Love Employed Conquers

For he has not found, that is your enemy, nor will he ever find any weapon to match in capacity My love saith the Spirit of Grace. For when you find this mystery so true that the greatest weapon that I have ever employed to the church was whosoever will let him come, for God so loved the world that I gave My only begotten Son. Know this that when this love that I had and have for you reigns and rules in you and begins to take over your life consistent, systematic you will find that fear and torment is driven out and the occupancy of it whereby it laid hidden, hidden for a long time, at times unable to be discovered by natural means and unable to be remedied by natural means. Know this when you worship Me out of your nature, that nature that I gave you, know this that you begin the beginning stages employing that weapon both to you and then to work through you to destroy the occupancy of fears and doubt and where all fear and doubt is gone it is replaced with that which is joy unspeakable and full of glory saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Blessed be the Lamb!

Study My word, show yourself approved unto God. A workman that needeth not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth saith the Spirit of Grace. Honor My word, hold My word above all things saith the Spirit of Grace. For in these last days your rejoicing will be in what you know and what is proved to you by My spirit through My word. So those who know My word and hold to it will have a strong consolation in these last days saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Thank You Father!

Remember The Foundation

Remember accurately saith the Spirit of Grace, your foundation. Remember the foundation that I gave from the very beginning to My church, beginning first upon His blood and the accomplished work which My Son brought forth. I sent forth the Comforter and when He came, He came to baptize and to bring forth the language of heaven to lead and to guide My church into all truth. Do not forget that which He has come for and exercise it greatly in these last days to see your reward and your inheritance in this earth come to fullness saith the Spirit of Grace. For there is no penalty for those things not done but there is great dividends and reward for the time and the hours spent in the language that produces heavenly results saith the Spirit of Grace. For know this those that will be inoculated against the wiles of the enemy in these last days will have received their portion from above and will walk in the fullness of that portion through this gift and other avenues whereby which I will empower you saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus!

Desperation

For know this My word unto you is desperate saith the Spirit of Grace. For those who will hunger and thirst will come to a place in Me that they will find the reality of the beauty, the God given desperation that comes to a heart that can not be relinquished with anything else but more of Me saith the Spirit of Grace. Know this that all who's heart is out crying, God, I must be desperate for You, I will crown you with this in these hours saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!

My Desire Is To Increase You

He said did I not say that if any man would come unto Me and enter the door behold he would enter into pastures and he would go out and come in. For many places I desire to lay you down. Many places I desire to bring you to and increase your knowledge and increase your edification and increase the glory that you walk in. But know this it will not be the things that you don't know that will bring you into the next level. It will be the things that you know and do at this level that will bring you into other pastures and places of rest saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah Jesus! (tongues...) For many run after things that are new and try to fill voids inside of them and yet have not taken up and done the things which on whatever level they came to that I was able to get across to them and so discarding those things and going on to seek other things will only bring in a place of delusion and will cause those things which are of truth in those places only to be of a lesser value. But stand in this place and do the things that I have said, pray in the spirit and edify yourself often and magnify Me and know this there is in itself that which revives and that which brings forth and that which comes forth and that which motivates and brings forth that no man can come and motivate you to by My spirit bring forth these things by that which I have already placed within you saith the Spirit of Grace.

Where Grace And Power Is Found

For many of you will walk in this place of power. Cause the thing that is of a great necessity is desire. But you will find desire coming upon you more and more and more as you go into Me saith the Spirit of Grace. Do not hinder this but court it, romance it, find that I will come to you at what seems to be the most inconvenient moments that you will be riding down the road or talking with a friend and you will find that inside of you, you are wanting to steal away into places of intimacy. Know this that this is the prelude, it is the place that I court you with to say come over here were grace and power is found on an everyday basis saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah! Praise You Jesus!
