the biggest part of becoming free and freer from rejection was when you entered in at the door. Entering in at the door you knew that you were unworthy to receive and yet you received a gift that you could not of your own self attain. So know this, do not let the enemy of your soul once you are well inside the door begin to use the pursuit of righteousness against you as to accuse you for those places that you have not yet come to but know this, that even as grace bought your salvation and brought you in while you were unworthy and could not barter with anything know that inside of Me that it's still My grace that's changing you from glory to glory saith the Spirit of Grace.

So again, again realize that I desire for you, having thrown off the spirit of rejection that you ask of Me of the nations, for I desire those ones who were dead in their trespasses and unlovable, those that the church has often found room to condemn that you ask of Me and that I bring them in and all of them become like you bathed in righteousness and in the glory of My peace.

Supernatural Peace

Rest...I'm teaching you a new level of rest in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) For this must be of a supernatural level. It will not be understood. It will not be understood by those who are not on this particular path, nor called to Your particular call except they themselves receive this peace. But know this that a strange, foreign to you, kind of peace is not only available but is coming on you now for the days ahead to be able to accept and receive and to hear what I would come to you with and to receive it from Me and to bring it forth in authority and to watch as I bring forth everything that I want to provide in the earth through My spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) Oh for many of you this is important, for you know the battles that are familiar to you and to your household and it's so easy for you to think like this, these are common to us but know this, if you could see through My eyes and I am giving this, clearer vision, your vision will be cleared up in the spirit as a result of this prayer saith the Spirit of Grace. If you could see these things you would know that what comes that feels familiar at times but brings disruption or has the potential for disruption is aimed at your call. It's aimed at your position on the wall. But know this as things increase also your peace will increase and My grace in you, My strength will increase in all these things. Hallelujah!

This World Is Not Yours, It's Mine

The sooner that you learn that this world is not your home, that you really are just passing though just as a child as it grows up in your home they just pass through, nothing in this life belongs to you, it all belongs to Me. Your children are not your own. Your mate is not your own. You're all Mine. The sooner you learn to lay it all at My feet and take on Me the sooner you will learn how much I love you and how well I can take care of you. This world is not yours, it's Mine. Lay it all at My feet, give it all to Me, and let Me do what I want to do. Cast all your care upon Me for I care for you.

Come Unto Me

Come unto Me, Come unto Me, come unto Me at the very beginning. Come unto Me and seek My face when something comes your way. When a storm comes your way, when something comes, come unto Me first. Come unto Me and worship Me and sit in My presence and you will receive the answers that you need for every area of your life. Just come unto Me and you will find rest. You will find the perfect peace. You will flow in My peace says the Lord. You will flow with Me and the turmoil may be all around you, the storm shall be raging but you will be in the center of Me. You will be in Me. So come, come unto Me, spend time with Me and I will show you what to do. Thank You Jesus!

Now Faith

I say to you “now” faith is. Yes I did it two thousand years ago, I saved you, I healed you, I set you free but I say “now” faith is the substance of things hoped for. So reach out, take a stand in your heart. Make up your mind right “now” that you are going to receive, that you receive when you pray. So “now” faith is. I say to you don’t wait. Make that stand in your heart, “now” faith is and you will have what you desire of Me. Hallelujah Jesus!

All That I Am And All That I Have

Yes, yes all that I am and all that I have and all that the Covenant was meant to be I am that to you saith the Lord, for I will show you this path that you are to walk on but it’s in My presence that there is going to be that fullness. I will teach you, I will give you the grace to walk this way, not only the grace but I will teach you by My grace. So enter into My presence this morning with your whole heart, for it is your heart that I am after this morning. So say within your heart that you will lift up the praise and that you will stand in the presence of Almighty God to give Him the praise that is due Him for this is the walk and this is the fullness that I have for you this morning, so as you will praise Me there will be healing in this praise. There will be restoring of things in your life and I am telling you this morning how to do this, it’s to raise your hands and worship Me for I said that in My fullness and in My presence there is that fullness in Me saith the Lord.

Ask For The Nations

What are these things I desire to come and visit you with if it is not the preparation and the birth pains for that which is to be birthed saith the Spirit of Grace. For in any visitation for you now corporately or personally or I continue to say to you that it is all about the end time harvest. For I desire them more than you can imagine presently but I desire to captivate your senses in these kinds of times so that I can convince you over and again that I can convince you that truly you are healed and that you are delivered and have all the wherewithal to reach my family that is outside of these walls saith the Spirit of Grace. For know this, this is your Father's heart. Above all things did I not say to you that there is more rejoicing in heaven over one that comes in then over the ninety-nine. For I rejoice in the all of the family that is in and the ninety-nine that lift their hands but know this I consider you as already family and already healed so what is it that I will not give you that you ask of Me for the nations? For I will go before you and prepare their hearts so that the answer to your plea for salvation and renewal and healing is from them a resounding yes, a resounding yes, a response of acceptance of what you give them saith the Spirit of Grace.

There Is A Birthing Process

This truly, truly, truly, more than you know when your heart or mind is the first line of interception and defense and birthing saith the Spirit of Grace, for that which is birthed in the natural is natural but that which is birthed in the spirit is spirit. So know this, that even as I desire to use them (intercessors-women) I desire to use you. (tongues...) Okay, he said I did this as an example before you that as the women give birth in the natural so they will give birth in the spirit but that wasn't for them to be the only ones. It was just to say that there is a birthing process to take place among my men saith the Spirit of Grace. Upon all these, upon all My men who will receive the call and the inception of grace on their life know this, that I desire to come to you, (tongues...)

{NOTE: Call for all men that would to receive same grace for intercession that was previously poured out on the women intercessors in the service}

So all you men who desire to go to a place closer to Him then you've really ever dreamed of, why don't you just stand and lift your hands right where you are at.

You Are That Generation

How I have longed for these days once again saith the Spirit of Grace. For I saw a generation come up in the earth and therefore I prophesied through the revelation that I gave to My Son and John recorded it and before all these great and notable things came upon the earth there was a generation that stood up in the Son and declared the works of their Father. Know this that you are that generation. And know that you are not alone for all over this land and around the world I am raising up ones that love Me more than they love the world. Know this that in this great and notable outpouring all those who lift their hands and worship Me now will find a place in this outpouring and will be used beyond measure, beyond imagination. The blind will see, the lame will walk, you will be hooked up with bodies all over this nation and you will see them and appreciate them with the appreciation that I see them and appreciate them with for you need one another in this last go of it saith the Spirit of Grace. Receive these things and walk in Me for great joy is coming on the earth saith the Spirit of Grace.
