

October 9th 2016 Judgment is Coming

Say not within yourself nor with your mouth “Yet four months and then cometh the harvest,” for I would say unto you, Look upon the fields for they are ripe—present tense—ready to harvest, says the Spirit of Grace. Do not say that in a time to come there will be a harvest, but say—present tense: This is the time of harvest, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not wait. Do not wait upon your faults, failures, character flaws to be perfected before you begin to enter into this harvest, says the Spirit of Grace. One must be done and the other also must be done, for there must be a purging, and there must be a mortification in your prayer closet and in your personal life. That is one part.

The other part is that I am sending you out into the harvest even not yet perfected. And I will be with you in your imperfections. And I will be with you in your character flaws. And I will be with you in your shortcomings, and the enemy will not be able to destroy you.

To those who will take heed and go out, know this: If you will spend that time; if you will labor in My Presence, then I will purge you, and I will keep you. And the one will be a part of the other in that the enemy will not be able to destroy you because of your character flaws, if you're doing the things that allow Me to come and purge you. But do not wait; do not wait. Enter into this harvest.

Enter into this harvest, and by that I mean not just the spreading of the Gospel of good news, as in salvation, but include all the parts of salvation—lay hands on the sick. Lay hands on the sick and see them recover. And even when you do not see them recover continue to lay hands on the sick. For the day and hour will come where both will match perfectly, says the Spirit of Grace. And that which you are doing in the prayer closet will match up with that which you were doing in the field, and the two will come together in perfect harmony, says the Spirit of Grace.

Be not fearful, for great things are coming on the earth that will bring great fear. And when I say “Fear,” I am not just talking about the unbeliever. Much of my Church will shake and fear. There are those even in your midst presently in this house this morning that will shake and fear. Anxiety attacks will increase with great numbers on people that are not preparing themselves for these last days, but those who know their God will be strong and do exploits, says the Spirit of Grace.

You in the midst of those who are going: at times it looks like totally insane because of the things that will be coming upon the earth. You will be sitting in a place of safety, solidarity in your mind—a strength—a place that is so solidified by the strength of the Word and the power of the Spirit that you'll look in utter amazement as people fall apart around you. There is still time. There is still time to redeem the time, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not wait for the things that are coming upon the earth. Do not wait, says the Spirit of Grace. And again He says the third time: Do not wait for the things that are coming upon the earth to get strong. It is not that you would not be able to catch up, but the labor to catch up and find peace in the midst of what is coming will be many, many, many times harder than it is present tense. If, if indeed you cannot run with the footman, how will you run and how will you contend with the horseman? says the Spirit of Grace.

For there are coming waves by Satan for these last days that will shake the very earth, and there is coming judgment—things in which My hand is being taken off and which, because of the permission granted by the Church, I must take My hand off. And judgment is coming. Judgment is coming.

Again I say, judgment is coming, and many will be shaken and many will fear. Many will fear, but [for] those who will seek My face and those who will turn inward and those who will come into harmony to the best of their ability with My Word, then I will come, and I will bring an accentuation to their ability. I'll bring a strengthening to their strength. In the mist of their weakness, I will bring My strength. Their strength will become My strength. Their strength has been weakness, but their strength will become strength in My strength, says the Spirit of Grace.

And I will grow up people who have nursed the bottle for many, many years. And for people who have set in the darkness and given many, many excuses for their flesh, I will grow them up overnight if they will allow Me, if they will lay down their excuses and if they will not point the finger at someone else. If they will take their eyes off of everything else and place them upon Me, says the Spirit of Grace.

The prototype, the Lamb, the One who stands stalwart in a place of your risen Savior, the Head of the Church, the King of Kings, and the Lord of Lords—set your eyes upon Him. Do not blame anyone of the past. Do not blame leaders in front of you. Do not blame elders in front of you nor pastors nor anyone else. Set your affections on things that are above, says the Spirit of Grace.

I must grow you up. I must grow you up. The time is short, says the Spirit of Grace. The time is short. It is short. Many things must happen. There is a harvest, and power will be part of that harvest. But great things that will shake the earth, it is of a necessity that you take authority over, over your children with prayer and supplication and fastings and speaking My Word.

Do not fear, little lambs, for I am with you. I am with you, but you must exercise the power that has been given to you.

To that order of command upon Israel when the death Angel was passing, I said to them: You must cover—you must cover the doorpost and the lintel with the blood, for the death angel is coming in this night. For those who did and all that did there was a covering. But know this: If they would have heard only and not done or did or followed commandments then just because they were Hebrews, the death angel would have killed them as well. This is an hour where knowing something is not good enough.

Knowing something is not good enough. Having heard or even having the ability to repeat a revelation is not good enough, says the Spirit of Grace. Coming to church is not good enough. It is an hour in which you must do what you know, says the Spirit of Grace.

So cover your children. Do not, do not, do not become distracted with trying to make a living or [trying to] set up your kingdom or find your happiness. I will fill your camp with happiness. You will eat your bread with the sweetness of peace, and you will lay down in harmony.

But watch the homes, says the Spirit of Grace. Let no contention come between you and your wife or your husband. Guard all things as if a thief was standing at the door. Guard all things as if Satan himself stood at the door.

Do not go to bed angry. Let not the sun go down upon your wrath. Let no lie exist in your presence. If you have told lies one to another, then find the time to go back and make the honest appeal. Tell the truth. Tell the truth. Tell the truth, says the Spirit of Grace.

Purge yourself, for a great shaking is coming. Let nothing have an open door. Let nothing have an open door to your life, for you must cover your children, and you must cover your grandchildren, and you must cover those whom you love. You who have ears to hear, this will not be fear unto you, but it will be peace. You will live out your days with a covering of peace. You will end up strong, living life.

You are in revival. You - individually are in revival. For as He is, so are you in this world. See yourself walking in revival, says the Lord. For even as I am one with the Father, so am I one with you. Revival is not to be just a nice confession and vision for the future or something that may or may not happen one day by chance if God is willing to hear us and decide to pour out Heaven upon us. No, revival is on purpose. It is not just a promise that you stand on for the future, it is how you are to live as My individuals now.

For revival is about personally living My gospel. The Gospel of the Kingdom that which I placed inside each and every one of you the day that you became a new creature in Me. That is the world that you are to live in now. My Kingdom come, My will be done in you on earth as it is in the Kingdom of Heaven within you. This is not a self-seeking gospel. This is not a sovereign gospel. This is a gospel of both power and love and it is meant to be lived on purpose. This is how I have called you to live every day, everywhere you go, in every situation.

There is no time where you are allowed to wear a basket on your head and pretend that you don't know me. Those days are over, says the Lord. Take heed according to My Word. For just as Jesus walked in revival and lived the full manifestation of the Kingdom of Heaven at all time. He did not sit around waiting on Heaven to rain on Him. He knew who He was and He knew who and what was on the inside of Him and He had a mission and He kept a single eye and fierce focus on receiving, being, obeying and manifesting love at all times and He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil. Loving every single person around Him and loving not His own life unto death while destroying hell for a living.

Likewise, you also ought to live in the same manner knowing that it is not you but Christ in you, your hope of glory. You must stop waiting for what I have already gave you, says the Lord. For My blood speaks a better word than your feelings and as long as you are in continually in the process of conforming to My image inside of you and as long as you are living with clean hands and a pure heart, then you are qualified.

Yes, you must grow up into Me but that has nothing to do with sowing seeds everywhere you go and loving the people around you. For even though you don't feel like you are walking in 100 full perfection and power yet, does not disqualify you from stepping out and manifesting Me in some way.

For did I not say that these signs shall follow them that believe? And did I not say to go out and preach the good news that you have received? For it is My goodness that leads men to repentance. Therefore, let them see your good works that they might glorify your Father in Heaven. For even as some sow and some water, God brings the increase.

Therefore, continue to put away childish things and continue to conforming to My Word and growing up into Me. Being a doer of the Word, knowing it's not by works lest any man should boast, but in giving thanks to Me continually for the grace that is come and empowered you to live above sin and for the Spirit of power and love and soundness of mind that I have placed inside of you. For truly I have made all things new. And I desire for you to know Me and to walk in newness of life. For to know Me is to be filled with all of My fullness, says the Lord.

For I desire to give you a completely new life, one that you no longer recognize and accept the life that you were created for as you will arise and shine and walk and talk with Me and know Me now that the world around you might know who I am through you and be restored back to fellowship with me and live what they were originally created for as they see your life.

Therefore, fear not these changes, says the Lord, and receive with meekness the engrafted word which and save your souls. For as you begin to step out in faith past yourself and your discomfort and start living how I created you to, I will come and do the rest. For faithful am I who called you, who also will do it.

So continue to walk humbly before Me with a holy fear and reverence for righteousness and My Word. And begin to take the personal responsibility of ushering in revival as if you were the only one left. Live with this responsibility. For although it is a heavy responsibility, consider it an honor to endure such things. For My yoke is easy and My burden is lite. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, says the Lord. For it is no longer okay to look to the left or to the right and allow yourself to live in mediocrity and complacency as you gage how good you are doing as comparison to others disobedience. Remaining sedentary getting fatter and fatter on messages when I have called you to run a race, to fight a good fight and to exercise your faith and to come up higher.

For there is a world around you in desperate need of Me and Me in you is their only hope. For all of creation is groaning, waiting for the sons and daughters of God to be made manifest in the earth. Therefore, taste and see that I am good. Taste and see what I have prepared for you. For eye has not seen, nor ear has not heard the plans that I have for you, says the Lord. So begin to see the end from the beginning that I might close the gap, says the Lord.

For as you begin to taste and see what you were created for and begin to become one with it, choosing to live there now, living every moment selflessly by faith as you go forth in love, scattering seed everywhere you go, seeing yourself as My living, breathing revival in the earth. As you take My gospel personal, you will begin to watch in amazement as I show up and made manifest in you. For My love is an all-consuming fire and My love never fails.

For the more you allow My all-consuming love to burn in you, the more I will be made manifest in you and in every situation. First burning up everything that is not of Me. Then spreading like wildfire, igniting those around you and everything in its path until there is nothing left but the trail of My glory.

This is how revival starts, says the Spirit of Grace. So quench not My Spirit and hold not back My love no longer. As you personally heed My call to seek Me first to go, to take up your cross and follow Me that you might be conformed into My image as you live to bring Me glory and make My glory known everywhere you go that revival, the Kingdom, Christ in you, the hope of glory might be made manifest in the earth once again

On the way to church as I stared out the car window, the song "Show Me Your Way" came to mind. That song had been coming up a lot in my spirit over the past few weeks. So I thought that I would find that song and put it on. As the song played, I closed my eyes and had such a sense of peace wash over me. I was praying under my breath in tongues for a few minutes when a scene started to unfold in front of my mind's eye.

I was in a forest and just a few feet in front of me stood a doe, a female deer with a small puddle of water at its feet. The deer was not healthy, it had hazy eyes and a dull patchy coat. It was thin and its hooves were cracked. It was very obvious that it was lacking in nutrition. It must have been very thirsty and hungry. You would have thought that it would have lapped up the small puddle at its feet but instead it would lean down, take a few licks of water and then look away like that action in itself was just too hard.

After I had adequate time in the full measure of the animal, my attention turned to something up ahead. About a 100 yards ahead stood another doe. In that second, I was now standing beside this animal. This one was quite different. She was beautiful. Her coat was gleaming in the sunlight, her eyes were clear and focused, her black hooves were shining.

It was very clear that this animal was getting everything it needed and from the time that I first saw her and to the time that the vision was over, she never stopped doing one thing, and that was drinking from this very beautiful, crystal clear lake. She wasn't taking sips of water or lapping it with her tongues. She had her mouth open and she was sucking in the water, drinking it as fast as she could but her thirst could not be quenched.

About the time I thought, "Man, she has to be filled to capacity", my position in view changed. I was suddenly over the lake looking down on it. The lake had words on it and it read, "True Worship", and it was transparent and you could see right through it. Underneath the words "True Worship", were many words. Words like: Peace, Joy, Prosperity, and all good things God wants to add to us personally. That was making sense because I know through our worship we open up doors and create the atmosphere for those things to us from the Father.

But then different words started to come to the surface from the deep. Words like: Fasting, Revelation Knowledge, Miracles, Revival, Outpouring. Now everything seemed jumbled.

Then the Holy Spirit spoke extremely clear. He said the first deer you encountered was you. It's you when you are driving somewhere and you think of Me and you say, "Father, give me the want to, to want to" when you say to give me the time so I can spend it with You. It's you when you say, "I have no time, I have no time". You are sipping out of a tiny puddle and you are not even thirsty and where you are at I cannot even give you the ability to become thirsty.

That may work for others who are not so accountable but at this stage you know you are held to a much higher accountability. The other deer is also you. It is you at stages in your life where you had gotten to places where you get into true worship with Me and you spend time with Me. Where the joy, the peace, the prosperity flow but there is still so much more.

Underneath that, there are desires to go into fasting, there are desires to spend unlimited amounts of time in My Presence. There are desires that I want to give you and they all start with time spent in true worship. But there is still much more than this.

There is an outpouring coming. There is something I need you to get ready for. There is something I need all of you to get ready for. I need the church's hands to be able to do My miracles.

At this point, I look back at the deer that was drinking out of the small puddle but with it now were maybe 25 to 30 other deer standing around drinking out of small puddles and not even thirsty.

The Holy Spirit said, this is My church when they say to Me, "I have no time, I have no time, I have no time". Through true worship I will create a desire so strong to want to be in My Presence that their whole day will be scheduled around getting to spend more time with Me. Not because they feel obligated but because they will be so thirsty they cannot get enough and it will be like that deer that doesn't want to even look up or take a breath because it is so good. And at that point when the thirst is unquenchable, watch and see the miracle that are to come.
