

October 12th, 2008

What think ye? What think ye to weigh in the balance, understand what kind of form initiates God in your life to go through a form even in something called church and not wait for My spirit to come, no this, no ministry ever happens, no one ever gets ministered to or is My body edified to go to the next level unless I am permitted to come saith the Spirit of Grace. But you will not find what you are looking for in formulas. You will not find it in a regimented A-B-C, 1-2-3, that's the way I like it, it is a schedule for me and it is what holds me together. But know this, that your openness to Me, your spirit yielded to Me allows Me to come and put you back together saith the Spirit of Grace. So yield your members over to Me, yield them over to Me in ways that I can come and deal with the difficult parts of your spirit and your heart saith the Spirit of Grace.

This is a call, a wake up call saith the Spirit of Grace. For I am not angry with you, nor will I chide you but I want you to understand this is a time and a season to become very active and alert in the kingdom of God. Must I remind the intercessors that there is neither male nor female in the spirit? For often men equate the art or ministry of intercession to be given to the women. Know this that I have called My men and I have called My women as one in the spirit to bring forth intercession in this day and hour saith the Spirit of Grace. The greatest ministry that you can do for the body and for the kingdom and for the move of My spirit in this place and for the ongoing effort and believing factor of revival is to stay on your face in intercession saith the Spirit of Grace. There is none that can earn enough, give enough, be there enough, supply enough to equate to the level that I need that through what I can do only through intercession saith the Spirit of Grace. You devalue yourself; think less of yourself and what I have given you when you yourself equate yourself weak and unable to change things. Know that I have given you beyond your faults a place in the spirit to supersede your weaknesses and go into that realm where the enemy is battling you and the church and bring down the strongholds that My word might be heard and things might become much, much, much more prosperous in these days saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

Hear what the word of the Lord would say. For many of you are trying to wait this out. You are believing that even in the midst of your suffering in whatever area is your greatest challenge that if you will just keep going and wait long enough, even in your miserable state, that things will change. Know this, they will not change. You will stay in the place that you are at next year at this time, except that it will increase the levels of torment that you are experiencing now, unless you choose by an act of your will to go forward, I-can-do-nothing-for-you. I will not supersede your will. If you do not speak My word and if you do not pray the mysteries that I am asking you to pray, you will live in torment and I can do nothing about it and yet I desire above all things that you may prosper and be in health as your soul prospers saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

October 19th, 2008

For all change, permanent change starts with a place of confidence in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. So know this, this is your confidence to all those who come before Me and all lift up themselves to Me and humble themselves know that immediately from the very get go, from the very start of your change I find pleasure in you saith the Spirit of Grace. So know that My pleasure in you is the thing that comes and begins to methodically change you on a permanent basis. So in that I say this, I am pleased with you as a body but I have to tell you this, this what you see and what you experienced even this morning is only the beginning saith the Spirit of Grace, for there is so much more to be had, so much more to be received, so much more that in that sense you have not yet even begun to enter in to the liberty that I have given and already delivered through My Son the first born. My desire is this, that on a permanent basis, when you come in that the resident anointing is already so strong that there is no changing process to be had but from the very beginning lives' sense and feel and know the permanency of that anointing for it is only My anointing that breaks the yoke saith the Spirit of Grace. For in this knowledge is change. If you see this and the surroundings and the affect of what you feel this morning as the end then you are never pressing. But know this, even though I said I was pleased know this is only the beginning, this is only the beginning for I desire a place in My anointing that from the moment that you walk in, those of every walk of life, those needing Me come to the place immediately saying within their heart, " what must I do to be saved." Those who are walking in with heavy burdens are not set free some place else but they are set free from the very beginning saith the Spirit of Grace. And the workings of miracles and the workings of all kinds of healings are brought forth from the very beginning saith the Spirit of the Lord. For these things which you know and understand press towards that mark for there is so much more to be had saith the Spirit of Grace.

Some not understanding that place of permanency wonder how much the fight will be to maintain the place where that anointing continually abides, know this, that this also has been the scheme of your adversary for in the fight that you know now your mind equivocates and says evidently this kind of fight will have to be maintained I don't know that I can maintain it and holding the precious ground that the Lord speaks of concerning an outpouring but know this, your enemy knows that on the other side of these barriers lays a place of sufficiency in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. So that not only My anointing increases but your awareness of Me increases in the anointing so that it is not you doing it but it's Christ in you the hope of glory, so know this, yes he (your adversary) will come continually but your anointing to withstand him will be of such as if he wasn't even there because the anointing will break every yoke that he brings at every given place that he would come to saith the Spirit of Grace.

That you would know this, this battle and the victory is won by My intercessors saith the Spirit of Grace. It will not be done by the works of the flesh, nor even the determination of a well ready mind or determination of a heart that says I want to do the best. But if you take those things in the spirit that I have given you and utter the mysteries before Me and bring forth those things of the spirit that I will bring forth a time of great elation and joy in your midst saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) Some question on this wise, the thoughts of the heart, I don't quite understand, I don't understand isn't God in the house? Aren't we feeling His presence? Aren't things already wonderful? The Lord says you can not understand certain realms of glory until you get there and then when you are there you look back and say by comparison of where I stand now to where I stood then that was a realm of darkness almost by way of comparison. Know this, that I desire to impregnate your spirit to give it something in these hours to begin to worship Me for something higher. For tell you in the realm of glory that I desire to bring you in to that you will look back on these days and not despise them but to realize that the fight that you had how that it eased and that certain places in My spirit became so easy up against the fight. (tongues...) He said this, even in that realm where people are involved and usually that is what holds back our lives from going to the next level. He is talking specifically about problems that we have with people, that somebody in the house or somebody that was in our life and is out of our life. (tongues...) You did and have done the best that you could possibly do to manage those kinds of things. But take toll of yourself realize this, that without Me coming and bringing forth the healing that I am trying to tell you is available in this next realm it will usually be on a human level with a mixture of My spirit that you trust Me at times and only partial levels of freedom can exist out of that place as you know this as I said take toll, as you come to church and as you enter into the house how often inadvertently does your mind wonder and think about the problems that you have with people here or with people at large? Know this, that the anointing that I am asking you to pursue that is my place of presence there is an absence of strife. You say where did it go? My anointing breaks the yoke saith the Spirit of Grace. As long as you wrestle with it in yourself you find it at even odds a formidable foe but when you allow Me to take you to this realm that I am asking you to submit to and bring you to, you will look back on these days and say my mind was fighting and my flesh was fighting and I was wanting to go to that place but now I stand over inside of that place and look back on something that is now foreign to Me and I stand with the presence of His anointing free, free in my spirit from all offense and free from strife so that the fullness of His anointing might flow through me to the healing of the nations saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

(Tongues...) So take hope. Don't chide yourself overly, for understand this, that it can not be won except through the spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Glorify You Jesus!

October 22nd, 2008

For I am the One who declares the end from the beginning saith the Spirit of Grace. For if you would like to see and know and understand the picture of the future that you hold in this thing saith the Lord. For there will come in the days ahead over this city great, great open air meetings where thousands will be harvested in just a few days time saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) And you might as well know that the basis of it will be the sound doctrine. You will run ahead in this thing and you will engineer it and you will bring it forth. For where I can find a place where I can build that foundation to where that when the harvest comes in they'll be built upon the sayings, My sayings and not on man's tradition and you will know this that they will be harvested by signs and wonders saith the Spirit of Grace. For truly, truly that great harvest will be brought about by the demonstration of the very things that you have called in saith the Spirit of Grace. For those who are gainsayers and those who are caught up in religion and those who have come from places far away and brought their voodoo and witchcraft they will have to say with all certainty watching the miracles and watching the blind see and the lamb walk and the deaf hear and the dumb speak and the demoniacs set free they will have to proclaim with all certainty that your God, is God saith the Spirit of Grace. (tongues...) Oh get ready for exciting days. Get ready for exciting days. Get ready for exciting days for the things that you have read about in the Old Testament and great heroes of faith will return the scene saith the Lord. Those who do great exploits, those who know their God will be those who I will lay My hand on and they will be the sons of David rise again. There will be the sons of those prophets who will rise up in great strength and run with a mighty vigor in My spirit saith the Lord. And you might as well know saith the Spirit of Grace, that there will also be showdowns, those kinds that were recorded in those books where I showed My power triumphant over all the powers of the enemy. Know this that there will be showdowns where the enemy of this world and witchcraft and those who lift up darkness will rise up to try and prove their stand and know that I will bring forth My glory in the midst as in those days and once again I will prove that I am God saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

October 26th, 2008

I am pleased, I am pleased saith the Spirit of Grace, I am pleased saith your Father for the respect that you have into instructions that you have recently received. Know this by illustration that the liberty that is present and will continue to proceed is only an answer to the authority that you are taking and that you are demonstrating saith the Spirit of Grace. When you move, I move. When you take dominion, I take dominion. Know this that as far as I am concerned and as far as you are to be concerned it is a very easy, very easy and simple thing to whip your enemy saith the Spirit of Grace. It should not be laborious; it should not be time consuming for those who know their God will be strong and do exploits. If you expect from the very beginning to begin to eat the fruit of pleasantness in My spirit then from the beginning to the end you can harvest a great harvest of pleasure in My presence saith the Spirit of Grace. So take faith and know that if you linger with your enemy and you do not stand firm he will continue to content with your indecisiveness. But when you stand strong with great determination you cause him to flee immediately from your presence and from My presence saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Oh that you would hear what the word of the Lord would say, for now are the opportunities and the windows, the windows are opened, the opportunities that you create in the spirit to beat your enemy sore, to beat your enemy to dust saith the Spirit of Grace, for opportunities like this will increase for unusual services and for those who like services to be the same you will be uncomfortable but know that your uncomfot will turn to comfot when you give way to what I am asking you to do saith the Spirit of Grace. For it is not the way that you have been doing things that is going to change things, else they would have already changed saith the Spirit of Grace. But I come with intercession to break the bondages of evil that have come upon My people even against their choice saith the Spirit of Grace. So when you choose the uncomfortable and when you choose services that do not seem like they were the last service and yet I take you into a progression of My spirit know that it is for change and the right kind of change saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Glory be to God!