Wake Up

For this purpose I have come to awaken you out of sleep saith the Spirit of Grace. For those that are asleep do not know they slumber while they sleep and while you sleep even though you know there is that warfare that surrounds you, you hardly find the means to gather yourself and wake up and go forward in the way that you know is possible but know this unto you this day has been given a charge and is delivered in the spirit a place for you to wake up and to arise thou that sleepest and come forth saith the Spirit of Grace. Arise thou that sleepest and come forth saith the Spirit of Grace and know that you are awakened into a place of prosperity in My spirit whereby which I by the sword of My spirit bring forth a judgment on your enemies. Those that have come to bring you into bondage and those spirits of darkness that have come to levy their will against your will. Know this saith the Spirit of Grace that in My grace is that grace to bring forth an awakening out of all slumber and a bringing forth into a quickening of My spirit saith the Spirit of Grace whereby which you in these hours and in these days can rule and reign over your enemies saith the Spirit of Grace.

Stand Up and Rejoice

Rejoice. Rejoice. Again I say rejoice. Brighten up. Brighten yourself up. Brighten up. In times when I have said rejoice, when Paul said rejoice, where was he when he said rejoice? When Paul and Silas were rejoicing where were they? Are you not in times like this in places where you feel that you are in prison? But I say rejoice. Brighten up. Cheer up. Cheer up this morning. Cheer up. Rise up, stand up, cause your shoulders to stand back up and be men and women of God this morning. I tell you this morning that the Gospel is good news. When you are receiving bad news, I tell you that I am the God of good news. When they say to you that you are given bad news, when they come with bad news in letters, when they say to you this is what is happening, when they say you are losing this, say I have a God that is good news, good news. I will stand on good news this morning. Lift your shoulders, stand on good news because you do not lose when you are crushed and you are standing up against perilous times and the times that back you up against a wall and you say, how am I going to get out of this? I tell you this that you will not lose because I am a God that will let you stand in the days that you are living in that are perilous times, you will not lose. Brighten up this morning. Cheer up, stand up and say I have the word and the word will not let me fail, the word will not let me move and I have a God that will not let me fail.

Living Inside Prophecy

For I prophesied in My word of these days to come, these days that you live in now. For truly saith the Spirit of Grace you are living inside prophecy, your are living inside the pages of My word. Find those places in My word that you now live in and rejoice that you were the generation that saw all these things come to pass. Hallelujah! Praise God! (Tongues...) Did I not say that the joy of the Lord was your strength? Do not be as the world, nor of the weakened side of the body that have only set their sights on the things that are negative and on the things that are against My word but I would tell you rejoice in this hour as a bride that is adorned, oh the last moments just before the wedding is taking place saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! There's more... just like a bride adorns herself in those last hours and gets just as ready and as perfect as possible, just for the appearance of her groom. I am asking you to put on the last part of your makeup and get ready to receive Me as your groom saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah!

Coming For the Bride

(Tongues...) Might as well receive some antiphonal kinds of praise here, for He said, as your Groom know this that I rejoice to see you. I left you as a small, small bride but I am coming back for a bride that has grown in number and when I see her she will have been grown in grace fully equipped to be received by her Husband. Hallelujah!

Take Great Hope

Take great hope saith the Spirit of Grace, for know this that when My blood, His blood was shed for all men know this that everything in that, encompassed everything that man would need for all ages. For the world is searching for that lost church that was left from the beginning, not to preach just a watered down salvation message but one that encompasses the entire mind of Christ saith the Spirit of Grace. So know this, when you tell them that My blood is able to save them from their sins and wash them, you will also be able to tell them that My blood is sufficient to heal their bodies and deliver their minds and to bring forth great miracles saith the Spirit of Grace. (Tongues...) For this is the thing that will separate you and all that will be like you in Me in these last days for not only will you say believe me and if you can not believe me for the doctrines sake then believe me for the works sake saith the Spirit of Christ. For you will be able to say in that day and in these days now, oh watch me as I follow Christ and the works that I do, He said that I would do in Him and even greater works. If He did these, if He raised the dead, and the blind saw and the lame walked and the deaf heard and the dumb spoke and the demoniacs were set free then all these things will follow you and prove to the world and to the lost church that My blood is and was sufficient saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus!

In Me Are All The Riches

I was forsaken so that you don't have to be. I was abandoned and left alone so you don't have to ever be scourged with the scourge of abandonment saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...) For there are those in this world who surround themselves with great entourage's of friends and yet are alone and there are those who are alone and have great company saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! I exalt You Jesus! (tongues...) So take great hope for your tomorrow and take great hope for your today, oh for in Me are all the riches of everything that you are looking for in this life saith the Spirit of Grace.

All You Need Is Me

There is nothing that could ever even come close to what I can do for you. There is nothing in this life you need besides Me. All you ever need is Me and all you could ever long for one day will be Me. Seek My face and seek My direction in your life, there is nothing that compares to who I am. There is nothing that compares. You think you need other things, everything else is nothing. Everything else will bring you to nothing. All you really need is Me. All you need is My presence. All you need is My life in you. I am your hope; there is nothing that could replace Me. Search and search as you may but you will never find anything outside. Come in, come into this place with Me and receive Me. Nothing else will bring peace to your life. Nothing else will bring you joy. Nothing else will bring you soundness in your mind. Nothing else could settle you. Choose Me. I am the Way, I am the Truth and I am the Life. There is no way but by Me. If you will seek Me I will pour My love on you like you could not imagine. I have things for you in mind that you have not even imagined yet. I have a way for you that you could not even comprehend at this state of where you are. But if you will reach out to Me and just give Me a little portion of you, I will lavish My love on you and you will never want anything else but Me. I have more than enough. So come unto Me all you that are weak and heavy laden, I will give you rest. I will quench your thirsty soul. I will be your help. I will be your peace. I will be your strong tower. I will be your portion. I will be your hiding place. I will keep you safe. I will be a place of refuge for you. So come to Me because I love you so much. I am reaching out to you and I will never stop. I will always reach out to you, I am always here for you when you decide to turn around and take My hand. I am here for you. Just remember I am here for you. Jesus!

Times of Communion

These times when you are not afraid to totally be still and opened before Me, I delight in it. I delight for you to rest and trust Me completely to slow down and just sit and listen. I love you. Spend much time in these times of communion with Me. It is in these times of communion with Me for it is in these times that the most change takes place. It is in these times that you bring joy to My heart. Thank You Jesus!
