My Desire Is To Bring You To A Place Of Expectation

Did I not say that all things are possible to him that believes saith the Spirit of Grace? Did I not say that He that spared not His own Son how shall He not with Him freely give you all things? Did I not say that if you would come boldly before the throne of grace that you would find, you would obtain mercy and grace to help in time of trouble saith the Spirit of Grace? For know this, it is My utmost desire and good pleasure to go into those avenues that seem dormant and seem to be lost and seem to be in a land of the lost where prayers just don't get answered, know this that I desire to revive old things inside of you that strength and hope and vitality come back to a place of expectation in My Spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. Oh, know this, that in these days that I bring everything forward and I am causing you to look forward to that which is coming but it's also My good pleasure to bring up that which is in the rears saith the Spirit of Grace, that you stand sure footed and sure handed in these last days knowing that greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world. Hallelujah Jesus!

How Much More

Know this that if you were dead in your sins and trespasses and reconciled to God how much more now on this side of the blood am I able to cause and to make those things which are your inheritance come to pass saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah!

Rest In Me

I am the glory and the lifter of your head. I am the glory and the lifter of your head. Just rest in Me. Rest in Me for I am the glory and the lifter of your head. So trust in Me, rest in Me. Don't fret; don't worry but rest in Me and trust in Me. Allow Me to wrap you in My arms and carry you through these days ahead, these months ahead, these years ahead, allow Me to carry you. As it says there is only one set of footprints in the sand for I carry you says the Lord. I carry you so rest in Me. Rest in Me.

Take Every Opportunity

Do not waste your opportunities to advance yourself and to go further into My kingdom. Do not waste opportunities when troubles and trials and tribulations come to your door, to give every opportunity to worship Me and use the season to grow strong and push forward in the things that I have taught you in My word saith the Spirit of Grace. For take great joy, not in the trial itself but in the opportunity, in the opportunity that you've received grace to exercise and to get strong in these last days when others will watch you from the sidelines and wonder how you are able to run with such a pace of strength untiring and unabated in cause and unabated in vision. Know this, that you will take great joy, not for the trial itself but for the opportunity to have exercised and gotten strong in sufficiency, in My sufficiency in these days saith the Spirit of Grace. (Tongues...) And then take every opportunity when seasons change, when the fight and the war goes to dominion and peace abounds and quietness comes as is in every storm, take that opportunity to take great measures to run deeper and deeper into Me. Every season take the opportunity whether in the fight or whether in the peace so that in these days all things are unto you as victory says the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah I'll take that one! Praise You Jesus!
