Moving out of God's Authority

Dear Friend,

February, 2020

Recently the Holy Spirit admonished us through a prophetic word to practice moving out of God's authority.

The message of moving out of his authority meant restricting our lives to be lived out of a place of God's anointing in us versus a relationship to the flesh in getting things done in this life.

The prophecy begins by saying "It is the anointing that breaks the yoke, saith the Spirit of Grace. The flesh profiteth nothing, saith the Spirit of Grace. More determination, more willpower, more being adamant about getting it done, or convincing others in your life to get it done, or to do for you, or to move this or to move that, is not the authority that I gave you. For My authority comes up from a place of the spirit."

Jesus taught his disciples this same message.

Joh 6:63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

The recent prophecy continues to say this. "But when you move out of the flesh, then you move out of the emotions in your own life to get things done on a daily basis, even mundane things, and things that you would think of as in natural things, as in jobs and work and employment, and in going about. I did not give you this spirit to move out of the flesh, for all authority comes out of that spirit, saith the Spirit of Grace."

Clearly the authority that Jesus gave us to accomplish in this life does not come out of the flesh, the mind, or the emotions. It comes from the place of the born-again spirit. It comes from that place where God's Holy Spirit resides.

When negative emotions such as anger, frustration or fear begin to be involved in accomplishing anything this is a sign to us that we are not moving out of the origin by which all authority comes.

Why is learning and practicing living out of this place so important to us? Because the more we live out of this true place of authority in the mundane or everyday life, the easier it will be for us to perform the spiritual signs and wonders that Jesus said would earmark the church to the world.

In this LAST GREAT DAY HARVEST OF THE CHURCH, the world will see a group of people moving not only in miracles but in an ability to accomplish incredible things in the natural realm. Joel's Army will come to pass. The works and the essence in power of Mathew, Mark, Luke and John will be seen once again in the earth.
