All Things Are Made Perfect

There's no catching up...there's no catching up when faith is concerned. For those of you that learn to lay down your life in a moment's time, immediately everything is brought to its perfect place and everything is caught up in order. For the enemy of your soul wages a great battle against the mind and tells those that many who've walked through certain battles of their life who left them for a season unknowing where they stood in their walk trying of their own self to find their way back to a place of anointing, the enemy presses hard to say catch up, catch up, catch up. Know this, because of the anointing that is resident among you and the prayers and the faith of the saints and the intercessors that what is available is that moment in time where all things are made perfect. Do not despair little ones for those who are least among you who have a heart and an appetite to enter in or enter back in to fullness, all can be regained in a moment's time saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! And this will be the order of things as things progress and you will receive a reward, those of you who sat on the foundation of this thing as the apostles wrote and said we were with Him from the beginning, know this that much of your reward will be for those that you pray into this place and the atmosphere and you will stand in that day and know that reward is based upon those beginning seasons that you were apart of. But take note in this, that as they come in that the babies will be born with strength and they will only be babies for a short, short season saith the Spirit of the Lord. And as I have said in another place, babies born with teeth saith the Spirit of Grace, they are able to digest, to eat the meat and digest it and in a moments time almost they will go from infancy to adulthood to spread the word of the Lord and to be strong and to spring forth with great might and to lay hands on the sick and to cast out devils and to raise the dead saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Glory be to God!

A Place of Stretching

What is it that you define as a service? What is it that makes up the place where you gather? Know this; that I am pleased with your progression. I am pleased with what you've not surrounded Me with in the perimeter of religion. But if you will allow Me I will stretch you past the places that you know presently, into pleasant surroundings that you know not of. Let Me redefine what a service in My presence is supposed to look like. Let Me take you to unusual and particular kinds of things that will be peculiar on the onset but will be in the aftermath so fruitful in peace and in blessings and provision for all of the body. So know this, those of you that run out in front and worship Me in spirit and in truth and act as a guide or a pilot for those who will come and watch, know this, that it is in these services and many more like them that I desire to stretch you and redefine in you, offer up to me the definition of what is inside of you of what a service is supposed to be like because I desire to take you to places where you will not even recognize what you used to think and observe to be a service in My presence saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! We receive it Lord. We receive it Lord. We receive it Lord. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Thank You Jesus!

The Foundation is Sure-Perfect Holiness

(On Easter Sunday these prophecies came forth as many visiting family members were present.) The interpretation goes something like this...when I birthed through My Son's blood My full intent was this, to bring about the body. The same body that is present today on planet earth which was the seed sown by the first resurrection. Know this that truly always the cornerstone will be the hope in this resurrection saith the Spirit of Grace. But when I planted this seed I expected it to grow. But know this, that too much of My church has camped at the beginning place and not moved on. For I meant that to be the cornerstone of rejoicing whereby My church could be build line on line, precept upon precept. For My pleasure is in this, that My people all over the planet are celebrating an occasion by which I set this in order. Oh, but know this saith the Spirit of Grace, that if you will go on from this place, not camp just here, this was the beginning for I added to it the power of My Holy Spirit whereby My church was to be built saith the Spirit of Grace. And line on line I would add to it the power by which the apostles walked in. For once again I desire to visit My church, for heralded has been the resurrection and of great, great reward there will be for those who just camp and stay on that place and born-again souls into the kingdom of God but know this, that was the beginning and that was supposed to be the launching pad whereby which men were to look at the power in your life portrayed by the power of that resurrection saith the Spirit of Grace. So rejoice in Me today knowing this, that in these last times that the blind will see and the lame will walk and the deaf will hear and the dumb will speak again and the maimed will be made whole and all the works whereby I begun My church was once lost by religion and those who were well, well acquainted with sitting Sunday after Sunday in padded pews and listening to only the foundation. Know this the foundation is sure now go on to perfect holiness in the sight of your King saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah!

I'm Coming For Them

I don't want to interrupt you because you are doing so good...but...a footnote. He just spoke to me and told me to tell you this. You can stand there (tongues...) you can rejoice in this knowing many, many of you will see this, before this year turns into another one and you stand at another Easter service know this, that because of what I am doing in My church and using the foundation once again to bring it forward, know this, that next Easter and even before, some of the sons and daughters that you've been believing for are going to be standing right beside you. Hallelujah! (Tongues...) Those that you've stood for, for so long, in hellacious kinds of situations and you've said, my God; I don't know how we will ever drag them out of the world. Know this saith the Spirit of Grace, I'm coming for them. I'm coming for them. Hallelujah! So you can rejoice in where you stand but know this there is about to be a great harvest. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Saturated in My Spirit

He said instruct you...for have I not said recently, time and again, that I desire to restructure your services and stretch you beyond the place that you now dwell? (He said to instruct you to understand. The frequency of these reoccurring quiet moments, not just a shut down from an emotional high but the coming of His spirit...just like the spirit moved upon the face of the deep, sat upon the earth and brooded over it, until He was ready to bring forth the abundance of life. The Lord said you can expect this time and time again...) Through it I am nurturing your spirit asking for more and I am asking you will you give Me, those of you that are spiritually mature, will you give Me what I am asking? Will you give Me what I am asking for? I'm asking for times of lingering in My presence and staying until the cup is full and running over. Know that My grace is sufficient and you won't have to bear this burden of yourself. When I come, My grace is on you. To go to the next realm it does take place of incubation and saturation in My spirit to go where I am asking you to go saith the Spirit of Grace. For a whole city is waiting for you. (tongues...) Don't get caught up in other things; don't get caught up chasing this or chasing that. Know this that I have provided this grace for you as a body and every man that enters into it will be saturated in My spirit, well equipped to go into revival. The whole city will soon be at your door looking for answers. You must have this season of saturation or you will not be equipped. Rest in Me saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Out of Your Belly Will Flow Rivers

(tongues...) While I was with you did I not speak this mystery on this wise, that out of your belly should flow rivers of living water saith the Spirit of the Lord? For I did not say that from out of you would come a pool or reservoir for I spoke of a river that was forever continually fed by a source and I am that source saith the Spirit of Grace. Know this, that river was also spoken of that out of your belly shall flow river(s). There will be places that I will take you, I'll take you through My spirit through that gift and rivers will run through you, every river that is necessary for your edification and to take you higher and higher and higher. And you will no more receive from one river that I will turn and you will say, my...what is this, another tongue, it's a gift, something changed inside of me and oh but it will be the thing that you need for the hour and the season of your life and that river will no more run dry than another river will run through you stronger and stronger saith the Spirit of Grace. For I desire that My church would always be moving continually in the power of My might. This is why I spoke of river(s) flowing out of your belly saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

Corporate Anointing

Know this, saith the Spirit of the Lord the day is coming and now is that you will be spending as much time together as you are apart. You will be spending as much time together in corporate worship as you do in private worship. Know this, that even as there are things that can only be accomplished in your private settings there are also things of My anointing that can only be accomplished in corporate anointing saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! And as I said in My word that the streams make glad, this river makes glad the city of our God, know this, that you are part of that river and your coming together produces a river that makes glad and produces My glory and brings to pass My will in the corporate saith the Lord. When you gather together it is well pleasing to Me and I can accomplish in these hours what it might take you many, many hours of yourself to accomplish saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Glory!

Season of Refreshing

As your spirit well detects that something has changed in the realm of the spirit for truly this season has begun and is a season, a pouring out of My spirit on all flesh and truly this to you as a church, is now a season of refreshing from My throne saith the Spirit of Grace. For know this, that no season sent of the Lord should end but should give way to the next and to the next and to the next. Let it not be said among you or even in your heart that we've rode high times before only to find lulls in between, know this that if a lull came it was not because I sent it. It was not because the devil and all of his arch rivalry had any capacity in and of himself to stop what I was doing but know this, it is the air of expectancy that continues to fuel any season saith the Spirit of Grace. And the more that you add fuel and expectancy to what I do know this, that one wave will give itself over to another wave and this can be ridden all the way into the revival saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Blessed be the Lamb! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Growing Up

This is the joy of your Father that anybody that starts this journey, they do it on their own volition. For I birthed you by the right of grace and birthed you free of charge through someone else's sacrifice but then to know Me and to go on to perfect a life that I can use it must be upon your volition, your desire. So know this, that you are never faulted for the time that you spend having to deal with the things that must be taken out by My spirit. For anyone who starts in this journey and gives themselves over to the desire of having Me come and bring this type of purging, know this that along with it there is a joy that comes strait out of heaven. For the pleasure of your Father is to see His children love Him enough that they will go on to allow Him to turn their lives into something of great use. So know this, that the rejoicing and the wonderful side of this can be only experienced in the joy that you receive as your Father rejoices in you as children that are growing up under the image of His Son. Hallelujah! Thank You Jesus!

It's Through Peace

So what He's saying is this, part of when He first started speaking was more instruction just to me, He said, tell them this, instruct them, that is what He was saying to me. What He's saying to you is this, those of you that received, when you receive a download like this, God comes with supernatural but what He gives is something to open up the airwaves of the spirit realm and that's you. So God is always there if you are born again but what usually clouds those things up is the level of peace and tranquility that you walk in, so when that gets muddied, when things come against the mind so strong that the peace, really the peace He said is the compass, as He said in His word let your feet be shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. And so peace was the thing that shod your feet and your feet carried you wherever you went and it was the direction of the Lord. So when your peace is not intact, you've allow things to come in and cloud that peace, it's hard to know that this is what He's working on is your peace. So this is how He will speak to you, too much of My children saith He is, try to figure out things with their mind and they weigh things out with reasoning and they stack one reason why against one reason why not. Like picking, (I saw that picture) like picking petals from a daisy – it is, it is not, it is, it is not. But know this that I left you to a comforter and by the very reason of His name I explained to you how that I would deal, as I said, He is the comforter. Then understand this, that direction comes through comfort and sometimes or most of the time He said, most of the time when looking for direction, still My people do not realize their supernatural abilities and their supernatural DNA, the origin by which they have been spawned by the spiritual loins of My son. As long as you deal in the natural, as long as you stack one reason against the other then it's hard for Me to invade your privacy because you've done those things and you've reasoned them out and you've asked Me to come and get involved with your reason. But I am asking you to come and get involved with Me. I am asking you to settle down. (Tongues...) Did I not say that it works on this wise; it was a peace that passes understanding? So it wasn't that I would leave understanding out of it or bring your understanding to a place where you could understand, I do desire for you to come to full understanding but the basis of that understanding must be upon peace. And even when natural reason says, well it's this way or it has to go this way for me to be able to be settled. Know this, that it will be that part in you that says okay Lord, I'll get quiet and listen. And whatever your peace confirms, whatever I feel that deep, deep seated quiet tranquility by the Holy Ghost, then I know that its through that process of thoughts that you are leading me saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
