You Love Inside Of Prophecy

Oh for He said rejoice in the hour in which you live, for you live inside of prophecy. You live inside of the words that I have spoken saith the Spirit of Grace. But know this that the things that I wrote in the last, know that it was not for fear, for as men that read it read it with fear have not come into My intimacy. For know this, when I said these things will come on the earth but I brought these thing about that you may rejoice and be exceedingly glad saith the Spirit of Grace. Because in those things, right in the middle of them you will see those things that you have asked Me for from the very beginning and you will rejoice and be exceedingly glad at the cascade of your loved ones coming back to the things that they once knew saith the Spirit of Grace.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

(Tongues...) For these are days of prophecy and days of great rejoicing where the blind will see and the lamb will walk but know this that I will restore ministries and I will restore those things that are burnt over and those that seem to have left but come back and I will come back and bring them up to a place of standing as if they never left saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

(Tongues...) This is a time where saints prayers have come up for long seasons and you've been built upon the shoulders of those who have proceeded you but know this that you will rejoice and watching things that you will shake your head at and say my, when we thought we were receiving we had only just begun saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Understand Your Place As Intercessors

Many of you will come to understanding but you think of yourself on a minuscule level having an inability to turn the tide as an individual on national and state level kind of issues that affect millions of people but know this, that the intercessor that I called, one man, out of the book of Daniel changed a whole nation for revival in the turning, the turning of what was in that time the mind of Christ for their day and hour. So know this, those of you that understand who you are continue to pray, seek my face for a turning, for a revival that is poured out on this land for all things are possible saith the Spirit of Grace. All things are possible...!

last days. And so as a Father that gives his very best know this, that as you seek My face to know Me, then know that the things that you desire, those questions concerning life and where this went wrong or that went wrong? {Here's a clarification, here's a clarification.} He said He would not take you back in reminisce of the past in hurts as to bring up hurts and to bring up confusion but many things in your life lie in unsettled territories of your thoughts and imaginations in a place, in a land that you ditched most things not knowing how to solve them but you chose to move forward. Know this, that on this path as a Father it's My delight to take you by the hand and to walk you through places and answer through lands where there has been leftover residue and rubbish that tends to bring doubts and fears oh, but I desire to solve and to bring forth unfathomable kinds of peace that will bring forth the answers to your life saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

All Strength, All Power And All Honor Is Yours

Be not weary in well doing for know this that if you will press in towards the mark for that prize which is My high calling and that is to get to know Him who's glory sets above the heavens and if you will press into Him know this that all strength and all power and all honor that has been transferred to Him will also be transferred over to you saith the Spirit of Grace. For know this, that an unbelievable according to mankind dichotomy is coming in the last days. For many will grow weak and faint and quit and the world will be consumed in darkness but those who know Me will get brighter and brighter and will burn as the noonday sun saith the Spirit of Grace. And My glory will rest upon those that are strong and those that are strong will increase in strength and will carry the message of this gospel and then shall the end come saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! (Tongues...) By this will all men know that you are My disciples, by your love one for another and because of that love you will not walk in a spirit of timidity where others that are called by My name back down and are fearful because of the times, you yourself will take upon a spirit that conquers and you will run to the battle and you will rejoice in the middle of the battle because greater is He that is in you then he that is in the world. Hallelujah! Did I not say and did I not forewarn you that in the last days these things would come, perilous times would come, men would be mockers and lovers of themselves, heady, high-minded, blasphemers, haters of God but know this, to all those who know My word and keep My word great strength increases daily for you insomuch as those who enter in behind the veil through worship and the meditation of My word, know this, you see yourself as yourself, {Now I am repeating this, you see yourself as yourself meaning you only know who you are based on your commentary of yourself,} but He said those of you that will increase in strength will be mighty and move outside of yourself not knowing who you are until the accomplished thing is done and then you will look back and say my how God used me to do this thing and bring it forth in my family and to bring forth salvations among those whom I have been calling out before the Lord. Hallelujah to God! Thank You Jesus!
