June Letter 2022 – Stewarding The Revival

Dear Friend,

The apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian Church concerning his ministry towards them and how they should perceive him.

1Co 4:1 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

The plural reference of ministers in this verse is referring to Paul's mention of himself, Apollos, and Cephas (Peter) in the chapter before. He counts all of them as ministers of Christ to the Corinthian Church, but Paul also refers to them as stewards of the mysteries of God.

The word "stewards" here means someone who oversees or manages the mysteries of God. The word "mysteries" means a secret, or we might say a divine revelation from God.

When we put these two words together coming from their original language, we can see that Paul is saying that he had been ordained by God with others to manage the divine secrets or revelations of God.

In the next verse, Paul is not just referencing himself, but is including everyone who takes part in managing the divine mysteries or revelations from God.

1Co 4:2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

This verse gives us a far more reaching understanding than just the ministers of Christ in the pulpit. The context of these verses may have started out with the pulpit ministers, but Paul expands our understanding here to mean that everyone who receives true revelation from God is required to faithfully manage that revelation.

There is a group of believers in the earth today who have been receiving the God-given mysteries concerning His heart for these last days. The primary mystery is this: "Christ in you, the hope of glory."

Col 1:27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

Col 1:28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

The mystery of Christ in us is far more than just understanding that Jesus lives inside of us, but it is an understanding of the power of God that expands to every person's world with preaching, teaching, and demonstrating Christ for the purpose of evangelism.

There is a group within the Church at large that is hearing the cry from Heaven to make ready for the spiritual harvest of the earth, and to show every man and woman the mystery of what it means to have Christ in us, the hope of glory.

The Revival generation is a group not only called by God to receive Revival, but also to steward or manage it properly so that it is preserved against any future destruction.

Too many of the spiritual moves of God in the past have been short-lived in the earth because there was not enough stewards to properly manage what God had sent. Too often, wolves in sheep's clothing snuck in and dismantled the truth with false doctrine.

Recently, God has been talking to us about becoming stewards of the Revival. What this means is that we must become spiritual grown-ups. We must all become spiritually mature in the foundation that God has given us.

One of the major differences between a grown-up and a child in the natural is the grown-up's ability to see danger and protect the children from destruction.

The following is an excerpt from the Blueprint for 2020 prophecies:

Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John Will Return
Prophecy191208 – Dec 8, 2019

Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John will return – the works and the essence. The body at-large will be shocked to hear and to see what they will hear and see from this place. I put you on aware but do not be afraid, that many will rush in the days ahead or when they see the explosion of My glory. They will try to merchandise it. They will try to catch it up in ways in which Simon the sorcerer said: Give me this; I'll pay money for it. But as he was rebuked, so will they be also rebuked.

I am expecting you as a caucus of elders, learning line on line, precept on precept the Word of God in doctrine, that you will be able to turn away the gainsayers in love, but if all necessary, with a stern and solemn rebuke, that those who will rush in and will try to create for themselves gatherings, attention to them self in the midst of the revival – you will be a firewall in the spirit against what has debilitated and brought down and destroyed many such revivals. But you are right, and I declare unto you by the Spirit that you are right in your understanding that the last, great harvest of souls will be that which is brought up all the way to My return, says the Spirit of Grace.

Children in the natural are naïve because of their innocence, and they will believe anything that people tell them. The adolescent in the spirit will more so believe anything that is said to them especially when it is tagged with the name of Christ.

Becoming a faithful steward of the mysteries of God is to protect sound doctrine as it continues to be preached in the Church. Becoming a faithful steward of Revival is to become a caretaker of sound doctrine to the thousands and thousands of spiritual babies who will be born again in this harvest. Every believer that becomes spiritually mature has a responsibility to help steward this revival. It is not just the responsibility of the pulpit ministers.

It is time to prepare the nursery to receive this great spiritual harvest! It is time to have plenty of spiritual baby formula ready to feed the infants as they are birthed. The baby formula is none other than “the sincere milk of the word.”

1Pe 2:2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

Milk is the product of that which is pre-digested by an adult and then given to an infant for their growth.

Stewards of Revival are the spiritual grown-ups who have pre-digested the Word of God and then are able to give it to spiritual infants so they can grow up in Christ.

Stewards of Revival nurture and protect at all costs the spiritual babies being born by protecting the truth given by the Word of God. In this way, we will preserve a lasting outpouring of God’s Spirit that will last until the second coming of Christ.

Candy and I want to thank you with all of our hearts for your part in becoming a steward of Revival. We love and appreciate you so much.

Blessings,
Pastor Bronc
