July Letter 2022 – Distractions

Dear Friend,

Recently, my good friend Gary Carpenter has been teaching out of Mark chapters 4 and 5. His teaching describes how Satan comes immediately to steal the Word from us so that it bears no fruit. One of the primary ways that he does this is through DISTRACTIONS. If Satan can get our eyes off of the assignment given to us by God and onto the present circumstances, then our assignment will go unaccomplished.

Our assignment as Joel's Army is to go into God as far as we can to receive a supernatural outpouring that we call Revival.

I am presently witnessing an extra amount of DISTRACTIONS coming against the Body of Christ (Joel's Army) for the purpose of stopping or redirecting our assignment.

If you have not been experiencing a more than usual amount of distractions recently, it is possible that you will at some point in the near future. This is not a negative confession, but an understanding of the times in which we live. The closer we get to Revival, the more that our spiritual enemy must work overtime to stop this from coming to pass.

Thank God for the Holy Ghost. He is the one who continually helps recalibrate us and keeps us on course in the midst of the storm of distractions.

Recently, the Holy Spirit reminded us of some prophecies that He had given for the very purpose of these days. The Holy Spirit directed us to return with a commitment of meditation on these prophecies once again. He specifically spoke of what we call the Blueprint Prophecies. These prophecies are available in MP3 and PDF format on the homepage of our website. The Holy Spirit also directed us to listen to subsequent prophecies and prophecies that came from other places that specifically pertain to going forward into Revival. I am confident that this would include prophecies coming from Jim Martin Ministries, and the present-day speaking prophecies coming from Dave Roberson Ministries.

Paul told Timothy to war with the prophecies that had been given to him for the purpose of the ministry.

1Ti 1:18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

We could say it like this: "War with the prophecies so that you don't become distracted from your assignment."

Below is the recent prophecy that directed us to return our meditation to the prophetic words we have received already.

I'm Not Asking For More, I'm Asking For All

Prophecy220629 – June 29, 2022

I love you, My children, with an everlasting love. I've desired fellowship with you more than your words can say or express. It has always been the Father's will to bring you into the fulness of everything that I made you and created inside of you through the new birth. My petition to you, and those that are watching and listening in the days ahead, is to continue to revisit specific instructions that I have given to this Church and to others worldwide. Go back and hear again the Blueprint prophecies. Go back and hear again and again subsequent prophecies. For even as I spoke in days of old and said to Joshua as he was about to go into the land that he was to meditate day and night on the very things that I had given in the law, and if he would do that, then I would make his way prosperous and then he would have good success – I say unto you that I have given unto you specific directions.

Through many of these prophecies I have said to you, "Come away with Me to a place of intimacy." And I have promised that there would be a grace, that for every hour that you would apply yourself, I would cause you to come to a place where your heart yielded all the more. That I would bring forth a desire. I've promised that I would bring forth a desire, that the greatest desire of your life would be to spend the hours necessary. And I say unto you again, to those in this house and those listening, renew your meditation on My directives, the things that have come forth from this place and others specifically for the birthing of this Revival. It will not be birthed without prayer. "What is it," someone may ask, "that brings forth this Outpouring?" It is prayer and prayer alone. It is seeking My face in a continuous fashion.

I'm not asking for more, says the Spirit of the Lord. I'm asking for everything. I'm not asking you to give Me more of your life, I'm asking you to give Me all of your life. I say unto you again, do at least what you know that I've asked you to do. Do everything in your power not to fall below that mark, and then trust Me to increase as you go forward. Because to the intercessors and to those who do not even count themselves as intercessors, Joel's army must be empowered by this grace.

Doctrine is the safeguard. It's the fence, it's the corral around the sheep, that none are lost. But make no mistake, even with the soundest of doctrine that you have, if you do not birth this in the spirit, it will not be birthed. If you do not vigilantly pray and seek My face, revelation will not be enough, doctrine will not be enough. Intimacy in My presence and face to face is what I'm asking for, along with the soundness of truth that is already at work, says the Spirit of the Lord. This is not grievous to those who love Me. For those who love Me, there is a cry in your heart saying, "Lord, help me to find more of a place [of intimacy]. To spend the hours, that this thing may be birthed in this House, and in many other places," says the Spirit of the Lord. I am pleased with you, I desire you, I love you. But I am instructing you specifically to go back and listen again and again to those things, and specifically to the Blueprint, for this House and for all others who will hear these things.

Often times, My children want more spoken to them, instructed to them. Even more revelation knowledge. But I say unto you, why should I give them more when they are not yet even fulfilling that which they know, and that which I've given to them? So come away with Me. Come to that secret place, says the Spirit of the Lord. Men and women, find the hours. You have no enemies. There is no one on this earth your enemy against this. You have one enemy – it is the distraction of whatever it is that renders an excuse. So seek Me, says the Spirit of the Lord, that all things come under submission. And again, I'm pleased. In My pleasure, go forward. In My pleasure, seek Me more. This is the hour of the intercessor. This is the heyday of the intercessor. This is the fuel that burns for Revival. Your tears of intimacy equivocate to millions of souls being birthed. It is not your knowledge. It is not your blatant knowledge, but your intimacy intermingled with truth that will bring this forth, says the Spirit of the Lord.

To me, the greatest line in this whole prophecy is "I'm not asking you to give Me more of your life, I'm asking you to give Me all of your life."

Candy and I love and appreciate you more than words can say. Thank you for being in the war for Revival with us. Thank you for fighting off all distractions for the purpose of accomplishing our assignment.

Thank you so much for your financial blessings to this ministry. I can assure you that it is a great help and so appreciated.

Blessings!
