March Letter 2022 - Living in Goshen

Dear Friend,

My spirit is filled with joy when I think of the foreknowledge of God in providing an end-time Harvest for the Church in the midst of the worst possible times in history. What an incredible dichotomy is coming to the planet.

The days ahead will be marked with the supernatural for the believing Church. These days will be the best and the worst of times. The worst will be because of the continual calamities that are coming on the earth. The best will be because of the distinction that God will make between the Revival Church, and a world that is falling apart through despair.

The joy of our time spent in the presence of God will produce a strength that will distinguish us from the drowning despair of the world and Christians by name only. Nothing will replace the sign of our peace! Notable miracles will not just be a sign to the unbeliever, but peace that passes all understanding will mark our paths as true believers in Christ.

Jesus prophesied in at least three Gospels of what the world would look like just before His return. Although we are not yet totally at that place, the world is quickly spiraling towards that end. Every day is edging us closer to the fulfillment of these words.

These are the words from Jesus in the amplified version of the Bible:

Luke 21:9 And when you hear of wars and insurrections (disturbances, disorder, and confusion), do not become alarmed and panic-stricken and terrified; for all this must take place first, but the end will not [come] immediately.

Luke 21:10 Then He told them, Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. [II Chron. 15:6; Isa. 19:2.]

Luke 21:11 There will be mighty and violent earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences (plagues: malignant and contagious or infectious epidemic diseases which are deadly and devastating); and there will be sights of terror and great signs from heaven.

Luke 21:25 And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; and upon the earth [there will be] distress (trouble and anguish) of nations in bewilderment and perplexity [without resources, left wanting, embarrassed, in doubt, not knowing which way to turn] at the roaring (the echo) of the tossing of the sea, [Isa. 13:10; Joel 2:10; Zeph. 1:15.]

Luke 21:26 Men swooning away or expiring with fear and dread and apprehension and expectation of the things that are coming on the world; for the [very] powers of the heavens will be shaken and caused to totter.

Notice that the above verses tell us that a time is coming in which mankind will be so filled with despair that they will not know which way to turn. Jesus said that men will actually die from the fear of the things that are coming on the world.

The world and the lukewarm church will be drowning in despair, but there will be a supernatural peace on those who are spending time with Jesus. The distinction will be absolutely undeniable.

There will be plenty of reasons for the world to be in despair. According to Jesus, there is not just one pandemic scheduled for the planet, but multiple. I remember Pastor Dave Roberson prophesying in essence that there were coming diseases in the last days that modern medicine would not be able to find remedies or cures for. Then, the Church would rise up with supernatural healing to bring about the signs for the great Harvest of the Church.

Isa 60:1 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

Isa 60:2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

Isa 60:3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Economies will continue to fail and recuperate temporarily. The continual threat of war will be a constant reminder of the days in which we live.

Wars centuries ago could be fought in somewhat obscurity to the rest of the world. Two nations could be at war, and it could have little effect in a nation on another continent. But Jesus knew the despair that war in the modern world would bring on the planet. Today, it is reported that at least nine nations have intercontinental ballistic missiles. There are thousands of these missiles, and many of them can cross the ocean in less than one hour's time to kill millions of people on impact. That is one reason why Jesus said:

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

One of my all-time favorite stories of God's supernatural hedge of protection and provision is in the example of the old-testament Hebrews living in a district called Goshen inside of Egypt at the time of the ten plagues.

When Joseph settled his family in Egypt, he requested of the Pharaoh that he would give him the province or district of Goshen, an area inside Egypt. 400 years later, during the time when God would deliver Israel from Egyptian slavery, the Hebrews were still living in this same area.

During the time of the ten plagues that God brought on Egypt, there was a continual distinction of provision and protection between Goshen and the rest of Egypt. These are some of those examples:

– The fourth plague of flies –

Exo 8:21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

Exo 8:22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

Exo 8:23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people: to morrow shall this sign be.

NO SWARMS OF FLIES EXISTED WHERE THEY LIVED.

– The fifth plague of livestock death –

Exo 9:3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

Exo 9:4 And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

NO CATTLE DIED OF ISRAEL.

– The seventh plague of the hail storm –

Exo 9:25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

Exo 9:26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

NO HAIL OR DESTRUCTION TO THE LAND OF GOSHEN.

– The ninth plague of darkness –

Exo 10:21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt.

Exo 10:22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

Exo 10:23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

THERE WAS LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS FOR GOD'S PEOPLE.

The tenth and final plague was the most notable distinction of all the plagues. The death angel passed throughout Egypt killing all of its first born, but Israel was saved, once again, by the applying of the lamb's blood on the door posts. This of course speaks to us today of the blood of Jesus and salvation through the new nature.

Today, there is no physical land of Goshen for the children of God, but rather an internal place of peace and safety through our intimacy in the Holy Spirit.

What God did externally and geographically in the Old Testament to distinguish His people will now be done through an intimate walk of peace and power through the Holy Spirit. Goshen is no longer a province of land, but rather each individual inside of Christ who decides to have a deliberate walk of intimacy through prayer.

This spiritual Goshen is not promised for the casual, onlooking Christian, but rather is a product of true intimacy.

Psa 91:1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

This shadow is cast by the Almighty on those who are close enough to be shaded under its distance. It will provide a hedge of protection and deliverance in the days ahead. It will provide the strength to persevere in His promises against all plagues and sicknesses. It will provide peace, provision, and everything necessary for us as we bring about this great outpouring of His Spirit in these last days.

Do not be in despair! We know by scripture and present-day prophetic speaking that this world cannot come to an end until this Gospel (the one that Jesus taught and demonstrated) has completely saturated the earth.

Mat 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

WE HAVE AN INCREDIBLE AND BRIGHT FUTURE IN FRONT OF US!!!!

Candy and I are so thankful for you and your ministry to this vision. This is not one individual's vision, but the vision of an entire family, and you are part of that family. Your gifts are helping us build towards this Outpouring. Thank you so much!

Blessings,
Pastor Bronc
