It's Too Late

Dear Friend,

In the next couple of days, our nation will decide the most historic and important presidential election in our entire history. According to Heaven's perspective, the choice will not be between two political parties, but rather between light and darkness, between good and evil.

Heaven regards the murder of innocent children in the womb by abortion and the sanctity of marriage between a man and woman to be the issues that outweigh all other issues. It's not even close! The candidate who regards these issues in respect to the Word of God is the candidate with whom God and all of Heaven side.

There are many prophets today that are predicting how this election will go in regards to a victory for righteousness. I pray that they are all correct.

This letter is not a prediction in regards to a national election, but rather something far greater. It's a prediction in regards to a spiritual outpouring called REVIVAL. This Revival of the Kingdom of God back in the earth, in full operation, will not be voted on. It is not on the ballot, but rather it has been prayed into existence to such a degree that Heaven is saying "It's Too Late to Stop Revival." The presidential election does not predicate Revival, but Revival will change the nation no matter who wins.

Recently, the Lord gave us a prophetic word that I would call the Sword of the Spirit in regards to Revival. Many of you have already read or heard this prophetic word in the past couple of weeks, but I'm asking you to re-read it in the light of the expectation that God is asking us to receive from it.

It's Too Late to Stop Revival
Prophecy201014b – October 14, 2020

It's too late! says the Spirit of the Lord. It's far too late, says the Lord, for this thing to be stopped. It's been declared in Heaven and it's been released. The dam of My glory has already burst, says the Spirit of the Lord. It's past the point of any adversary stopping this outpouring, says the Spirit of the Lord. That which I have decreed has been sent forth. The army hosts of Heaven have already been briefed in the Spirit and assignments have already gone out, says the Spirit of the Lord, of the when's and the where's of how these things will fall over My nation and over this nation, says the Spirit of Grace. For the adversaries in the Church or out of the Church to stop this thing, it's far too late, says the Spirit of the Lord.

This thing has come to a cup that is full in measure, and I have received the prayers of My people and the earnestness of them, says the Lord. So I say unto you that which I have said many times in the past, get ready, but be earnest in your expectation. As the children of Israel stayed up all night the night before their passage into freedom, with their sandals on and their shoes and their clothes, and they ate their meal in speed as if something was about to happen, so say I unto you, expect this thing, for nothing now can stop it! It has come to full measure, and that authority in the earth which I have yearned for and asked for has come to a place, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Many will continue, and I encourage you to continue to speak My Word as this birthing comes through the birth canal into the fullness. But I say unto you, this thing has been released in Heaven. I say unto you, the assignments of the when's and the where's of how this thing will come about, where it will fall and how it will leap from place to place, has already been assigned, says the Spirit of the Lord, based upon authority and based upon prayers of My saints. So I'd say unto you, live in the expectation of it in an earnest manner. Turn aside! Turn aside from anyone that has any less expectation and says "These [things] are a pipe dream," or something that has been orchestrated by man, says the Spirit of the Lord. Do not even try to convince them otherwise. Turn aside and go on your way, because the expectation is now, says the Spirit of the Lord. Stay in that place, ready to receive. Because I say unto you, the night is far spent, the day is at hand, says the Lord.

I am so excited! I feel like a little kid the night before Christmas, waiting to open all the presents around the tree. I know that the big box wrapped over in the corner is a Revival filled with miracles. This box is filled with all the glory Jesus left the first church. Miracles of all sorts and "nothing is impossible" comes out of this box! Our very best days are ahead of us. Live in the continual expectation that Revival is now!

Candy and I want to thank you for your financial support to this ministry. Your gift each month continues to provide the opportunity for us to preach "this Gospel." We love and appreciate you so much!

If God has recently touched you in any certain way in regards to healing, I would love to hear about it. You can share it with me by emailing fpc@broncflint.org.
