My Love Is As One Of A Father

It is His, the Holy Spirit's utmost desire for you to let Him saith the Spirit of Grace, for you to let Him reveal My love to you. For My love to you is one as a Father with a child desiring your utmost affection, desiring to keep you in the very bosom of My heart and in the very inner place where I can nurture you and hold you and go out in front of you and answer every question that would come to heart and mind saith the Spirit of Grace. For know this, that if you will relax and let Me, then I can promise you this that what I have brought you in here for will be accomplished and you will go out higher in My spirit, not just feeling good but an impartation of growth inside of you that begins to conquer every kingdom in your life saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) So do not resist this opportunity to lift up holy hands and give Me thanks for what I have already simply provided for you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

You Are Unleashed

For I desire to run out in front of you saith the Spirit of Grace. And I desire, this is what I hear Him saying specifically, that some great and notable things are done and accomplished in and through you before the end of the year. Some notable, monumental, look back on and say my God. But what He is saying is, what He is wanting to do it for, is to catapult you into 2011 running like you've never run before in the power of God. Hallelujah! (tongues...) This is My desire saith the Spirit of Grace, for from the very beginning did I not teach My disciples and say unto them as I have done, so do ye? Go ye therefore into all the world. Therefore, I say unto you saith the Spirit of Grace, that that power rests upon you now. So know this, you are unleashed saith the Spirit of Grace. For whatever your call is, whether it is to generate money or whether it is speak My word or teach My word or whether it is to govern or whether it is to housewife or whether it is to be whatever know this mighty, mighty, mighty signs and wonders will be accomplished in you and through you running into the next year so that you begin to see and say my God, the book of Acts is coming to pass once again. Hallelujah! Praise You Jesus!

Be Strong And Of A Good Courage

What I am asking of you I will provide for you saith the Spirit of Grace. For all you that run out in front with the banner speaking My word over this body and praying great mysteries and tongues of intercession know this, that I am pulling you up into a higher place of accessing My strength saith the Spirit of Grace. So receive the abundance of peace and grace and know that I am going to strengthen you for battle, because you will lead the battle array and you will cause others to come in like a great and mighty flood into this house and those that will follow you will be strengthened by My strength in you and through you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! (tongues...) Here comes some more instruction... Do not, do not He says, do not be afraid. For did I not say to Joshua, who is a type and shadow of that which was to come, for Joshua was the church going into the promise so I said to them as I say to you now, be not dismayed saith the Spirit of Grace. Have not I commanded you be strong and of a good courage. For you enemy will come, I hear the word smokescreen, even to challenge these kinds of things immediately he will come but if you will know this you will laugh at him as if to say My God has given me the land in front of me and no giant, no giant is able to stand between me and my inheritance. Know this, that you will find that all of your enemies fall before you and you will find that every juncture, you will find My grace is sufficient saith the Spirit of the Lord.

Yield To My Fullness

Know this that the greatest quality of My church in these last days will to be to take on a yielded spirit saith the Spirit of the Lord. For those who are broken and yielded will progress so much faster than even those who take a stand and at times seem like that they stand in a place where legalistically they are taking a stand out of their strength, instead of My strength. Know this that to yield to My strength and to My promptings and My love to you is to take a decision and a choice to walk into everything that the First born, the First born, your Commander in Chief the prototype walked in. For He knew that to relax in Me and to believe for My grace, oh, understand that He walked in the fullness of My grace and as He led His life and went before you understand that He Himself continually trusted in that place in the provision of My grace for His life. Know this, as you yield to Me that even your imperfections become no problem. And know that they will become no problem to you as in distractions for I provide in My grace an ability to take you to that place and set you down in the fullness of My love saith the Spirit of Grace.

My Father Sees You As He Sees Me

For in the world you will have tribulation, as I said in the world you will have tribulation but be of good comfort I have overcome the world saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Not only have I overcome he who comes to you but I have overcome in that part that he would use in you, against you. Know this, that when you choose Me you have chosen a place, a place to be seated with Me in heavenly places saith the Spirit of Grace. And in that place, My Father sees you as He sees Me with no weaknesses, with inability to fall but to stand strong and to go forward so I say to you today be strong, be courageous, understand who you are and fight the good fight. Hallelujah!

Conformation Of Truth Is Peace

There be some that are searching of truth and a place of belonging and knowing and understanding, know this, that the greatest conformation of what is truth is also coupled with peace saith the Spirit of Grace. So even when the things around you don't quite fit your theology know that when I am able and there is a window of opportunity I will slip peace into your spirit and the peace will confirm to you that the things that you are witnessing as in conformation to your heart's desire, those things are My way and the things that I am getting over to you to take you to a higher place and fulfill the desires and the longings of your heart saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

I Desire For Families To Be Healed

I desire to do a great work in families at this hour as I always have, but when I say this hour I am talking about an authority that I've been granted by those who pray and pray over so I desire more, more of that authority to spill over into the families and bring forth a healing. Do you not know that the church that began in the garden is the first church, that began with the first man and woman when I brought forth seed to worship Me in spirit and in truth was My desire? And know that even after the enemy stepped in and divided the church that I came once again with the plan and all those who will depend upon Me and call on Me and the promises that I provided over their families I will bridge the confusion between mother and father, I will bridge the confusion in what is commonly called generational gaps, I'll bridge those so that the fathers are true fathers to the children and mothers true mothers to the children. I desire that the family be healed and as that healing process begins know that also My revival fires will burn among you saith the Spirit of Grace.

Remember Your First Love

Pray one for another like you've never prayed, for oh how the more you need each other, more in the spirit for these last days for Me to come and do what I desire to do. For truly I desire to fill your alters with those that are truly unlovely and those who can not be loved, even their closest friends and family will abandon them before you find them but when you find them, you will find them in My presence and see through My eyes as these are the revenues of the earth. They are the jewels that I have given you in these last days to possess and to hold among yourselves. Do not be caught up with that church with that church that I prophesied in the book of Revelations that was caught up in things and they lost their first love but oh adhere more to these things saith the Spirit of Grace. Cause yourself to come close to these things. Pull yourself in forsake the world and look not back as Lot's wife looked back and was turned into a place of (the) unchangeable...know this, that I have given to you a place in the spirit that continually looks forward with eyes upon the horizon and does not look back saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

(tongues...)

You will find for many of you that as you court these things that it may be at the beginning that your love for the world and things of the world are a great competition with how much you see your desire in Me. But know this, that I promise you that the hours are just ahead of you when hot tears will baptize your spirit and beyond that run into your soul so that the things that you once garrisoned yourself against and tried so hard not to become involved in as in, that which took away your first love, know this that you will find your appetite that's right, that's the word, appetite, you will find the appetite of your spirit taking hold of the appetite of your flesh and soul and as you do you will find that it's not that you are garrisoning yourself against things, it's more that there is no taste for the things of this world and all your desire is the depth and the joy and the peace and the savoring of My word and the rush of My spirit bringing you higher and higher in these last days.

Seek Me For The Unlovable

Continue to pray for me as He's on me in a real unusual way...

Oh and though these things are wonderful for you, oh though they build you up and put you into heavenly places and cause you to live above and not beneath, all know this that it is really beyond even you that I seek. For I've supplied you and I desire to go in this place of edification and building you up, I desire that you know how healed you are and feel very comfortable in calling on Me and seeking Me for those who will come in, as I said prior to in the prophecy, they are unlovable, they are castaways. They smell in the natural and they smell in the spirit but know this, I am asking a church to be My hands and My feet, My arms, My legs and My eyes and to love them with the pure passion that I love them with saith the Spirit of Grace. So now I sweep in with these kinds of forums and ask you to find your identification and find that you are truly free and that you yourselves are healed, otherwise when I send them, you will be too involved in your own self trying to sort things out and you will miss the jewels that I send, oh but you that are free will know that you are free indeed saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! (Tongues...) For many are having visions and many are having dreams, they will increase. You'll see angels, you'll see fire, you'll see glory but none of these will mean to you, (what) you'll in respect give Me - thanks and yet none of these things will mean to Me what the glory of My spirit coming upon you... (means to Me) Breathe, breathe upon us in these last days Holy Spirit, that none are lost that you've given us, that none are lost and that the wicked one does not take us out, all the way to the end, all the way to the end. No fear Jesus!

Fiery Trials Are Sent To Distract

...that you would not count it strange concerning the fiery trial that has come to try everyone within the sound of my voice but know this, that your adversary is contending against you coming into the next place of revelation of who you are. You've heard and heard and heard that you are exalted in Christ to a place seated with me in heavenly places but oh the revelation that has meat with it, it has that which absolutely quiets all fears. It's that place that you hold in Me as your Father as I reveal how much, how much as a Father that I love and desire to fellowship with you continually. So know this, those things that are contending against you, those things that you often times only recognize from the natural that those things that are sent as a distraction. I say to you if you will turn, if you will turn in your spirit and speak to these things with authority, know that you have all of everything to make them leave and when they leave you will find that it is much, much more clear to begin to worship Me and to receive those things that I am asking you to receive from Me saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Worship Removes The Shroud

The shroud, this is what I heard...the shrouding it comes and you yourself can not see, you can't see who you are in Me, except through Me saith the Spirit of Grace. For in attacks like this when the enemy comes and wars and wars and wars, the weaknesses about yourself are the things that he highlights and brings up all the time against your senses to convince you that that's who you are. For none of you have the capacity within yourself, that is in the realm of the soul, to see yourself in the light of what I see you in and what He sees you in saith the Spirit of Grace. But know this the remedy to being enlightened, the remedy to dropping all shrouds...did I not say, put on the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness? Know this that the more that in these last days that you turn yourself over to worship and godly mannerisms of giving adoration and praise unto Me know this that you will see yourself, not in pride but you will see yourself as who you are in Me, able to go forth and you will see yourself in the joy of the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus and experience that great joy you once had at the beginning of many of your walks but fell short and found that things began to clog the well of joy and peace. Oh, but know this, that that well is about to be unclogged. For all those who will worship Me and give themselves over to extended worship I will wake you up in the morning and I will put you to bed at night and I will sing you a lullaby in the middle of the night and teach you who you are so that you rise up as spiritual giants and not only know it by faith but you will feel it in your emotions and you will feel it in your senses and I will begin to ride with you on the high places of the earth so that not only what you are speaking by faith you will also feel in the realm of the senses saith the Spirit of Grace.. ! Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus

Exaltation Is Always A Matter Of Choice

For I desire above all things that you prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers. And know this, that even to this hour and beyond...I desire to exalt you out of all your tribulation. But know this that it is not hidden to my church of the way that I have provided for your exaltation. For know this, the choice is always in your hands and the matter of change is always in your hands and going higher in Me and watching My coming to you and bringing you through to the other side is always a matter of choice in your hands saith the Spirit of Grace. So rejoice in these things and again I say rejoice and know that it is of utmost and supreme desire that I exalt you out of these things saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

It's Already Been Paid

This morning the Lord saith something to me...He said, did you ever go out to eat with somebody and you got up to go to the restroom at the end of the meal and then you came back and they had already paid the bill but you didn't know it and you went to pay it and the person said, no, it's already paid. That's what Jesus did, it's already paid. So if you are in a battle whether it's finances or healing or peace...He's already paid and He over paid so we can freely receive. Hallelujah Jesus!

PRPH100919C-September 19th, 2010
They Will Know You By Your Love

For this is what I've offered you and if you will prove Me in these last days, that you'll begin to pray for the little ones and then offer a pray in public to those who are hurting, know this that I will come and I will prove Myself to be on the line that My word describes. In this last day you will find a great separation but not only will you be empowered to walk in great strength but the world will see you and they will know you by your love. They will know you by that which you call yourself brothers. Know this, that I long to come, I long to come and receive unto Myself these things that I left. So do these works and know that you have one who has been left to empower you and guide you into all truth saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

PRPH100922-September 22nd, 2010
Move Forward With Patience and Endurance

Stand fast in the hope and in the calling, continue to go forth and know this that the things that you do now in great patience, that is to pace yourself against the things that are those things that come to press, those obstacles in the way, with great patience and endurance you move forward. But know this, that those things that you've had hope in will surely come to pass saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus! (Tongues...) So continue on with intercession and with giving of thanks often and know that the things you do behind closed doors will reap a great harvest and those things that seem small and insignificant on this earth I will use to confound the wise and bring forth what I've promised you in the earth oh Hallelujah! Thank You Jesus!
