

The Family Prayer Center
615 Nassau Street
Immokalee, Fl. 34142

August Letter 2022 - One Assignment

Dear Friend,

It was once said that “The best way to destroy a man’s vision is to give him two visions.” The meaning of that is this: If you can take a person’s focus off their single most important assignment and divide their attention into multiple assignments, then you can destroy the effectiveness of their original mandate.

This had to have been a similar situation in the book of First Corinthians when Paul addresses the church in 1 Corinthians 1:10.

1Co 1:10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

(Amplified Version)

10 But I urge and entreat you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in perfect harmony and full agreement in what you say, and that there be no dissensions or factions or divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in your common understanding and in your opinions and judgments.

Paul the apostle had birthed the Corinthian Church through his ministry. Although other ministers had evidently visited and shared the truth of God’s word, Paul was the father of the Corinthian Church.

Paul’s assignment from God for the church seems very evident throughout the book. Paul’s assignment was to grow them up in Christ. His assignment was clear. He knew that he must remove from them an infantile mentality and replace it with the mature mind of Christ. To do this, Paul needed to teach them to stop running after preachers for their identification. He had to teach them to stop acting like the pagan society that they had come out of, and to finally walk in the love of God which superseded spiritual gifts and even faith.

1Co 13:13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

(Amplified Version)

13 And so faith, hope, love abide [faith--conviction and belief respecting man’s relation to God and divine things; hope--joyful and confident expectation of eternal salvation; love--true affection for God and man, growing out of God’s love for and in us], these three; but the greatest of these is love.

The Old Testament proverb that teaches “in the multitude of counselors there is safety” is often misconstrued to destroy the single counsel that the Holy Spirit gives to a group of people for the purpose of accomplishing His will in the earth. Often times, there is only confusion and a misplacement of the assignment through multiple voices.

Paul warned the Corinthian Church of the excess of instructors, or you might say for the purposes of this teaching letter, “those who would present multiple visions or assignments for the purpose of which you are called.”

1Co 4:14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

1Co 4:15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

1Co 4:16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

The vision, or you might say the assignment from God for this ministry is to teach people to go far enough into God through the pillars of Prayer, Worship, the Word, and Fasting to receive a supernatural outpouring that will be accompanied with signs, wonders, and miracles for the purpose of THE GREAT AND LAST DAY HARVEST OF SOULS. The vision is to receive the Revival from God that began on the Day of Pentecost in the book of Acts. The vision is to see a duplication of the same miracles that Jesus did in the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. In short, it is to receive a Revival that will last until the coming of Christ.

I appreciate with all honesty every ministry that is truly called by God for a specific purpose. I thank God for every ministry whose focus is to feed the poor and clothe the naked. I thank God for every ministry who focuses on street evangelism and winning the lost. And while every one of these are our individual responsibilities according to the Word of God, each one of these can be accomplished through simple human effort. Each one of these can be accomplished without the power of God. Even street evangelism can be accomplished through systematic human effort to fulfill the great commission of Christ to “go ye into all the world and preach the gospel.” But a duplication of the signs, wonders, and miracles that Jesus did that resulted in great harvest cannot be accomplished except through supernatural empowerment. That empowerment will come with no less than fulfilling our assignment to stay in the prayer closet, and birth what has not been seen in 2,000 years. This does not make us who have this assignment any more special than any other part of the Body of Christ, but without us becoming single minded and staying on course at any expense, the Revival will not take place.

Read this prophetic word from one of the Blueprint Prophecies which are listed on the homepage of our website.

Bring Me Gold

Prophecy191013 – October 13, 2019

Have I not asked you, being a body from the very beginning, to bring forth that in the earth which I have laid My hand on you to bring forth? says the Spirit of Grace. And I caution you again and encourage you again and solicit from you again, as My dear children, to bring Me gold tried by fire, says the Spirit of Grace. And I do not speak specifically of the trying of fire by testings and trials of which your faith will often be, but I am asking you to come and complete the purging process, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not trade your gold for brass. Do not trade your gold for brass, for have I not asked you? Have I not selected you? Have not I cautioned you that I have not selected you above others—that you would go in a way of pride or arrogance? Yet I have given you a calling that no one can achieve in the earth except through prayer and except through fasting, says the Spirit of Grace, except through going into My Word and the things of depth and promise.

Have I not given you a mandate from the very beginning? says the Spirit of Grace, and I have gathered your hearts and souls here as one to bring forth that mandate of prayer, says the Spirit of the Lord. Go into Me like you never have—determined in this year to come that you will make this a place of prayer inside of you like you have never known.

Many will grab you by the shoulder and by the arm and say, “Come do this with me.” The natural tendency will be to show your love to them and to show your allegiance to Me, says the Lord, that you would involve yourself in this and that and the other, but I say unto you as a church, and I say unto you as elders, and I say unto you believers, that what I have laid My hand on you for, as kings and priests, is to go into the prayer closet.

Many will reason, and your natural mind will reason, and Satan will come and say, “I’ve called you to the streets, and I’ve called you to feed the poor, and I’ve called you to do all these things.” And yes, in Me I will bring those things to pass, but it will not be through an operation of the flesh like most of the Church knows. But I will bring forth in you an exact replica of My Firstborn, the One who walked in front of you. Yes, He fed the poor, and yes, He brought forth ministry everywhere He went. It was because He knew Me in a private place. It was because He continued to purge Himself continually and walk in a place of commitment to Me, says the Spirit of Grace.

I am asking you to narrow your vision like never before. I am asking you to zero in like never before. I am calling you, says the Spirit of Grace, to become laser focused like never before. Busyness is not a sign. An over-busyness is not a sign unto you or a confirmation to you that great works are being done. And yet there will be times where you will be very busy doing My work, says the Lord.

Listen and hearken. I have few—I have very few who are willing to do this. I have very few who are willing to hide themselves in the secret place and go into My Word and go into My Spirit and to deny their flesh. The flesh will give you many opportunities to minister in My Name, and yet I will work a work there as much as I can, but I have a very select few who will hide themselves and bring forth the anointing that causes a citywide and a statewide revival, says the Spirit of the Lord.

So, I am asking you, kings and priest, I am asking you to come away with Me to a place that I have solicited from you for many, many years. And I am pleased with you, says the Spirit of Grace. I am not disheartened with you, but I am pleased with your effort so far, but I am asking you not to quench the Spirit—in not listening to these very words and reasoning them out in your own mind saying, “That is a man speaking; that’s a man speaking, but I hear from God.” Listen to these things; judge these things, says the Spirit of the Lord. Judge them by the Word.

Understand this, that I have called you aside. I have called you to be a peculiar people unto Me, says the Lord. I have called you to walk in the spirit and deny the flesh, and yet when you pray, you’ll move mountains, says the Lord. The earth has not seen people like you in many generations. I am asking you to come away with Me, My beloved. I am asking you to come away with Me, My beloved. Know Me in intimacy and know Me in My Word like you have never known before. Let your world that you live in become a place of peace and quietness.

I promise you by My Word and by My Spirit that none of you, including the one speaking now, have come into the place of peace and quiet like I have for you. There is a stillness that will direct your day. There is a stillness that will direct your life. There is a stillness that cannot hear the offense. Deafened ears cannot hear, and yet you will move out of a place of authority in My Spirit, continually moving mountains and moving things in your life. And yet ears are still dull of hearing, for many of you presently and many who will hear will think of other things and only hear this partially, but when you come to another place, you can hear it in more depth. And more depth will bring you to greater depth, says the Spirit of the Lord.

I say unto you that your entire life is to be consumed in Me, says the Lord. Give unto Me what brass and what silver cannot—I desire the fruit of the earth. I desire a great harvest, says the Spirit of the Lord. I desire that all of you walk in all the gifts of the Spirit, all the gifts of the Spirit flowing through you. I desire that Joel's army, the army of the last day, will flow together. No weak and no sickly among you is My desire, for I have chosen you as a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people unto Me.

If you are reading this letter, I believe it's because you have the same call in your life as the assignment that you just read about. You are hungry for God. You're hungry for the supernatural manifestations that will produce a worldwide harvest. There is only one way, and that is through intimacy and fellowship with the Holy Spirit. Let's become laser focused like never before. Let's stay in our lane and not deviate from the one vision that we have to see this Revival!

Candy and I want to thank you with all of our hearts for the part that you have in this vision. Without you, none of this would be possible. May the blessings of the Lord that make rich and add no sorrow keep your hearts and minds. May you prosper in the midst of recession and never come to lack. May your storehouse be filled with the abundance of God's blessings in your life all your days! Amen!

Blessings,
Pastor Bronc