Position to Receive

He said when you receive this love that helps you to understand more thoroughly what I have given you and what I have made you and it takes away the fear that most people had that even though what I gave them and promised in my word and separated to them that they don't operate in it, that this love will take care of those things cause it'll build your confidence and you'll know that I am him and who I said I am and I will do what I said that I'll do. For most will fast and pray they'll follow those things that I laid out and they'll try to fast and pray and move me into moving when I've already moved. You can't move me into moving; I'll do what I said I'll do because I've already done it. My desire to do it far outweighs yours to have it done. You think you're fasting to move me; you're not moving me; you're moving yourself into position to receive from me. Oh that one hurt. Oh I see what he's saying. And can you understand then if you let me develop this love in you which is my love which I'm giving to you which makes it you're love and when you're operating out of that will you not have all the things that I have provided for you, hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah.

The Same System That Taught

Let the weak say I am strong for many times the people that have confidence in themselves it's hard for me to change them, but those who abandoned their self completely on me for what I have to give them are those who genuinely walk through to the best that I have without resisting me with what they have.

For I don't call you because of the way you were raised that everyone else thinks you're a good candidate. I call you because I can look into your heart and know that you have the call then wherever you're at then you wont stay there you'll walk with me into everything I said you could have because I'm your strength today and I'll be your strength tomorrow saith the Lord.

For many of those who could do nothing arrive far ahead of those who seem to have everything because he that knows everything and has everything is hard to teach, but those who clear their slate and say God every step I take will be you. You're my Lord and my savior and I'll serve you to the inth degree all the rest of my life. You're the one he can use. So don't let the outward appearances have any effect on you; I work from the inside out and nothing shall be impossible to you because you'll learn to depend on me. So go on, yield yourself to the spirit, learn how to let him pray and work that future out for you for he is the comforter that I have given to you and he will guide you into all truth and the most specifically for the truths concerning you, your call, your ministry, you'll pray it all out and that gives me what I need to slap it into your life.

I think some of those last words were my description of what he said. How many more nights do we have? I knew but I wanted to hear him say

From the days of my apostle Paul there was no New Testament setting in every bodies lap; it was undergoing the creation and collection. There was none; where did these get their information; where did they get equipped from on high with what would be said what was when they had no New Testament in their lap to lean to; what did the people bring home with him in those days?

This is him talking.

See you have available to you the same system that taught him what he recorded down straightened the problems out, but this system is when you pray in tongues you activate the teacher to guide you into all truth; you have the same teacher he had, only you are studying his letters. Hallelujah Jesus.

Can I Pray For You

For healing isn't what you see or what the Devils made it. For didn't I say that these signs shall follow them that believe. This is a thing that's not too hard for you and it begins when you show the compassion of somebody in pain and you ask them can I pray for you and do it with confidence and throw away that notion that I won't heal a sinner who is having pains; all you need to do is let him know who healed him. So most of you haven't developed this because you haven't taken that for what I said saith the Lord. So go ahead; what have you got to lose if it doesn't happen; you have everything to gain if it does. So be bold these things belong to you.

Don't Be Afraid Let me Lift You Up.

For you'll see when you make the truth of the stand that is you, understand it in yourself and you've also edified yourself. You can come right up to the door and you know the next step will be through; and it will appear to you that I haven't met but you'll see you wont get through that door before I have provided everything that you'll need. Is there anything too hard for me? No there's nothing too hard for me.

I couldn't say that if I have to think of it, he said this, don't be afraid; let me lift you up. Don't be afraid; let me lift you up. Don't be afraid; let me lift you up.

Plans For This Entire Region

Yes, the Lord said I'll keep coming in here, because you don't understand, I'm meeting your needs now on this degree and that degree, but I also have faith in you beyond this. For I have plans for this entire region and it was my desire in investing in you that you would come forward and be the lead of a move that I'm going to move through here with. And this will include revival where many, many saints will be, okay, many, many of the lost will come in because the Saints will be, I've never seen anything like this hold on, a whole boat load of saints coming together, focused on one thing to see the region in revival and they end up being used in it; I mean going into places and stores and things and getting the sick and praying and they say who are you people? And I never quite saw that before.

You'll Say This Is Massive

For there, not one person in here that I am not concerned for your path. There's not a person in here that he hasn't established you on his path as thoroughly and final as he's established anybody else. Don't you understand when you turn me loose in your life I'll cause the leadership that you give me to come to pass, because you'll give me a way to work that authority in you; this is why I provided a prayer language. I can pray all these wonderful things for you that your called to perform and called to do and you'll have a way of praying and knowing what they are even before you get there. So rejoice and be exceedingly glad and know I've left nothing out, the people who don't follow me into the spirit and follow me into the wonderful things I've provided that they don't have to be suffering anymore, that most will stop way short because they don't understand my works, they don't understand me and they don't understand the power of the Holy Spirit and yet in these last days saith the Lord there will be an outpouring, there will be an outpouring, it'll be massive but to the world it won't look massive but you'll see you'll say this is massive and even though the path is narrow on the destruction path is wide there will be more walking down that path than you have ever imagined possible in the generations past. So rejoice and be glad; I am going to snatch more people out of Hell than you can imagine of that time table.

You'll Do These Works

Oh, this is a good one.

People short themselves because they don't finish finding out how much I love them, They think that they owe something they can pay but there's nothing they can pay. I've already healed them. So yield yourself to me and know that I love you. The things I asked you to do there between me and you, you'll follow me, you'll do these works, and when you ask me to do something that I paid for with my blood know I love you and know I'll do that for you even with all your problems.

Be Know as a Revelation Church

How would you know; How would you know of yourself; except I through the spirit showed you the things in the spirit; And just as I sent my disciples out two by two; And they returned after works, mighty works of grace; And even at that time they were not yet born again but my, my umbrella, my covering was over them. And because they did the mighty works I told them; I prophesied and said that I saw Satan fall; I want you to know; as my bride; I want you to know as my children; that I have seen from my heavenly perspective; From my place where I'm seated next to the Father; That I have seen over your lives in this week and over this region Devils have to report back to higher powers, and report defeats that have taken place concerning their assignments. Continue to build saith the Spirit of Grace. Continue to go forward; Give me thanks and praise for what I have done, but continue forward saith the Spirit of Grace; Take these things with you, but do not be distracted to the right or to the left; there is much more to do. And this grace will build and my promise will be fulfilled; I will visit this house, I will visit this city and I will visit this region; And your glory that I place in this and the candle stick that I have placed here will burn with other candle sticks and you will be know as a revelation church; You will be seen in the earth not to your glory, but to my glory in you; saith the Spirit of Grace. It was necessary that he come; and test your ground; I have not sent him, but he has come; but mighty, mighty defeats concerning him have taken place even in this week saith the Spirit of Grace. Rejoice in these things and build on these things saith the Spirit of Grace; Hallelujah
